The Letter of the Law Is the Skeletal Framework of a Cosmos Part 1

Good evening, Keepers of the Flame.

I come bearing the scepter of the Knight Commander. I come to address you in the cosmic honor flame. I come in purity. I come in freedom. And I come in love.

So let your love be the fulfillment of the law of your being—not only the spirit of the Law but the letter of the Law. For as the Law came through Moses and grace came by Jesus Christ, so that grace was never intended to supersede the letter of the Law, which is the skeletal framework of a cosmos.

The letter of the Law is the grid of light that is the antahkarana of Father substance, of blue-ray energy.

The Letter of the Law Is the Skeletal Framework of a Cosmos

Part I

Good evening, Keepers of the Flame.

I come bearing the scepter of the Knight Commander. I come to address you in the cosmic honor flame. I come in purity. I come in freedom. And I come in love.

So let your love be the fulfillment of the law of your being—not only the spirit of the Law but the letter of the Law. For as the Law came through Moses and grace came by Jesus Christ, so that grace was never intended to supersede the letter of the Law, which is the skeletal framework of a cosmos.

The letter of the Law is the grid of light that is the antah-karana of Father substance, of blue-ray energy. It is the skeleton. And can the body function without the skeleton? Those who are the spineless ones, without the courage to champion the Law as the Law is written, are found wanting in the hour when from out the Great Central Sun the light goes forth for the freedom of the feminine ray.

For I tell you that the freedom of the feminine ray is the freedom of the white-fire core of your being. And when the light streams forth from the base-of-the-spine chakra and rises as a mighty fountain of light up through the spine and through the Tree of Life [the Kundalini], penetrating all of the chakras of your body, then you will know what it is to have light flow. And in that hour it will be necessary for you to have a momentum of the letter of the Law as well as the spirit of the Law, for the letter of the Law provides the channel and the channeling of the great energies of the feminine ray.

What I am saying is this—that without the foundation of the masculine ray established within you, you cannot receive the feminine ray. And therefore without the letter of the Law established within you firmly, you cannot receive the grace of your Christ Self.

Understand and believe, O children of the light!

Do you not understand that you do not always know the way that is right, the way that is true, the way that is honorable? Therefore you trust in the ascended masters as the gurus of the age. You trust in the messengers and in the power of the spoken Word whereby I deliver my message to you this night, despite the opposition to the victory of the sacred Word within you.

Do you understand that I come forth within you, within your heart? I come forth with dispensations of light from my causal body, and I am ready to pour the new wine into souls who have uplifted chalices of fire. I look for those chalices of devotion, of constancy, of sticking to a job until it is done no matter what the obstacles. I look for chelas who are tenacious, who will hang on unto the end no matter what the sacrifice, no matter what the storm, the violent hurricane, the down-pour of the fire. I look for chelas who are standing when the smoke of the battle is cleared.

And so you have come forth, and so you have impelled from my causal body dispensations of light. I want you to know, as I stand before you and as I live, that my causal body is full of dispensations, but you have not called them forth with enough fervor to warrant the release of that energy!

And so I am like good Saint Nick, and the pack on my back is my causal body brimming with gifts, with abundance, and with graces. Know you not, O Keepers of the Flame, that within my causal body alone is the necessary momentum of the violet flame of freedom for the salvation of this entire planet!

Do you not understand that this momentum that is within my causal body is there and it is multiplied again through every retreat and by every cosmic being serving in this hour of victory and this hour of trial?

Now I say to you: Receive, then, the Word! Receive the fire! And form in this moment, if you have not formed it before, that precious chalice to receive my word. For my word will be poured forth, and woe be unto those who have not prepared for the receipt of that word. For should that word fall onto the ground because you have no chalice, then I say, the LORD will not hold you guiltless.

Do you understand, then, that for dispensations of light to be given, it is necessary to have a circle of fire of Keepers of the Flame who are already dedicated, who come into our meetings and into our services prepared and purified and ready? Otherwise we must always begin at the beginning. We must always give the basic teachings. And even our dictations cannot advance without the most advanced chelas present because of those souls who are coming as babes, almost as babes in toyland.

So they come before the teachings of the Great White Brotherhood. They come to receive, and their eyes are alight with the joy of discovery, as on Christmas morning they come to find the gifts and the stocking that is filled. And so that stocking filled with toys is symbolic of attainment, and therefore to the good children the toys are promised; but to those children who have been naughty, they are found wanting. So it is with hierarchy. So it is with the ascended masters. And therefore the LORD has said that he would pour out his light and his spirit upon all flesh.<sup>1</sup>

I come in the name of the LORD. I come here, in this focus of the Divine Mother consecrated of old by Mother Mary to Saint Michael as San Miguel.<sup>2</sup> This is the point of the defense of the Divine Mother by Michael the Archangel. So this is a city of light, of beauty, and of the culture of ancient Mu. So here in temples of light the Mother flame was enshrined, and some of those temples were not unlike those buildings of art and beauty that you have seen.

So these buildings that hold the artifacts of civilization in this city are replicas, in some aspects, of the glory of Venus, of Sanat Kumara and Lady Venus, the Goddess of Love. We seek to reestablish in this city that flame of the Divine Mother, that focus of the white-fire core dedicated to Mary the Mother, to Raphael and the healing masters and all who serve the cause of truth on behalf of mankind.

I say, then, let the standard of truth be raised high. Let us see the elimination of vacillation, indecision, rationalization, and the hopping to and fro without accomplishment.

I demand action from the Keepers of the Flame. I demand consistent action. I demand a daily ritual of service in the light and in the law of being. I demand that you read and reread the code of conduct, that code of conduct for students of our university.<sup>3</sup> And if you desire to be called and to be chosen and to be the elect of God, then I say: Keep that purity. Keep that seed of light. Keep your energies anchored in the chakras.

For do you understand that each chakra is a sphere of light that day by day is filled with energy through your invocations? And so the lines are drawn, as the lines of latitude on the globe. Line by line each chakra is filled with light. And when the chakras are filled and sustained as a blazing sun of fire, then that chakra—and the next and the next and all the chakras together—magnetize the ascent of the feminine ray.

This is the purpose of our focus—that the energy of the white-fire core of this state of California might be raised, level by level, city by city, chakra by chakra, until the entire Golden State is filled with golden liquid light because some have chosen to sacrifice the lesser self and the indulgences of the lesser self, because some have chosen “the better part,” as Mary, the Mother ray of old.<sup>4</sup> So, then, today, let every Martha also choose the better part of light, of invocation, and of combining service with listening grace, with meditation, and with the practice of the science of the spoken Word.

This is my dispensation that I pour out upon all Keepers of the Flame who have been loyal to the Keepers of the Flame Fraternity: This night I pour forth the momentum of the freedom flame across the planetary body for the clearing and the protection of the feminine ray and for the freedom of that ray. I declare the independence of the feminine ray within you, within your soul, within your seat-of-the-soul chakra, and within your base-of-the-spine chakra.

I come forth. Mother Mary is with me, and Jesus stands at our side. This is the action of the holy Trinity for the Aquarian cycle and for the anchoring of the triangle, of equilibrium, of balance in the threefold flame in this city of light. Therefore Mother Mary releases the energies of the white-fire core for the sealing of the base-of-the-spine chakra within you and for the preparation of each Keeper of the Flame to receive those energies for the raising of that white light in the hour of the appointing by the I AM Presence.

From my causal body there goes forth the signet of the Holy Family, multiplied by Jesus and Mary. I give an impetus to all true Keepers of the Flame who have kept the Word. Within the seat-of-the-soul chakra there goes forth the fire of freedom from my causal body, multiplying your own momentum of freedom contained within your own causal body.

Therefore, as you have sown the flame of freedom in past and present ages, as you have been devoted to that cause of freedom, so whatever the momentum in your causal body this hour, I shall multiply it by the power of my own causal body. I am releasing those momentums together, then, and anchoring them in the seat-of-the-soul chakra for the purification of the seed and the egg of man and woman united in holy matrimony, that they might bring forth the avatars and the Christed ones.

“The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o’er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom.” This previously unpublished dictation by Saint Germain was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Saturday, March 1, 1975, during the Saturday evening service at the University of California San Diego, La Jolla, California. [N.B. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] Part 2 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 12. (1) Joel 2:28, 29; Acts 2:17, 18; Isa. 44:3. (2) This focus consecrated to Archangel Michael as San Miguel. According to the history of Mission Basilica San Diego de Alcalá, the explorer Juan Rodríguez Cabrillo arrived in San Diego Bay in 1542 and, following Spanish tradition, named it for the saint whose feast day was closest to the landing: San Miguel (Saint Michael). In 1602, explorer Sebastian Viscaïno entered the harbor and renamed it San Diego (from <http://www.missionsandiego.org/visit/history/>). The ascended masters teach that areas of the California coastline were once part of the lost continent of Lemuria, also known as the Motherland. In one of the temples on Lemuria there blazed the flame of the Divine Mother. (3) The code of conduct. In 1975, at the time of this dictation, a code of conduct, called A Way of Life, was in place as a set of standards for students of Summit University to live by. The purpose of this code of conduct was, and remains today, a standard for discipleship, which includes the teaching that “Without discipline, there is no path and no disciple.” Other community members could, and can today, adopt this code of conduct for their daily life as a means for living according to the path of discipleship. (4) Luke 10:38–42.
