

Beloved Leonora
A Vision of the Future

O beloved ones, in truth eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, what things the LORD hath held in his heart for the sons of mankind. You have heard it said that the trees would be luminous, that the bark would be transparent. You have heard that your houses would be transparent and that you could use the light rays to illumine them at will. You have heard of the mind-switch. You have heard of all of the ascended masters' releases from our beloved Saint Germain, who has told you of things to come in the age whereby your tables would be set and removed by a simple working of a commandment within your heart.

This is true dominion, which was granted unto man in the Beginning—dominion over substance, dominion over energy, and dominion over light—because man has submitted his entire being to the will of his mighty I AM Presence. This is a radiant possibility, beloved ones. It is worth trying for. It is worth shooting to the stars to conquer the self in order to receive all the things that God has in store for man.

Beloved Leonora

A Vision of the Future

My name is Leonora, and I hold for mankind the keys to the scientific unfoldment of the divine expression of their own Christhood.

If I were to shower upon mankind all of the wisdom that the Father has granted unto me in keeping for the mankind of earth, they would not know how to use it and it would be abused in some cases, or ignorantly put aside as in others.

Mankind are so involved today in a mechanical concept of science that they do not realize that true science begins within the heart. The heart is blossoming with this science, which penetrates into the flowers and explains the fairest creations unto the stars.

Science as it is known today upon earth has not even begun to probe the science of God, the science of the Holy Spirit. But in the laws of the ascended masters' teachings, mankind are beginning to glimpse how these laws may affect their physical environment. And so there is hope that the releases from our octave shall tide mankind over the crest of this generation (wherein the wicked do spawn their evil ways) and tide them into the golden age, where science and culture shall flower as pillars in the temple side by side, imbued with the wisdom of the Holy Spirit of the Creator.

A vision of the future is indeed necessary so that the future may manifest, so that it may be held in the chalice of men's hearts, nourished and nurtured to be brought forth as the golden age of light, when true science and invention shall reveal to mankind their original destiny and God-design, the pure purposes of life, the purity of the Father, and their raison d'être.

Beloved ones, you must hold for mankind, then, the beauty and the promise that is to come, else it shall not manifest. It cannot manifest unless men of vision stand now and behold that future and claim it as their reality and as their true divinity.

The present state of the Earth planet in its evolution presents densities and discords that are not destined to be a permanent part of its victory and freedom. In actuality, the mankind of earth are so far removed from the picture of holiness and the image of perfection, which is held for them by the ascended hosts, that they cannot imagine, even in their fondest imaginations, what things that the LORD of hosts has in store for them. For indeed, eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, the things that God has held for the son of man.¹

Beloved ones, unto the elect and unto you it is given to know the secrets of the Most High. Therefore, listen well and guard for eternity these promises, that mankind may walk within the footsteps that you leave upon the sands of time and that they may walk into the golden age because you have prepared the way before them.

The Golden-Age Civilization

Beloved ones, in an age where all is harmonious and the hearts of people unite in rejoicing as the sun rises—rejoicing to the sounds of the music of the spheres and at the richness and holiness of their Creator—is a civilization wherein all the mechanics and scientific inventions that you presently know are not needed, for they are drawn forth from the holy threefold flame within the heart and they are externalized as they are needed by each individual lifestream.

And so [in this golden age], the holy energies of the people are not used to explore the outer reaches of matter and material manifestation, but they are used to magnify and amplify the great qualities of the sacred fire, which bring to mankind all of the seven wonders of the world, and many more wonders, and the creations not only of pyramids and skyscrapers and great things and great monoliths, but of heavenly reaches of space wherein the eye beholds the starry heights of perfection manifesting as symmetrical forms of art, as classic forms and features. Monuments to the holiness and virtue of being are perceived in place of the distorted Lemurian forms that are presently spawned through the artistic cultures of the world.

The music of this golden age, then, replaces all of the drumbeats of the jungles, all of the jazz that tears the youth asunder and forms those epicenters of forcefields and energy that drive against one another and cause riots and confusion among the young people. For from the very earliest development of the child within the womb there is heard the music of the spheres. And to the music of the spheres the angelic hosts of light do form the body temples of the children, who enter this age in perfect purity of heart and manifestation. The clothing of these people is of raiments of light, of rainbow hues, of glistening white, and they are changed upon the instant by the concept of the mind and the qualities of the heart.

There can be no treachery or deceit in such a civilization, for mankind do outpicture instantly that which is within their hearts. And do you know, precious ones, that these civilizations exist today among unascended beings upon many planetary spheres of light? And so the earth may receive the full momentum of these evolutions if her people will but call upon the hierarchs and the Presence of God within these wondrous cultures.

For it is indeed true that planets such as the Violet Planet, such as your beloved twin star, Venus, do wait upon the unfoldment of the planet Earth, as you wait upon the blossoming of a flower. They know that her time shall surely come, for it is appointed of the Father. And they know that the vision that they hold for mankind shall be outpictured if the sons of mankind do walk in an alert consciousness, in a vigilant state of mind, and hold within the chalice of their hearts this vision and this promise.

Can You Imagine . . .

Can you imagine a civilization, beloved ones, wherein the teachings in the schools to the young children are based upon universal law, where they are taught the history of the spheres of light and not the history of pestilence and war, where they are taught the expressions of the angels and the tongues of the ascended masters, where they are taught grace and ritual and divine expression in the physical form through dance, in the mental body through geometrics, through all types of mental expansion that reach far beyond your present concepts of trigonometry, and in the etheric body they are taught to rise from their physical forms and to grasp all of the holy energies that are released in that octave?

Can you imagine a civilization wherein the children receive their diplomas at the age of fifteen, wherein they have perfect emotional control, wherein they understand the laws of their beings, wherein they understand that they are a mighty cosmos of energy and that they can control energies reaching far into the universal because the Lords of Karma have again granted unto this planet their former state wherein they are raised to be giants compared to that which they are now manifesting?

The sons of God and the glory that the early morning stars sang together in the birth of Creation² can be known unto such a civilization wherein all is harmony. Limitations and restrictions come from abrogations of the Law. The prisons and reformatories upon earth do further enclose some among mankind from the rest of mankind, [those imprisoned] who have surreptitiously spawned upon the world their forms of evil, sometimes in ignorance and sometimes in malice.

Beloved ones, a star cannot move forward into a vision of the future until the entire planetary body is healed. For where there is left one iota, one grain of selfishness or ambition or pride, the planet cannot receive the vision, and the starry heights must be reserved for a later time.

The Healing of the Nations and the Healing of the People Must Be Simultaneous

And so it is important, as you grasp the scientific meaning of God and the brotherhood of man, that you understand that mankind are indeed one, that you cannot be separated from each other, that the healing of the nations and the healing of the people must be simultaneous. It must be an exchange between hearts.

You must call upon the law of science within your heart, within the hearts of your neighbors in the name of God, the mighty I AM Presence, and ask that it penetrate to the very core of the earth, to the heart of Pelleur, that this entire planet might become iridescent and transparent.

Do you think that in the age of perfection the earth element should have to bear the densities and intensities of human creation? I think not.

I think that the soil should have the luster of the violet and pink and blue hues, and the golden sunsets should reflect through the purified air as pure white light, not diffused and refracted as it is today. And I think that the water element should reveal the very beds of the seas in all of their luminosity and their golden substance, and I think that all of the energies of the animal creations shall be exalted unto a mighty resurrection, a resurgence, a paean of praise to the mighty God in the Central Sun.

O beloved ones, in truth eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, what things the LORD hath held in his heart for the sons of mankind. You have heard it said that the trees would be luminous, that the bark would be transparent.³ You have heard that your houses would be transparent and that you could use the light rays to illumine them at will. You have heard of the mind-switch.⁴ You have heard of all of the ascended masters' releases from our beloved Saint Germain, who has told you of things to come in the age whereby your tables would be set and removed by a simple working of a commandment within your heart.⁵

This is true dominion, which was granted unto man in the Beginning—dominion over substance, dominion over energy, and dominion over light—because man has submitted his entire being to the will of his mighty I AM Presence. This is a radiant possibility, beloved ones. It is worth trying for. It is worth shooting to the stars to conquer the self in order to receive all the things that God has in store for man.

Mankind Must Make an About-Face toward the Light

But we look to the present and we see the thralldom of the senses, and we see the frantic searchings of the scientists of the world looking for some new invention to conquer their neighbors with.

How do you think we can grant the requests of men's hearts when all that they are given is used to fight one another, to gain victory over human creation, to gather spoils to conquer nations?

Indeed, the lust of the flesh has grown in proportion, and mankind are even more greedy than they were in the latter days of Atlantis. The greed in men's hearts is not known to you. You cannot conceive of how intense it is, the greed for world dominion.

How can they conceive of taking the earth, which is the LORD's and the fullness thereof?⁶ What shall be gained if mankind conquer the world and not their own souls? These lessons have taken them far too long to understand and to learn, and we wait, and we wait still, for mankind to come to their senses.

Indeed, may you heed the words of Pallas Athena, Goddess of Truth, spoken to you this day.⁷ You have heard the Word. You have heard the warning. And it need not be repeated, for it is somber indeed.

But ere the fulfillment of the promise can come, either the pestilences of the return of karma must be felt or mankind must make an about-face toward the light. What other choice is there? For energy and law work hand in hand, and where it is abused, so it abuses its creator.

If mankind do not learn through being healed, then they must learn by suffering. And I know that within your heart, each one of you has a certain gratitude for some of the sufferings you have had, which have brought you to the feet of the ascended masters. How else could you appreciate this law, beloved ones, had you not been brought to it by tests and trials?

Therefore, fear not when the plagues descend upon mankind. For by their stripes* shall mankind be raised into a mighty victory, and by that victory shall they return to the *spiritual accomplishments; derived from the idiom "to earn one's stripes" golden age, and by that victory shall the promise and vision of the future be sustained.

Hold the Balance for Mankind

Therefore, my counsel to you is to hold the balance for mankind, and hold the vision. Hold the balance as they must walk through the trials of their own crucifixion and their own Golgotha, as they must drink the cup of the hemlock.⁸ Hold the balance for them and invoke mercy. Invoke the mighty laws of God, that they might know his truth.

Invoke the vision within their hearts, that they might speedily overcome those hours of trial, that they too might rise as Christ in the resurrection and in the victory of their ascension—their ascension into a new concept of life wherein they might serve in order to win their eternal freedom of the ascension in the light.

Beloved ones, having done your all, stand and still stand, and stand and hold the light for the balance of the evolutions of the earth. For there are many waiting to come into embodiment who have much to work out upon this planetary home ere it come into the fullness of the golden age, and they too must be given the chance to be healed.

Therefore, hold the concept of perfection and pray for these ones, even as we have prayed for you. For, beloved ones, all must be fulfilled ere mankind and the planet Earth can receive the laurel of perfection and the golden age. And those evolutions that have been kept from embodiment since the time of Atlantis because of their evil deeds, these have come forth now and they will continue to come forth, for they too must move forward with this planetary body.

And so you see the responsibility of the students of light ere the full knowledge of the science of truth can be given to mankind. All must be brought to a level of harmony and understanding, for knowledge today is not kept in secret.

The communication networks of the planet immediately reveal from one nation to the next the discoveries that are made. And if they are not given openly, they are revealed through the networks of spies. Little is hidden unless it is kept in the ascended master retreats.

The Ship Moves Onward

Once again we point to the fact that mankind are one. You are one, as it were in a mighty ship as Columbus ventured forth across the ocean. So you are in a ship together, and there is nothing that can suggest of mutiny or treason. And you cannot jump off this ship, for it is a ship of life. So you are in the boat together. You are in the same boat with those who are living in China and in Russia and in the far corners of the world where you have never been or thought or felt close to, yet you are traveling in that same boat.

The captain of the LORD moves on, and he is not discouraged by the foibles of the seamen or the games that they play upon the decks. Sometimes they are parched and dry and they rebel because of the lack of variety of food, but the ship moves onward. The ship moves onward to discover a new land—a land of hope and glory that is destined to be the cradle of the golden age.

All will arrive at that land. And some in your hearts, some such as you, will have arrived before. For the vision is within, and you will have perceived the mighty splendor of this New Age even as you make your ascension in the light. And yet the planet as a whole moves into the light as one body. And so, you see, there is an individual destiny to be worked out and there is a planetary destiny, and one is not separated from the other and yet they are distinct.

No man can take thy crown.⁹ No man can take thy Victory. Yet this body is one body, and it cannot rise until all of its members are whole.

We Shall Bring This Ship Home into the Port

Therefore, continue to watch and to pray with beloved Jesus the Christ, and keep his hour and keep his vigil as he stands the captain of the ship—as he stands with others of the ascended hosts of light, with your beloved Saint Germain and your beloved El Morya—to see this planet through unto the end of the day of travail, unto the day of the glorious appearing of that angel of light who shall bring the scroll of victory to this earth, whose trumpet shall ring, whose voice shall sound, who shall read the parchment and say, “This day is the earth begotten of the LORD! This day is the golden age brought forth! This day is light victorious in the hearts of the people! This day are the shackles taken down from their hearts! This day is their victory bestowed!”

Heaven knows and watches and can see the progress for aeons to come and can wager and understand how each little elemental, each little angel, each son of God will evolve in the coming age. And we hold the matrix.

Won't you step forward and go through the doorway into your perfection and into the future?

Beloved ones, we implore you and we thank you. We bless you and we secure you in the light, and we say: We shall stand as long as there is light upon earth. As long as there are students who make the calls, we shall stand with this planet and we shall bring this ship home into the port. And when her moorings are set and the people come forth with a cry of great rejoicing, they too shall behold that ascended masters shall walk among mankind and they shall see the angels. And you shall be there because you shall have kept the promise of the future given to you this day.

I thank you.

Decree for Divine Vision

“The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o’er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom.”

This previously unpublished dictation by Leonora was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Monday, July 5, 1965, during Freedom Class 1965, held in Beacon’s Head, Vienna, Virginia. Any books listed in the following endnotes are published by Summit University Press and are by Mark L. Prophet and/or Elizabeth Clare Prophet unless otherwise noted. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] (1) See I Cor. 2:9. (2) Job 38:7. (3) You have heard it said. Leonora may be referring to teachings released by the ascended masters through the I AM Activity, which was founded by Saint Germain. (4) You have heard of the mind-switch. In the book Saint Germain On Alchemy, p. 71, the master writes: “Let us consider for a moment the development of the mind-switch. At present, lights, elevators, doors, and many devices are activated by switches or electronically. . . . The mind-switch is even more revolutionary, for it will enable men to direct mechanical apparatus and electrical functions through brain waves by the mastery of the energy currents flowing through the mind.” (5) Saint Germain has told you. See note 3. (6) Ps. 24:1; I Cor. 10:26. (7) The words of Pallas Athena. In her dictation on July 5, 1965, Pallas Athena warned of the possibility of nuclear destruction, which was prevalent at the time that this dictation was given. She explained that when an urgent warning is given to mankind by the Karmic Board, it is “not for the purpose of bringing about the externalization of our warnings but for the purpose of preventing the creation of mortal thought and feeling from taking the latter toll upon the being of man.” She stated that “there is a great need for you to face the circumstances of the world, with all of its illusions, which naturally do bring about destruction, as long as mankind do vest themselves with eternal truth. . . . Truth is invulnerable and always will be invulnerable. Truth is the Law. The Law is Truth. Truth is love and love is all-powerful. When love covers the planet round about, then, and saturates the hearts of all of its people, they can no longer be evil or manifest that which is evil. . . . They can only manifest the power that lives and the power of truth.” (8) They must drink the cup of the hemlock. In a lecture given on August 31, 1975, Elizabeth Clare Prophet explained that “to drink of the cup of the hemlock” is to make “that ultimate decision . . . to sacrifice the entire lesser self, which projects us onto the path of initiation where we are no longer a part of the pleasure and pain of the world but we are part of a rigorous testing and a discipline that comes from the Lord Christ within and from Jesus himself and others who have gone on, known as the ascended masters.” (9) Rev. 3:11.

O my very own beloved I AM Presence and Holy Christ Self and Holy Christ Selves of all mankind, beloved Saint Germain, beloved Mother Mary, beloved Jesus, beloved Lord Maitreya and Gautama, beloved Maha Chohan, Nada, the Great Divine Director, beloved Mighty Astrea, Archangel Michael, Mighty Cuzco, beloved Guru Ma, Lanello and K-17, the mighty Elohim Cyclopa:

We call to you right now and directly to the heart of God in the Great Central Sun, to the entire Spirit of the Great White Brotherhood and the World Mother, elemental life—fire, air, water, and earth! and to each member of the Karmic Board on behalf of the mankind of earth for the instantaneous release of all divine gifts and graces and cosmic miracles of ascended Jesus Christ perfection for the speedy release of the full power of Divine Vision amplified without limit and intensified among all men in accordance with the Great Cosmic Law.

We ask for an immediate thinning of the so-called cosmic veil between the material and spiritual in order to make known the presently hidden realities of the invisible world to more and more aspirants on the spiritual path.

Let this be done right now with full power in accordance with cosmic wisdom in prophetic fulfillment and perfect divine balance to the glory of God I AM in myself and in all mankind.

And in full Faith I consciously accept this manifest, manifest, manifest! (3x) right here and now with full Power, eternally sustained, all-powerfully active, ever expanding, and world enfolding until all are wholly ascended in the Light and free!

Beloved I AM! Beloved I AM! Beloved I AM!*
