

Beloved Jesus the Christ

The Lively Stones of Church Universal and Triumphant Part 2

I AM here! You have called me and I have come! I AM the power of the resurrection! I AM the power of healing in you!

Why will you limit the manifestation of God? Do you not know that even the thief who hung on the cross was received by me this day in paradise? Do you not know that the confession and the repentance and the glorying in Christ is the promise of fulfillment?

How can you know the heart of those who have sinned, how they too long for Christ? Their longing is often far greater than those who have never walked the path of sin, for those who have not sinned have not known the absence of the Christ that sin brings and therefore they have not the love of Mary Magdalene.

Summit University Summer Seminar

People dream of an ideal society, yet we seem unable to attain these lofty visions. Many battles are fought over competing beliefs about what creates an ideal society.

Now, an ideology of democratic socialism is spreading on university campuses and beyond. Adherents see it as a pathway to a better, more just society. But is it really? History has shown that socialism doesn't lead to the ideal society, nor does a heartless monopolist capitalism.

What are the core principles of this higher way? Come and learn the keys that will restore God-government on earth!

The Lively Stones of Church Universal and Triumphant

Part 2

I AM here! You have called me and I have come! I AM the power of the resurrection! I AM the power of healing in you!

Why will you limit the manifestation of God? Do you not know that even the thief who hung on the cross was received by me this day in paradise?¹ Do you not know that the confession and the repentance and the glorying in Christ is the promise of fulfillment?

How can you know the heart of those who have sinned, how they too long for Christ? Their longing is often far greater than those who have never walked the path of sin, for those who have not sinned have not known the absence of the Christ that sin brings and therefore they have not the love of Mary Magdalene. They have not the love that burns in those who have tasted of the outer darkness and who are now longing to come in.

To all these I say: Come into my heart in this moment! For the resurrection fires burn and there is opportunity for salvation unto all!

I stand before the Court of the Sacred Fire this day and I plead for those who have been assigned in the Book of Life to the second death. I plead for their souls! I plead for a moratorium! I plead before the altar of Almighty God that they might be given opportunity to receive the Word from the heart of the Mother!

Therefore I say, make room in this City of the Angels for a permanent focus of this Church! Make room so that the multitudes might be drawn in! For I would reach into the depths and draw in those souls whose destiny it is to rise. Every soul who has gone forth from the heart of the living God must return. I AM the law of the return, and I would preserve individuality in the hour of the return.

So, O God! So, O man! Hear the plea of the Christ! For I know all hearts. I know the love of the hearts who fear and who tremble lest they falter and they fail.

There are so many among mankind who have failed so many times in their own eyes (yet not in the eyes of God), who have failed by the condemnation of the accuser of the brethren. They fear to put one foot forward and to take a step into the light, lest in the blinding light of their own I AM Presence they should falter and fail again. And they do not want to fail, I assure you. But the fallen ones have placed that curse of failure upon them.

I say this day, by the power of the resurrection flame: I stand forth to break the curse of failure! Blaze the light through! Blaze the light through! Blaze the light through!

By the action of Almighty God, let victory now rise! Let it come forth now, as the springs from the heart of the earth begin to bubble and then to rise and then to shoot forth as the geysers of the great monuments of life, giving testimony to the eternal spring of the Mother in the heart of the earth that comes forth to nourish the body of our Lord.

O precious hearts, you who have love, let that love increase. I place now the forcefield of my heart and the Immaculate Heart of Mary upon your own heart. I place that forcefield of my own yearning for the souls of mankind within you. Now see how that love increases within you. See how my love will dissolve that sense of separation, that sense of looking down upon those who have not made it on the Path.

I say, go out and find them! Go into the highways and byways and compel them to come into the true Church! And let them know that the true Church is the consciousness of God where you are, which can consecrate even these stones to be the immortal repository of the fire of life.

So consecrate Mater. So consecrate the body and the blood, the mind and soul and heart. For I, Jesus, have come to reclaim my own, and I will not be turned back!

I AM come in the full glory of life. I AM come, O precious ones. I AM come, and I desire to receive this day the little ones. Therefore at the conclusion of this dictation and after the singing unto me (which has been prepared so lovingly), bring the little ones, every one, for I would touch them. I would give unto these the promise of the coming of the kingdom. I would consecrate them as lightbearers and as the promise and the hope of the New Age. Therefore, suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of heaven.²

Therefore, let there be no shame in giving birth to the Christed ones. Let there be no condemnation! For I, Jesus, have consecrated marriage by my presence at the marriage in Cana of Galilee. And it is ordained by God for man and woman to come together to receive the light of the Holy Spirit and to bring forth souls coming into the light—souls who desire to be free, souls who require opportunity, and souls who come as avatars of the ages.

Let them come! Let them come, I say! And let them be received in light, in purity, in joy, and in honor. So let those who deny life receive the judgment this day. For the judgment is the mercy of the Law. And the mercy of the Law is that those who deny life might know the consequences of their actions before it is too late so that they might redeem that energy and have renewed opportunity to pursue the abundant life they have denied to others.

So, then, I release the cycles for illumination and for judgment. So let it be known this day that I, Jesus, sponsor every incoming soul. And those who deny these little ones deny me before the Father,³ and they shall be constrained to remain in these lower planes until every jot and tittle of the Law is fulfilled.

And so let it be known that this day, in commemoration of the Holy Spirit and the twenty-five-year cycle of the Holy Spirit,⁴ that I am lowering the energies of my being and my Electronic Presence, preparing for the day when the ascended masters will be visible and tangible and physical among mankind.

So I come closer in frequency than ever before, and I will sustain that level of closeness as long as the communicants of the LORD and of the true Church will continue to give the Hail Mary and the rosary unto my mother. For as you have honored my mother, so you honor me. And so as you honor the mother in all life, so the Christ can come forth.

I therefore am called because you have given honor unto the Virgin Mary. I come forth, then, into the planes of Mater through the Divine Woman, and I am born again as the Bethlehem babe. I am come as the child, as the young man, and as the one resurrected and preparing for the ascension. So know me in all phases of the walks of life and look upon one another solely as the incarnation of Christ. Have the same regard for one another as you would if you were to receive Jesus, Mary, and Saint Germain into your home.

For I tell you that as you give unto life, so you are signaling the Godhead as to how you will receive the ascended masters. And when you receive one another as the living Christ, you will see before you—standing there in place of the one whom you would greet—the living, tangible, breathing flame of the ascended masters. Therefore receive the prophet in the name of the prophet and thereby have the prophet's reward.⁵

So then, know that I walk among mankind here below. Have that consciousness of receiving one another in and as the Christ, and you will usher in that golden age. This is when the heavenly hosts will merge once again with mankind and when mankind will be elevated, even as we descend with the full momentum of Spirit into the planes of Mater!

To this end I consecrate this City of the Angels—for this is the place of the release of the resurrection flame! This is the place prepared! Prepare ye the place, and receive your God!

I AM with you this day, and I AM with you always, even unto the end of the age of the divine appearing!⁶

Lo, I have come! Lo, I shall remain! Lo, I AM in you forever, Jesus the Christ!

To the Spirit of the Resurrection Flame

In the name of Almighty God, I call to the angels of initiation that are with me to convey into the world of form the beauty of holiness, the love of God, the power of Brotherhood, and the sustainment of the torch of Freedom.

O Spirit of the Resurrection Flame in these thy children:
O Spirit of the Resurrection, consecrate their lives anew!
O Spirit of the Resurrection, make them many, not few!
O Spirit of the Resurrection, love them free!
O Spirit of the Resurrection, expand, expand in thee!

Peace to the world,
Peace I give.
Peace to the world,
By Peace I live.
Peace to the world—
And Freedom, too,
For the many, and not the few.*
