

Beloved Elohim of Peace

Peace with Honor

The Great Sun Disc

Part 2

I would like all individuals connected with this activity and with your beloved Saint Germain to learn how to place the great ascended master disc of light over the solar plexus—the Great Sun Disc—with all of its radiant protection and power. I would like you to learn how to magnify the power of that disc of light so that you are not so vulnerable to the onslaughts of others.

Everyone has their balance of right action to perform. Mankind ought not to launch an onslaught upon one another, and those who have an onslaught launched upon themselves ought not to be affected by it if they can possibly avoid it. For peace must be kept at any price that mankind must pay to keep the peace.

For when peace has gone and flown out the window, precious ones, what do you have left? Do you have a mind that can contact God? Do you have a mind that can hold...

www.SummitLighthouse.org

Sign up for your free Pearls of Wisdom sent via e-mail (ePearls).

Keep current on in-person events, online broadcasts and new products – sign up for your free TSL Now newsletter.

Follow us on:

Permission is hereby granted without fee to freely distribute this complete and unmodified Pearl of Wisdom®. For any other uses, please contact the publisher.
Copyright © 2024 The Summit Lighthouse, Inc.

Light up the world with your God-Presence!

Bring home the sunbeams of Helios and Vesta
and retain the hope of a new day!

All DVDs and MP3s of the conference dictations
and services

Buy DVD/MP3 album at TSL Online Store

Pearls of Wisdom®

published by The Summit Lighthouse®

Vol. 67 No. 27

Beloved Elohim of Peace

July 15, 2024

Peace with Honor

The Great Sun Disc

Part 2

I would like all individuals connected with this activity and with your beloved Saint Germain to learn how to place the great ascended master disc of light over the solar plexus—the Great Sun Disc—with all of its radiant protection and power.¹ I would like you to learn how to magnify the power of that disc of light so that you are not so vulnerable to the onslaughts of others.

Everyone has their balance of right action to perform. Mankind ought not to launch an onslaught upon one another, and those who have an onslaught launched upon themselves ought not to be affected by it if they can possibly avoid it. For peace must be kept at any price that mankind must pay to keep the peace.

For when peace has gone and flown out the window, precious ones, what do you have left? Do you have a mind that can contact God? Do you have a mind that can hold the balance in your world? Do you have harmony in the body? Do you have all the conditions you desire?

Peace with Honor

270

I think not. When peace has gone, everything has gone and there is nothing left. And only when you come to a point where you once again, through the power of interior equilibrium, have found your balance, does the power of peace then begin to flow and you start again to build those wondrous castles in the air—castles of hope—that may well materialize into the blessings you seek because you have kept the peace.

Whensoever you shatter the peace or permit your peace to be shattered, it is a destructive action that cannot ever bring about the fruit of righteousness. Now when you master yourself, as the Master Jesus did, you can go to sleep and let others rock the boat for all they are worth, all the while knowing that the sea is God's sea, that the boat is God's boat, that your body is God's temple, that your mind is the dwelling place of God, that your soul is the soul of God, that the wind is his to command, that the wave obeys his voice.

And you will then rest in that great cosmic tranquility that refuses to be affrighted, that refuses to be disturbed regardless of outer conditions. And then you will sleep, precious ones, through the storms of the world, or you may remain awake through them but you will be unaffected by any of them. For you will be master of your world. And this is the condition you seek. This is the condition your souls require.

It Does Not Matter That You Were Imperfect Yesterday

That Great Shepherd of the sheep, your own beloved Lord Jesus, will speak to you this evening,² and I think you will desire to hear from him, who is the Prince of Peace, the wondrous message that he has to give you. For all of these dictations, precious ones, are given to you for the admonishment of your souls, that you may grow in your manifestation of God's grace.

It does not matter, precious ones, that you were imperfect yesterday or that you misbehaved yesterday. God was your Father before you knew of his existence in your outer consciousness. He was your Father on the inner planes, and there you knew his smiling face and countenance.

God is your Father now. Whether you are good or whether you manifest the shadowed imperfection of the veil called evil, you are God's child and you must ultimately return to his heart of peace. As you have been told, you can only create a delaying action—which will sustain the momentums of unhappiness of humankind in your consciousness—but you cannot permanently stay your victorious return to the Father's heart.

Why, then, do mankind feel it necessary to sustain their recalcitrance? I think it is a hypnotism both in and of themselves, and I think it is also due to the accepting of the mass effluvia of human creation. Mankind have seen discord all about them and they think that because it is seemingly everywhere manifest, they can do no less than to behave as others do and to run riot with mankind, the many. But as an interesting point, let me assure you, precious ones, that the imperfect individuals upon earth are far outnumbered by the perfect creations in heaven, which abide all around this planet.

Mankind Have Recognized Their Cosmic Responsibility to Build a Great Nation

You know, gracious ones, that before your society had externalized all the wonders and marvels that you currently enjoy, journeys were made across this land, and the great wheels, carrying covered wagons pulled by beasts of the field, transported the pioneer spirits of mankind across this vast land, for they sought fame and fortune in the golden West. And yet all the while they were drawing ever nearer to the golden East with the journey, for "East is East and West is West." And as Gautama has said, "Now the twain do meet, all in one holy quest!"³

And so, precious ones, the interesting facts that I would like to allude to are the facts that mankind have enjoyed life in its basic simplicity in many past ages and that they are enjoying it today. A great deal more happiness occurs, precious ones, upon this planet than unhappiness, else mankind would have ceased to exist long ago by their own hand. For the suicide entity would have caused them to take their own lives in despair.

Therefore, precious ones, do you see that mankind have recognized their cosmic responsibility, and even under conditions of duress and strain, of ill health and struggles with the elements, they have borne all cheerily and have carried on to accept their responsibility, to build a great nation out of a few people.

Gracious ones, the simple meal, the lamplight, the firesides of past civilizations brought great comfort because the people did not have the hectic activity that the current age of man has. And yet today, if civilization will employ arightly all the manifold blessings of the electronic world, they can return to a pure state of enjoyment that will surpass the time when labor-saving devices that you now have did not exist.

I say, then, unto you that I would like this afternoon to open up new vistas of consciousness to you in the name of peace, that you may come to understand that the earth is a cosmic ark, that mankind are revolving here around the sun fulfilling a destiny under the aegis of the Father, working out their individual destinies—the culmination of lifetimes of service and search—that mankind are finding peace in the midst of turmoil, that mankind are coming to a state of consonance that is taking precedence over a state of dissonance, and that mankind are attaining cheeriness of spirit over the morbidity of past ages.

A More Perfect World

Ladies and gentlemen, around this planet in interstellar space there are what you have termed “worlds without end,” and some most interesting examples of the creation are in manifestation there.

We long for the time when you will “beat your swords into plowshares, and your spears into pruning hooks,”⁴ when you will utilize the great cosmic power that you have in your hands—the power of electricity, the power of God’s life and the power of God’s mind—that actually moves the lever of your mind.

We long for the day when the little children currently born of their mothers by natural process, by natural law, will come forth having a greater hope than do the youth of today, that they will be born into a more perfect world, where they will be able to step from their bedsides in the morning and know that everywhere upon this planet the world has lived free from all accidents, floods, cataclysms, disturbances, sickness, pain, and death; when they will be able to realize that the divine science of Almighty God has shown the under-civilization how to follow the ascended master pattern and complete their destiny in their final embodiment.

We long for the day when mankind will be able to bring forth under the direction of God those wondrous vessels that shall utilize cosmic rays to move through interstellar space, according to divine decree, whereby the removal of all barriers can be safely accomplished and mankind can be shown all of the far reaches of space, little by little as much as their minds and beings can take in, and find great happiness in God’s peace, which abides everywhere in the cosmos, universe, and worlds without end.

How little mankind know. We were amused at the statement that was made here concerning mankind, that they gaze upon the universe, as it were, out of a very small aperture, as a slit in a barrel,⁵ and we thought amongst ourselves in the higher octaves of light that this was a bit of an overstatement.

Christ-Victory Is Won by Those Who Diligently Keep the Peace

Now I call to your attention that it is a great travesty upon nature itself and upon nature’s God that mankind have not long ago utilized the blessings they have, and they have not afforded themselves the power of peace in this generation and in past generations. Two thousand years ago the great Master Jesus preached the message of peace. Your own beloved Saint Francis came, directing the birds of the air to fly and to make the sign of the cross. And the skies have been filled with the signs of the appearing of the Christ.

The magi of old would tell you today that the world has seen much, and they who have seen have not always spoken of that which they have seen nor told that which they have known. For this generation would not have received it, and so in many cases men have passed from the screen of life bearing state secrets of cosmic import.

Precious ones, if you feel that the Elohim of Peace is somewhat long-winded, bear in mind that you may need my wind before you find the utopia of God’s perfection. Bear in mind that you may need the wind of the Holy Spirit before you shall attain the right standards of the Great Cosmic Law. Bear in mind that Christ-victory is not won by those who are sluggards and slothful, but it is won by those who diligently keep the peace.

Let This Nation under God Be a Nation of Peacemakers

And now I say to the blue-flame angels who have been waiting in abeyance, it is time for you to make your appearance. And I also call to the white-fire beings that have followed beloved Ascended Master El Morya here. And as he came dashing across this continent, some of the strands of his turban became unfastened, and some of the beings that came with him were a bit amused as they saw it flapping in the wind. But El Morya was completely unperturbed, for he said, "I must be about God's business and complete the service that the Elohim of Peace has asked for and that I have agreed to do." And therefore he is joyously beaming and smiling today as he sees the number of white-fire beings that have volunteered to serve to form a tremendous amphitheater of light over the city of Washington.

O Lords of blue flame and blue-flame angels, direct your swords of blue flame into the matrix of this city of Washington and the government of this nation.

Let this nation under God be a nation of peacemakers. Let this people accept the peace of God and the peace of Christ into their souls, and let them be made ready for any eventuality wherein they shall be required to protect the holy cause of freedom if the hordes of shadow should attempt to impose the power of darkness upon the great bells of freedom and upon those sacred documents such as the Magna Charta, the Constitution of the United States, and the Liberty Bell, which at inner levels has no crack but only the golden tone that tolls over the land from on high, saying to all:

God's peace is in the sky.

When will ye have its tidings here and nigh?

Angels of blue flame, release now your bolts of blue lightning for and on behalf of world peace.

It is done! It is done! It is done!

Ladies and gentlemen, in the name of millenniums of progress and in the hope of a cosmic future so vast as to sweep the mind of man from the present into a realm of such perfection that your present state of consciousness could not yet bear it, I say, Salutem.*

Hail! thou regenerate coming age when peace shall make the hearts of men unafraid!

Hail! thou power of peace that rules the hearts of men with a rod of iron!

Hail! O Prince of Peace, whose dictums and love sway the nations and shall move them ultimately to their full perfectionment!

Hail! thou emissaries of peace, and in his name I say: "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God!"⁶

I thank you and I bid you good afternoon in memory of the sacred Angelus,⁷ when the world shall have put away its weapons, and Peace shall bow all heads in holy prayer.

Again, adieu.

"The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom." This previously published dictation by the Elohim of Peace was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Mark L. Prophet on Sunday, January 3, 1965, during New Year's Class 1965, held in Washington, D.C. It was then edited by Elizabeth Clare Prophet in preparation for publication in The Summit Lighthouse New Year's Class 1965 booklet. Part 1 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 26. (1) The Great Sun Disc. See Pearl of Wisdom, no. 22, this volume, note 1, as well as the "Great Sun Disc" decree and the mantra to the disc of light on the last page of that Pearl. (2) Jesus will speak to you this evening. In his dictation on January 3, 1965, Jesus gave many admonishments to those in attendance. He said, "It is in the withholding of yourself that you fall short of the mark of attainment, and it

Salutem*: a Latin greeting meaning health, salvation, safety is in the giving of yourselves unto me that you share with me the throne of the Eternal One. . . . You will never attain your victory except through your own personal endeavors, your own consecrated efforts, your own acceptance of me. Yea, but believe in the Christ of your being, for we are one. And when you stand where I do . . . you will find yourself with me, a part of my retinue, co-equal in the eyes of God. . . . Every untransmuted ounce of energy will come before you for judgment, and you will need every ounce of your spiritual strength that you have externalized to face that human creation and to dispel it forever. . . . Be up now and about your Father's business! We have work to do! The night is far spent and the day is at hand! I am with you always, to the end of all cycles." (3) As Gautama said. In the 1961 Pearls of Wisdom, vol. 4, no. 1 by Gautama Buddha, he said, "The immortal words of Rudyard Kipling, 'East is East and West is West and never the twain shall meet,' are dissolved in God unity! The radiant healing peace of the Prince of Peace spreads East to West and thence again East to cover the earth with swaddling raiment of peace." (4) Isa. 2:4; Mic. 4:3. (5) A slit in a barrel. In his lecture given on January 1, 1965, Mark Prophet stated: "History enables us to get outside of our narrow, confining concepts of the twentieth century. You know, it's an amazing thing, but if God stuck a barrel over every one of you and put a little slit in it about a quarter-of-an-inch wide that ran about four or five inches down the barrel and you had to see the world through that little slit, you'd be very unhappy and anxious to knock holes in your barrel. . . . That is today. But if you were born that way and your head was a barrel and your eyes had to peek out through this little slit and everybody else was the same way, you'd probably accept it. Well, this is exactly what you have spiritually—I don't mean you people; I mean the world. . . . They run around with an old musty wooden barrel on their head and they're looking out through the narrow slit of the orthodox concepts that in no way take into account the power of universal love or universal reason." (6) Matt. 5:9. (7) The sacred Angelus. The Angelus is a Roman Catholic devotional prayer recited three times a day (6:00 a.m., noon, and 6:00 p.m.), announced by a bell. It is a responsive prayer commemorating the annunciation and conception of Jesus, interspersed with the Catholic Hail Mary. Describing the moment of prayer at the day's end, beloved Sanat Kumara, on July 4, 1970, spoke of the prayer, the Angelus, saying, "Oh, how thirsty the world is today for happiness! How people long to find peace at the end of a day of turmoil! How their souls cry out for the peace of the chimes of the Angelus. The day has ended. The heart is bowed in prayer. The harvest lies upon the ground. All mankind's fears and cares are found no longer; only love and peace abound—a cosmic prayer breathed out in space." (1999 Pearls of Wisdom, vol. 42, no. 32)

Peace and Aloha Elohim of the Sixth Ray

Blest Elohim, thou Elohim of Peace
 Thy cosmic pow'r release
 Throughout all the earth.
 Thus shall it be that Christ within all men
 Shall come again
 In glorious rebirth
 That from the realms above
 God's omnipresent love
 May manifest through
 In all that we do.
 Blest Elohim, thy peace on all bestow
 'Til all mankind shall know
 That God's will is good.
 So shall it be through all eternity
 When men shall know of thee
 And thy service true
 That peace and its pow'r
 Shall be understood.

Aloha dear, Love's complement of Peace
 May thy great Light increase
 In our hearts today
 That all desires may heavenward incline
 And ways divine
 With us ever stay.
 So that the hosts of Light
 May stand forth to our sight
 And God's divine will Help all to fulfill.
 O Prince of Peace, to thee our pray'rs ascend
 And as our voices blend
 In praises to thee
 Thy pow'r release, that discord now shall cease
 Mankind shall dwell in peace
 Forevermore free
 And thy kingdom fair
 On earth e'er shall be.*

*This song is printed in the Book of Hymns and Songs (The Summit Lighthouse), no. 359.