

Beloved El Morya

The Positioning of the Timbers
Part 2

Now I would speak to you of the situation of the beloved ones of light and your blessed service, for we must make every blow count for the Lord, the Ancient of Days.

Inasmuch, then, as there are treacherous individuals upon the planet whose judgment has come or is about to descend—who are wreaking havoc in the nations of Africa, who are madly assembling the resources to perpetuate and extend their life—we must then devise a plan for the survival of not only the individual lightbearer but the community of lightbearers. For without the community there is not the ongoingness of the cause itself.

Individual chelas may survive, and I daresay that among you are many staunch ones who would survive unto your ascension, even alone in a hostile environment, even in the concentration camps of the Soviet Union. But, beloved, it is the cause that is greater than all of us, that includes all of us, that must survive.

The Positioning of the Timbers Nation by Nation

Part 2

Of recent date there have been a number of chelas who have professed loyalty to the messenger and to us. But when challenged, when chastened, when given the correct course of the will of God, they have rejected it, denied it, and even deceived the messenger. This is the folly of the Israelites—not taking their sufficiency in the Guru while professing allegiance and obedience, yet doing their pleasure and fulfilling their desires. These have come to the fore in the very midst of the Dark Cycle and in the moment of the increase of our demands upon our chelas.

These demands have been set forth by the Great Divine Director, and I welcome you to study his dissertation.¹ It is magnificent! And at the conclusion of his delivery of that address at the Ashram of the World Mother, the Darjeeling Council stood and applauded his magnificent lifestream and his offer of chelaship to your own blessed selves. These standards, then, are raised because chelas are ready to meet them.

(If you will not stay awake, you must leave! I will not have you slumping and sleeping in my meeting! For I have somewhat to speak to you about this night, and it is a bit distracting to our forcefield to see that some will not be awake.)

Your Invocations Will Do Much

Now I would speak to you of the situation of the beloved ones of light and of your blessed service, for we must make every blow count for the Lord, the Ancient of Days.

Inasmuch, then, as there are treacherous individuals upon the planet whose judgment has come or is about to descend—who are wreaking havoc in the nations of Africa, who are madly assembling the resources to perpetuate and extend their life—we must then devise a plan for the survival of not only the individual lightbearer but of the community of lightbearers. For without the community there is not the ongoingness of the cause itself.

Individual chelas may survive, and I daresay that among you are many staunch ones who would survive unto your ascension, even alone in a hostile environment, even in the concentration camps of the Soviet Union. But, beloved, it is the cause that is greater than all of us, that includes all of us, that must survive.

We see, then, this nation's leaders betraying the flame of freedom and the individual lightbearer throughout the planet. We have seen the infamy of the president of the United States standing for guerrillas, standing for rebels who have no standing in the courts of the sacred fire.

There are Communists of evil intent in South Korea today who were imprisoned and whose freedom President Carter is demanding on the basis of human rights.² When these individuals are freed nation by nation to do what they will, they organize to overthrow the governments of freedom—imperfect though they may be—and to install themselves for the final slaughter of the sheep.

Thus, we see that the safeguard of the individual child of God is thrown away for the guarantee of the rights of those who long ago rebelled against the authority of the incarnate hierarch. We have no doubt that the dispensations given, that your invocations will do much.

The Undoing of the Ignorance of the Law

We come, then, to reveal a portion of the plan that must work hand in hand with your effort, thus far so nobly begun and certainly one that has increased immensely since the hour of the ascension of Godfré Ray King* and of Lanello.

We see the course of World Communism and the corrupt ones abusing capitalism checked and contained by the dynamic decrees. We see the course checked and contained by such an intensity of piercing illumination's flame as to even blind the chelas themselves. We see nothing less than a revolution of absolute dedication to the mind of God, the yellow ray of wisdom, and that dedication in the literal plastering of the planet in the four quadrants of being with the living message of truth.

We, therefore, are preparing with certain cosmic beings who have joined our council meeting to be with you on the final day of this conference for an individual initiation and transfer of a momentum of wisdom's flame³ in order to give you impetus to transfer the wisdom of Omega, the wisdom of Alpha.

We have been in contact with the Brotherhood at Luxor and Serapis Bey. We are determined, then, that our organization shall have, first and foremost, the most modern and the most efficient means of publishing the Word. We are demanding this dispensation from the Karmic Board and that it be implemented by our Keepers of the Flame and earnest devotees of the Word. We will chain our messenger as a prisoner of the Rock for the delivery of the work, and she will be the glad prisoner—the imprisoned lightning itself. This is no sacrifice. It is the opportunity that she has awaited for, for many centuries.

May all of you also recognize that you too have awaited the opportunity to balance the karma of your own perpetuation of ignorance among the people. You have been shown by recording angels the records of when you have not only not given wisdom but when you have perpetuated that ignorance of the truth to such an extent that you also have accelerated to be in a position in this age of undoing that ignorance of the Law and transferring the lightning of yellow fire to quicken minds to the victory. It can be done! Of this we are convinced! But it will not be done by chelas who offer half a pie, as you have been told.

We will not allow our messenger to waste even an hour with individuals who are bent on their own path apart from a group momentum, a community momentum that is the very essence of living love necessary to achieve this goal.

Ideas may start revolutions, but people must finish them! We may begin our revolution with the teachings of the ascended masters, but unless there are those who will implement them, the revolution will not be brought to its glorious victory. Thus, to publish on the one hand is the necessary beginning. And as you have heard, my own beloved Hercules will stand with the World Teachers, who summon their representatives.⁴

You may, for one reason or another, not be in attendance at the two-week session.⁵ But, above all, let it not be for the reason that you are not worthy, you are not ready, or you are not smart enough to be an instrument of the World Teachers. Scarcely anyone fulfills these requirements in the human consciousness. And therefore, I tell you, for all of us it is by grace that we hold our offices.

Thus, do not stay away because you say, "I do not have the requirements.” The only requirement at this seminar is the will—the will to exceed yourself and all past efforts, the will to give yourself and to go forth where we will send you on those exciting journeys of contacting souls throughout the earth.

The Only Ones Capable of Defending Europe Are the Keepers of the Flame

I have a special message from Saint Germain, who is seated beside me as I speak from our council chamber.

He gives to you the message that NATO is not capable of defending Europe—not physically, not by will, not by its spirit, not by its backing from the United States, which has no will to defend Europe.

Therefore he delivers to you the message that the only ones capable of defending Europe are the Keepers of the Flame. If you are astounded to hear such a message, then you have not yet understood the great equation of light, or perhaps you have not heard the story of the little boy with his finger in the dike.⁶

Therefore when you are prepared, Saint Germain, in the name of the Great Divine Director—who has sponsored Europe and its recalcitrant, prideful, and rebellious evolutions for thousands of years—will send you to those nations. And there, two by two, you will keep the flame. Remember this when you decide what to do with your life. For Saint Germain’s words, though short, are profound: “NATO will not, cannot, defend Europe. The only ones capable of defending Europe are the Keepers of the Flame.”

Now you may understand the high esteem in which you are held by the Knight Commander. Now you may begin to understand the value of a life lived in God, of daily decrees not missed and given with joy.

I say, cease listening to those demons who would tell you that decrees don’t work! Why do you think the aggressive mental suggestion is so intense? It is for the very reason that they do work and that without them the planet Earth would have long ago ceased to be. And it would be all over, and you would find yourselves in varying octaves of consciousness and not necessarily all together in one place. For here you are equal, having equal opportunity to serve and to give a life and to earn at the conclusion of that life the diamond in your turban.

The Opportunity for Community

But, beloved ones, the sudden removal of lifestreams from the screen of life reveals the great gaps between levels of attainment, and therefore the opportunity for community is lost as individuals must gravitate toward their own evolution, their own level of light.

Here and now while the sun shines, all are treated with equal respect, equal accord, and we live in the love of Sanat Kumara, whose great love, like the love of the Buddha, compensates for those shortcomings that we are content to allow to have beneath the surface of the aura. For it is not necessary that all that is not fulfilled in you should be on the end of your nose or wiggling from your toes.

At this moment I would have you wiggle and awake and open your eyes, lest you find that this become a despising of the Law and a rejection of the Law, for which you will suffer karma this day.

I AM Morya. I am concerned for your life in this moment, and I will let you be concerned for your sleep. For many sleep but the fallen ones sleep not, and I watch as they continue to plan and to plan. It is the psychology of the survival of the animal who has been cornered and is about to be seized, to suffer attack.

There arises within the very being of these fallen ones maximum energy, which is literally drawn from the astral plane and its unlimited pools of darkness—an energy unlimited, like the energy of a man who is angry and possessed of a thousand demons to implement his evil deed. This is the strength of the minds of the fallen ones as they plot to destroy.

Thus, we look to the individual soul of light to increase illumination, to increase wisdom, and to increase awareness of the individual and the collective survival of our community.

I will instruct our messenger to bring to your attention on the morrow certain facts on the survival of Camelot so that you will be prepared with this knowledge, that we might come on the Fourth of July to give to you the initiation that we are counting on to be the means for your implementation of the total plan of the Great Divine Director.⁷

Let Keepers of the Flame Not Let Down Their Guard or Their Decree Momentum

In view, then, of the mounting turmoil in Central America, of the rallying of forces through Cuba and Panama and nation by nation, it may well be seen that the rebels there indeed sense the footsteps and the shadow of the coming of the Mother, of Saint Germain and the chelas. These rebels are desperate to destroy and assume power before enlightenment appears.

Let it be, then. Hold your peace and be at peace. For the Great Divine Director has not left exposed the ultimate plan or the “trump card,” as you might say. Thus, he does not expose it to us or to chelas. Thus, it is not exposed for the fallen ones to counteract prematurely.

Let the summer be one of vigilance. Let Keepers of the Flame not let down their guard or their decree momentum, for there are serious momentums of dissatisfaction brewing in this nation. And during the initiations of the desire body, the unexpected may be anticipated and contained before it erupts.

We do not desire to see riot or terror or an overthrow of institutions in the United States. Though there be individuals misusing institutions, though there be corruption in certain of the corporations that determine the destiny of this nation, yet to begin to overthrow, to have a revolution such as that planned by radicals, would destroy the opportunity for the healing of America through the light of God and the presence of real sons and daughters moving in and taking position—corporation by corporation, state by state, legislature by legislature.

The Rescue Mission We Now Face on Earth

The astounding fact and revelation that I would give you to sleep upon this night is that very nearly identical conditions have indeed existed on another planetary body, and Sanat Kumara focuses in upon this for one purpose—so that you may observe this sphere and its varied lifewaves projected on the screen before you, and you may realize that this intense crisscrossing of Light and Darkness was overcome by key individuals penetrating—infiltrating, if you will—the darkest centers, assuming positions first of service, then of leadership.

By the inner connection of the soul and the heart in a vast network throughout the planet, five thousand individuals were able to not only prevent violent revolution and total war but to seize the power from the seeds of the wicked, to invoke the judgment, to bring enlightenment to the people, to contain the uproar in the midst, and to lead the children of God into a higher understanding. These were five thousand key individuals who determined and dedicated their lives and went forth following the inner divine plan for the salvation of that planetary body.

Now I desire you to know that certain of us who serve from the ascended octaves were among those five thousand. And certain key individuals among you, who are yet unascended and fervent in their service, were also among those five thousand, who elected to remain and to use their attainment for another round and another opportunity for the rescue mission, which we now face on earth. This is why I am absolutely convinced that it can be done. And the Darjeeling Council is convinced.

Now it becomes necessary that a body of professional lightbearers be prepared to assume those same positions. We are gratified that there are the few and the many in this activity who are prepared.

Let us adjust our minds now, chelas, as you come into our hearts more closely for the positioning of the timbers nation by nation. It can be done! And I for one say, It shall be done!

I AM Morya. I will keep in touch.

“The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom.” This previously unpublished dictation by El Morya was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Monday, July 2, 1979, during the Freedom class, The Coming Revolution in Higher Consciousness, held at Camelot, Los Angeles County, California. Part 1 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 39. Any books listed in the following endnotes are published by Summit University Press and are by Mark L. Prophet and/or Elizabeth Clare Prophet unless otherwise noted. Books, audio, and video products are available at <https://Store.SummitLighthouse.org>. (1) I welcome you to study his dissertation. On June 15, 1979, the Great Divine Director gave a dictation in which he set forth the requirements of chelaship against the backdrop of community and planetary conditions as they existed in 1979 with the messenger in physical embodiment. The master initiated a twenty-four-month cycle of chelaship training at the Rakoczy Mansion. Chelaship, the master stated, begins “with an absolute determination that the goal of your life is the ascension.” Other requirements were a two-hour morning decree session, the daily decree to Astrea thirty-six times, the daily rosary, the decree to Archangel Michael given daily, and the attendance at the Saint Germain service.

Chelas were expected to sustain the mission and the physical presence of the messenger in embodiment and to speak the name of Mother as Guru and messenger and not to deny that name. The Great Divine Director stated that “all of these requirements proceed out of the essential flame of love. To increase love is to make it possible to do all these things in joy and harmony.” The master stressed the importance of the release of the book Dossier on the Ascension “as one of the greatest moments in the history of the Great White Brotherhood in modern time.” He said that every chela should be able to lecture on the ascension, on the raising of the light of the Mother, and on the violet flame. Among his closing remarks he stated: “I bid all welcome to our retreat. I am joyous in the flame. I am glad that I came. I am here because I love you.” (2) Whose freedom President Carter is demanding. Some 350 political prisoners known to be Communists by Christian activists were held in Seoul, South Korea, in April of 1979. Two groups of eighty-eight and fifty-three were released in July and August of 1979, after the United States government appealed to President Park Chung Hee for clemency during a visit by President Carter in June of 1979. (3) A transfer of a momentum of wisdom’s flame. On July 4, two days after this dictation by El Morya, the Elohim Apollo delivered the last dictation of the conference, in which he said: “Friends of light, hail! I AM Apollo, and Lumina is with me. And by Elohim we descend fervently to transfer the ultimate gift that can be given from the Buddha—Gautama, Maitreya. The gift of illumined action is the key to victory. For by action, and only by action, is the ascension won. And who can walk in darkness? Who can work in the night? Without the light, action is naught. Therefore, illumination for the action of love is our calling. Beloved, this bestowal now begins a spiral sent by us through the World Teachers. We are coming for a major thrust for the fulfillment of the goal of the century—illumination throughout the earth and Gautama’s torch of living yellow fire—illumination throughout the earth!” (4) Hercules will stand with the World Teachers. The Seminar of the World Teachers was held at Camelot from July 9, 1979, through July 20, 1979, and included lectures by the messenger based on the Book of Isaiah, dictations by Jesus and Kuthumi, and a dictation by Sanat Kumara. The messenger explained that this seminar “is not a seminar to give you the teaching of the World Teachers. It is a seminar to convey to you the ability to teach, to give you the initiations necessary, the very gifts of the prophets, and ultimately to prepare you for the bestowal of the mantle.” (5) See note 4. (6) The little boy with his finger in the dike is a story taken from the novel Hans Brinker or The Silver Skates, by Mary Mapes Dodge (1865). In chapter 18, a story is told of a Dutch boy, the son of a lockkeeper, who saw a trickle of water running from a dike and lay all night with his finger in the dike to prevent a major breach. The next morning the villagers found him and repaired the breach. (7) The total plan of the Great Divine Director. See note 2.
