

Beloved Archangel Michael

The Power of Faith

I AM come, then, now, to bring to you a renewal of that faith that you bore when you first descended from the heart of God into the octaves of form and substance, knowing full well that as you went forth from the heart of God, so you would return, without fail, to that heart.

You once knew that authority! You once knew that consecration! You were then utterly and totally unaware of the dense shadows of human misqualified creation! You were unaware of all that mankind, in their descent, would conspire to do unto thee as the infections of the human spirit spread abroad from heart-to-heart as tares scattered in the wheat fields of Almighty God.

Now I AM come! Now I AM here! Now I AM radiating my light and the full authority of my being into your midst, that you may reclaim that wonderful faith that knew no sense of error or loss, that knew no sense of terror or fear, that knew only the abundance and buoyancy of the great...

The Power of Faith

Hail, sons of flame! I AM come! Michael is my name, and I bring with me the radiance of the Sun shining in all its splendor, the radiance of the unfailing light of God, that activity that is the full authority for the first ray of purity and faith.

I AM come, then, now, to bring to you a renewal of that faith that you bore when you first descended from the heart of God into the octaves of form and substance, knowing full well that as you went forth from the heart of God, so you would return, without fail, to that heart.

You once knew that authority! You once knew that consecration! You were then utterly and totally unaware of the dense shadows of human misqualified creation! You were unaware of all that mankind, in their descent, would conspire to do unto thee as the infections of the human spirit spread abroad from heart-to-heart as tares scattered in the wheat fields of Almighty God.

Now I AM come! Now I AM here! Now I AM radiating my light and the full authority of my being into your midst, that you may reclaim that wonderful faith that knew no sense of error or loss, that knew no sense of terror or fear, that knew only the abundance and buoyancy of the great Spirit of Almighty God and the power that framed the worlds in holy radiance.

The Father's Heart Pours Forth Victory and Faith

Come with me, then, as flame-sons* of God, out of the body consciousness. Come with me as flame-sons of God into the spiritual octaves of light. Behold the wonders of the first creation from the Great Central Sun. See the great flaming Wheel of Life as it turns in all of its awful majesty. Feel the great love of the Father seated within this great lotus throne of light in the very heart of the Great Central Sun. Feel the awful majesty of his mien as he gazes forth upon all that mankind might call the Ungrund or the uncreated, that which yet has not been.

See, then, the great fervor of the sacred fire within the Father's heart as it pulsates even with all of the sweet essence of the perfume from the heart of the lotus of being and rises out with all of his love for creation, pouring forth victory and faith in the full knowledge of his authority.

Recognize, then, that you are miniature replicas of Almighty God! You are not puny individuals sitting within a wretched carcass of flesh but you are immortal flame-sons of the Spirit of Life! You are able, through the divine yoga of consecrated faith, to perceive your being, in all of its great blazing Reality, pulsating in this Sun of divine splendor and commanding Creation to issue forth the fiats that are reproductive and productive of the divine intent.

The Authority of the Firstborn Sons of God

Hear, then, our Word! For Gabriel has gone forth and the annunciation has gone forth.¹ The Christos is revealed, and beloved Mary has heard that Word. The incarnate Word, precious ones—the chief cornerstone of your being—is now able to also give you that selfsame authority of the firstborn.

*This could also mean "flame-suns."

Do you know the meaning of the authority of the first-born sons of God? Do you know that authority that does not permit you to accept the unconsecrated human concepts and mortal fears that have caused individuals to feel, in a misinterpreted way, that there is only one Son of God?

Well, precious ones, let me tell you this holy truth. There is but one consecrated Son of God. All this is true. But all are partakers of that radiance in equal portion as they can acknowledge the firstborn activity of their being, the first love of their heart, the first love of Almighty God.

A little tiny ray, a sunbeam of consecrated energy, blazed forth from the Father's heart, filled with all the pulsations of his love, and blazed a pathway down through the stars and Milky Way and sun systems of worlds to this tiny, finite-appearing planet, where all types of energy are teeming in a great conflagration of the divine intent as it is manifesting here in all the beauty of nature, while mankind continue to spew out the awful feelings of fear and frustration, of boredom, and of unconsecrated and unregenerate energies.

Above you in the higher atmosphere, the angelic hosts continue to consort with one another in the unfailing light of God, and they sing praises to Almighty God and to his majesty. The glow of happiness animates their faces, and their hearts beat, as it were, with the pulsations of his light.

Some of you may say that we do not have a heart. I tell you, we have a heart! And it is a heart that is charged with love! It is charged with the buoyancy of Almighty God! I tell you, we have a heart that is connected to Almighty God and his holy intent and purposes, and we use it for the glory of his name and the face of his righteousness, that we may go to the four corners of creation and release the untrammelled energies of our being so that mankind may feel the buoyancy of the faith that is required this hour.

Holy Faith Is Required in This Hour

And I ask you: Do you not think, precious ones, that faith, holy faith, is required in this hour when the creation of this planet is groaning and travailing, seeking to be delivered into the manifestation of the firstborn, consecrated being? Do you not think that holy faith is required when a divine ideology pictures and outpictures from time to time through the hearts of the saints and those holy men and women who can, without reservation, offer themselves as consecrated in cosmic service to Almighty God?

I tell you, when we accept the faith of a single, solitary heart, immediately there is a great magnificent action whereby the sword of blue flame flashes forth to cut that one free from every vestige of human creation!

Individuals think that at times they themselves are able to perform some great and virtuous service without any assistance from on high. Well, I tell you, precious ones, the energies that we wield are far greater than mankind can ever recognize or cognize in any outer action of themselves.

The energies that we wield are able to cut mankind free, but they themselves must have the will and the reserve-will to keep themselves free by persistence in the divine spiritual path, by persistence in perception of righteousness, by persistence in doing the will of God, as your beloved El Morya revealed and released to you this evening last when he established that mighty focus of light in the atmosphere above this place on earth.²

The Activity of Cosmic Faith

I come, then, this morning to say to you and to declare to you that your own beloved Jesus did enter into certain cities, and when he entered into those cities—because he found no faith in the hearts of the people of those cities—he was unable to do any mighty works there.³

For I would like to declare to each one of you today that the faith in Almighty God—which is required to bring forth the miraculous manifestations for which you call—is anchored and posited within you as you accept the pressure of our release and our energy and expand the power of your faith. For without the faith that the Law requires you to have in Almighty God, you cannot establish the necessary bond between your heart and the heart of the Great Central Sun, which will give you the power to command life and to see that life obeys you at your command.

Oh, the puny human intellect—the puny human ideologies of mankind and the phony mortal concepts that mankind seem to cherish! How they do keep you in a senseless round, bound to the pleasure of the senses and outer activities for which mankind have boundless enthusiasm at times! And then as they drink the last dregs of the cup of human nonsense, they find that they are not at all satisfied by that energy and their surfeiting therein. They bathe and wallow in the slime and in the mud of human energies and false mortal concepts, while the light of God above them is radiating all of its strength and mighty God-power to make them Christed beings, each and every one!

You see, the power that beloved Jesus wielded is the self-same power that Almighty God intends every son of heaven shall wield. I AM also the authority for that activity—the activity of cosmic faith!

And I sweep my sword of blue flame through this audience now! And I demand in the name of God that you be cut free from those actions of the psychic instigators that have perpetuated some form of contamination to our holiest radiation at times!

This is because individuals in whom we pin our faith have also been, because they wear a mortal form, subjected to a bombardment from this sinister activity that would seek to stifle and stymie the activity of light and freedom upon this planet, which is the authority of Almighty God for each lifestream and is able to give each lifestream his immortal victory right now and in the presence of that eternal Now, which I AM!

Your Faith Is the Authority for the Miracles of Divine Perfection within Your World

I come, then, in the holy name of the seven archangels, speaking for them all, to say to you that the flames of the sacred fire of Almighty God, the mighty power and authority of the rainbow rays, is dancing in the heart of the Great Central Sun, and a miniature replica of that energy is dancing within the threefold flame within your heart. It is pulsating and it is stirring all of heaven to an activity on behalf of this planet and its people. For the threatening clouds that seek to obscure the light of freedom for mankind must be swept away and mankind must come to a realization of their victory in this age if the earth is ever to wear the robes of freedom, which God intends.

There is nothing, precious ones, that is worth having that is not worth fighting for. And I AM therefore militantly declaring to you that your faith is the authority for the miracles of divine perfection within your world. And when that faith is lacking from your being, you do not have the necessary contact—the great cable of Cosmic Christ intelligence over which the radiation from on high can flow—to establish for all time immemorial that authority that God is, that authority that you are as you take dominion over your world and blaze forth the light of perfection everywhere you go.

We Must Have Some Souls in Whom Burns the Flame of Faith

I AM the authority of faith! I AM the authority of the resurrection! I AM the authority of the ascension! Your mighty

I AM Presence, precious ones, is that authority and you can claim that right, for it is your own. It is the immortal inheritance of perfection, which on this Independence Day you may reaffirm, by a reconsecration of your holy energies, an acceptance of the bond of perfection from the heart of God, which I declare to all of you is the will of God.

You may accept that now, if you will. And if you will not, then God pity us all. For I tell you, we must have some focus here upon this planet! We must have some souls in whom burns the flame of faith! We must have some individuals who will not yield to the impure energies of the psychic strata! We must have some souls who will stand forth, regardless of human opinion, and who will claim the inheritance for mankind and see that it is secured for a posterity yet unborn, souls now waiting at the portals of birth (where some of you may stand if you do not make your ascension). One day you will understand, then, how it is necessary to prepare the way for the incoming children and those who will one day occupy this planet.

Pin Your Faith upon Almighty God and the Heart of Your Presence

Precious ones, there is a divine activity of great imminence that is now impending whereby the golden age will be given the greatest assistance that has ever been upon this planet in any previous age, brought forth into manifestation through this activity and through those who will reaffirm their faith in me and in your beloved Morya, in the divine hierarchy and in the Spirit of the Great White Brotherhood, and who will know that the ancient covenants are being brought alive today in a renewed fashion in those individuals who will offer themselves without reserve to me!

I tell you, precious ones, it is almost amazing to us who are able to see on the inner, how mankind will hold back some portion of the stream of their life that would give them their freedom and victory, simply because they are not certain in their world just where they ought to pin their faith.

Well, precious ones, we have not asked you to pin your faith on individuals unascended, yet it is certainly not right or proper that you should not have faith in those we do. And therefore I want to call to your attention that we ask you to pin your faith upon Almighty God and the radiant stream of light from the heart of your Presence, which is your great light source and the source of all intelligence and energy. Recognize the need to qualify that energy with the purity of faith at the nexus of your world. Receive it in full qualification. Accept it and be free. The energy that you receive is the authority for your freedom, and you are able to qualify it.

According to Your Faith, So Be It unto You

Precious ones, mankind today, if they are not satisfied by some particular manifestation of God poured forth through the Brotherhood in any endeavor that we have started, will often seek to find fault with those who are our representatives in the form world. And they do not recognize that when proper progress is not made, it is because the faith in themselves is not dominant and immanent at all times.

In the name of Almighty God and in the name of holy reason I say, how can you think—unless you have faith yourself—that the mighty works of God can be done? They cannot be done, precious ones! For there is a barrier gate that you establish when you say to yourself, “Perhaps God can do it. Perhaps Archangel Michael can do it. Perhaps The Summit Lighthouse activity can perform it.”

Well, precious ones, an activity is no stronger than its weakest link, in one sense. And yet we do not intend that this activity shall be impaired even by its weakest link, and therefore we intend to start at the top of The Summit Lighthouse and to reinforce every son of heaven within it who will call to us with a stream of divine majesty and divine faith that will exceed all faith that they have ever before released.

And therefore this day I call to my blue-flame angels, the angels of the sacred fire and the angels of faith, to take their stand here and to take the flame of the arc of the covenant and blaze it forth also in this place—together with Saint Germain's great roaring violet flame and together with beloved Morya's great flame of goodwill and the activity of the rainbow rays—to now establish in you all a greater activity than has ever been done before. According to your faith, so be it unto you!⁴

According to your faith, so be it unto you! According to that which you have, according to that which you use, according to that which you will accept, so be it unto you! And find no fault with another if all expectations are not exceeded, for it shall be strictly within the domain of your own being and not that of anyone else upon the planet.

You Came Here to Do a Work for Almighty God!

In the name of Almighty God, when we individualized mankind and gave them their individual experiences that they might be crowned with more glory and honor,⁵ do you think it was for some outer world purpose or some purpose without understanding or holy reason? It was done in order to crown you with more glory and honor, and you can only receive it through the great focus of faith that is within your heart.

And then the activity of the chohan of the first ray will come into greater dominance for goodwill as you have the faith in that goodwill and the wisdom to externalize it now, while the sands of life are trickling through your glass of energy and you are able to drink the dregs of life's cup to the fullest—not in an outer sense whereby mankind simply imbibe some form of synthetic creation, but because you will drink the elixir of spiritual energy and purify your world and see that it is a fount of super energy from the heart of God that will lift you up and will lift up the downtrodden and will establish purity and righteousness over the earth for all time to come!

This is your earth, as it is God's! This is your domain! You came here to do a work, a work for Almighty God! You are not intended to be a puppet! If you could now see the faces of the angels that are with me and how they shine in the full luster of divine compassion and grace—if you could see the great reservoirs of power that they have, and the mighty sweep of their swords of blue flame—I think your faith would mount up as upon eagle wings and you would fly fast and hard in his name so that all the earth would be covered with the flame of freedom, and that it start right with you who hear my words.

Prevail! O Prevail, Precious Ones!

Will you pledge me now your heart, your head, your hand?
Will you pledge me now and take this faith to understand
That God's will is good, that all the earth should be free?
Will you pledge me now your energy?

I give you mine,

A portion, it is true.

I would to God I could give it all to you.

And yet, I shall one day,

As you stand within his light.

For then I too shall rise to greater height

And all the splendor of the throne will be

Mine, as 'tis God's, for eternity.

But you, O precious ones, are part of us

And we are part of you.

Our bond, our band is one,

A cirlet of love from out the Sun.

In Micah's name, my son, I say,
 Let unity prevail today,
 And let the fears of men be put away.
 They have no place in this New Age
 When freedom bears her torch on high!
 The Goddess of Liberty's love does fill the sky.
 She is a mother, and her love prevails
 Upon the hearts of men who now will hear the voice that says to all:

I AM the Mariner, the Ancient of Days,
 Set sail then for fairer shores, and in fairer ways.
 For the ways of men are far below our standard,
 And we raise them all to that which is not
 The flame below, but the flame above
 That knows the way, each step thereof.
 I AM! I AM! I AM your faith!
 Prevail! O prevail, then, precious ones,
 And be no more victims of thy own mistakes.
 But be those who will take my faith and be
 Immortal sons of heaven in the land so free,
 Where radiant faith stands forth,
 The luster of eternity.

I thank you.

(1) Luke 1:26–38. (2) El Morya established that mighty focus of light. In his dictation given on July 3, 1965 (in which the Goddess of Light also spoke), El Morya stated: "Let us begin to employ that light which she [the Goddess of Light] has brought, and let us begin to employ the mighty electrodes . . . placed here by Saint Germain this afternoon . . . by the flashing forth under divine direction of an intensifying action whereby we shall build on this spot in space a transformer in the etheric atmosphere above this forcefield. Let us build a transformer that shall exceed every transformer that has ever been built before upon this planet, and let us make that transformer an intensifier for God's will. . . . Therefore, we tonight have affixed in the atmosphere the beginnings of this giant intensifier of goodwill. . . . And I am here to tell you that this transformer is connected in such a manner with the power of the Elohim that it attracts the power of the seven mighty Elohim of creation into the forcefield of goodwill to intensify and to radiate forth to this planet all of the radiance of the chohan of the first ray, all of the radiance of beloved Archangel Michael, and all of the radiance of the . . . Elohim Hercules so that this, at any given moment, may be channeled into the atmosphere from this point in space and radiate out to the entire world the goodwill of Almighty God as an intense and divine holy purpose. This purpose, then, will be picked up by the heads of state, by individuals in the creative arts, by individuals who are in some degree of spiritual attunement with the power of light throughout the planet, and by every disciple of the Christ. . . . And now, if you will notice, there is an intense action; for the angel has started the transformer, and the transformer, which acts similar to the beloved chair which Saint Germain referred to as the ascension chair, is also sending out the vibratory action of goodwill."
