The Fragrance of Love and Liberty

I am speaking to you today from my lovely retreat in France, known as the Château de Liberté. And inasmuch as my release has to do with the projection of beauty into your worlds and all life on this dear earth, I have given you the additional help of the foregoing as assistance in projecting love rays everywhere, spreading the fragrance of love and liberty and the love of liberty everywhere!

You see, although beauty exists everywhere, it remains for the alchemy of the pure in heart to see it. (“The pure in heart shall see God-good everywhere.”) The development of this art is the prerogative of those who serve on the third ray. And of course as The Summit Lighthouse is an expression of love, it is imperative that the love of wisdom and the love of love, or the true wisdom of love, be revealed in all its majesty to those who will accept it into their worlds.

The Fragrance of Love and Liberty

To be capable in thought of actually temporarily entering the consciousness of another lifestream will open the door to many avenues of service and loveliness, providing you use this advanced art wisely.

You become our beneficiaries when you exchange your consciousness with any member of the ascended or angelic hosts, giving us your limited consciousness for a little while as we take yours, inasmuch as human consciousness cannot long abide in our love in action, which will embroider upon it a consciousness of everlasting beauty. You see, true beauty is God, and all things are God and therefore are truly beautiful when seen through our consciousness.

Now, when entering the world of the unascended temporarily, much can likewise be accomplished both of a giving and receiving nature, for all have some virtue to give. And so all who bestow healing to another should find some constructive momentum in the mind of the beneficiary that will likewise enrich the benefactor permanently.

Before projecting the mind and consciousness to another, be sure to use your tube of light as protection, then in addition Lord Michael's sword of blue flame and the whole I AM armour of blazing God-light. Upon return to your own sphere, use an abundance of the violet fire.

Now, this is an advanced art, in truth, which while used frequently by the ascended hosts, you may also learn to do, thus fitting yourself for greater service to the light. In past centuries this art was lost because it was used, or rather misused, frequently to project harmful vibrations and expressions to another part of life with whom the individual projecting might not be in harmony.¹

Such was the activity of the black magicians, who paid dearly for this misuse of God's life, many of them having waited as prisoners in "the compound"² until such time as this knowledge of the I AM Light made possible the dissolving of that astral chamber of darkness.

The Alchemy of the Pure in Heart to See Beauty

I am speaking to you today from my lovely retreat in France, known as the Château de Liberté. And inasmuch as my release has to do with the projection of beauty into your worlds and all life on this dear earth, I have given you the additional help of the foregoing as assistance in projecting love rays everywhere, spreading the fragrance of love and liberty and the love of liberty everywhere!

You see, although beauty exists everywhere, it remains for the alchemy of the pure in heart to see it. ("The pure in heart shall see God-good everywhere."³) The development of this art is the prerogative of those who serve on the third ray. And of course as The Summit Lighthouse is an expression of love, it is imperative that the love of wisdom and the love of love, or the true wisdom of love, be revealed in all its majesty to those who will accept it into their worlds.

In my life as Paolo Veronese, many people visited me in my studio, where I was able to create many very wonderful works of art. Some people came for the appreciation of my art and some for curiosity and the desire to be near fame.

(For, you know, outstanding men and women in many fields never lack for their admirers.)

Today, however, those who visit our retreat in spirit will come (I am ever so hopeful) so that they might absorb and then radiate out the Cosmic Christ understanding of true beauty and thereby learn the art of bringing into their worlds and the worlds of all whom they contact an enrichment of Spirit that is permanent and contagious.

To Be a Co-Artist with God

I feel that all conscious chelas of every ascended master should be a co-artist with God, drawing forth the energy of light and designing and molding it so as to daily create constructive and lovely forms and thoughts that will lend a cosmic variety to life and its harmonies.

I call to your attention that the privilege of creating beauty is the joy of those cosmically above you. For your master uses this divinely given prerogative, as do the devas, builders of form, the nature spirits, elemental life, the archangels, the Elohim, and upward unto beloved Helios and Vesta or Alpha and Omega in the Great Central Sun, and on, ad infinitum.

As the possession of true artistry is a quality with which the entire hierarchy is blessed, it would appear that the unfoldment of this creative talent in your own consciousness—and the natural development and awareness of symmetry, beauty, and loveliness—would be ever so desirable for all to learn, and for all who possess it to some degree already, to improve upon it.

The Power of Life Correctly Used Is God in Action

Long ago Saint Paul the apostle, now the beloved ascended master Hilarion, said, “Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.”⁴

All of the goodness, all of the beauty and loveliness of life came into being by the power of some thought from someone, somewhere. As life evolves here, many will begin to understand that all things of an ugly nature were likewise created. Many will begin to know that the power of life correctly used is God in action, and incorrectly used it becomes destructive, unhappy energy, which itself (being of the nature of God) longs to breathe free again—the release of destructive forces in nature being the going home, or release, of misqualified energy from its earthly prison, a groaning, as it were, to find freedom and release. Saint Paul said, “The whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.”⁵

Man, having been created, the Creator becomes the authority in man’s own world to create a garden of eden where he can eat of (behold) every good fruit or be banished by the consciousness of Good and Evil—the consciousness that alternates in the use of the one energy, flowing destruction at times through the consciousness and thus descending that consciousness to the ground, where by the sweat of his brow it brings forth or creates in the nature kingdom, where the unprotected acts of creation are often choked by the weeds of past karma.

Now, by turning from this human consciousness to the Presence of God I AM, which is the Tree of Life, man eats the fruit of righteousness (right use), goodness (godliness), and joy (spiritual exaltation), receiving the seed within his heart that will grow (expand) right into everlasting life and beauty.

Right here and now I ask each and every one of you: Could God and the masters, in all justice, permit the existence permanently of the ugly? Can you not see why life is as it is—an opportunity to find the true meaning of life in a search for eternal beauty?

Bless Every Electron with Your Love and Light

Now, one way you can commence enjoying the daily benefits of my instruction is to walk hand in hand with the consciousness of God-beauty every day. Make a point of seeing this beauty all around you.

Think of a series of wooden steps. By them you are able to mount higher with less expenditure of energy. Yet atomic substance must remain immobile so that you may have this service rendered to you. So beauty is also utilitarian in one aspect, and renders service. Thus service becomes beauty in action.

Now, to blaze the light of God through these inanimate steps is to bless every electron within them with your love and light, blazing that love through these physical appearances. Jesus long ago said, “If these should hold their peace, the very stones should cry out.”⁶ Do you see?

Do this likewise with your garments—bless the warm, woolly fibers with the Christ light—and your homes, automobiles, and all you contact. As you tread lightly along the cobblestones and walks beneath your feet, commune with the mineral life of God present there. Commune with the trees and the nature spirits and builders of form.

You will be surprised at how the lovely “silent voices” of inanimate nature and animate nature alike will respond to your greeting, giving you a greater attunement with beauty and likewise a greater attunement with God as you hold his hand while walking in the beautiful out-of-doors.

You see, all this energy is as much a part of him as your own physical bodies, which you treasure so highly. From the dust they came, as Genesis says: “And the LORD God formed man out of the dust of the ground.”⁷ “In the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.”⁸

Walk Daily with the Realization and Awareness of the Beauty of All Life

Ought not the electrons composing all life, being part of the body of God, be blessed for the service they render to life? And will not this hidden blessing you bestow—(naturally you will do this in the silence of your own beautiful heart, hallowed as it is by the immortal threefold flame of life blazing there)—help to free all physical life from the appearance of distress?

Now, because all life is a unity, will this not help you to win your own freedom, all the while giving you a marvelous blessing and attunement every day of your life?

Will this not be a way of silent service that even the more timid (the meek shall inherit the earth⁹) can joyfully render, accomplishing thereby an increased consciousness of beauty and by like token having more happiness in their own worlds?

Walk daily with the realization and awareness of the beauty of all life. Enjoy better health by blessing the cells of your own body, which happily drink in the radiation and light of the ascended hosts and of your own Holy Christ Self as by attunement you bring its benefits daily into your world, creating more lovely physical forms right while you lovingly express that radiation and light here.

Did not the scripture say, “You shall be changed from glory to glory, even as by the Holy Spirit of the Lord?”¹⁰ Does this change not transform all your bodies—physical, mental, emotional, etheric?

Liberty in Nature

By visiting me in consciousness here at the Château de Liberté in France, you will find it possible to absorb a great deal of my understanding, which is difficult to put into words because it is of a very high order of things.

As you walk with me in my garden or enter the Château and see a few of the many masterpieces of oil and canvas, it will unquestionably inspire some of you to study art. If your inclination is strong, call to me and I will help you. But first ask your Holy Christ Self if it is part of your life plan.

Yet everyone can benefit by applying their mind in a godly way to assimilate beauty. It will inspire them to use good taste in surrounding themselves with inspiring and harmonious objects d'art in their homes and places of business. The same objects can be magnetized to draw the radiation of the ascended hosts and thus become icons of light.

While you are here with me, come to the Fountain of Flame, where the liberty flame raises its pulsations high into the atmosphere. Remember the words of old, "Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty."¹¹

Here are a few of my sentiments on liberty in nature:

Every snowflake scampering down,
Every drop of rain,
Fills my heart with joyous hope,
'Tis Liberty's refrain!

For on Liberty's great steed you may ride far out into the beautiful, eternal sea of life and observe the infinite meaning etched into the environment, which now surrounds you wherever you may presently be. On the returning tide you may bring back those thoughts that will enrich the lives of all who may be close to you and all you shall contact.

Thus will you presently increase your awareness and sense of beauty until you can create boldly on the canvas of life, by the sure and safe guiding fingers of love, a masterpiece to equal those of the ascended hosts and to eclipse even our works when we were yet unascended? Did not Jesus so lovingly and yet truly say, "Greater works than these shall ye do, because I go unto my Father, the I AM"?¹²

In the name of eternal beauty and the God who would see us all create it, love it, and be it, in the name of love itself, which is oh, so beautiful, I salute you with my Christ radiance and its outpicturing artistry, which I am calling forth into swift expression in your world today.

I AM your fellow craftsman, the ascended master Paul the Venetian, Paolo Veronese.
