World Goodwill and the Course of Chelaship

To Give or Not to Give Oneself to God

Part 2

[El Morya chastises a person in the audience for falling asleep: You will not sleep in my dictation! Remove yourself! Enough is enough! You wait for dictations as though the messenger tarried unnecessarily, but the messenger awaits our cue that you are ready. We cannot always wait for you to be ready, for we have most important duties in this cosmos. Therefore I have come to speak, and I expect stillness and attention, the stilling of the mind.]

The Equation of Freewill Choice

Has it occurred to you that I also have other appointments in the universe today? Well, it is so. For I must preside and attempt to reach many hearts, in many meetings, who are concerned for world goodwill. And I must place myself in their midst, though they know me not, and by the pressure of my love break through the recalcitrance so that some worth may come of their deliberations and thereby preserve for you the opportunity to be on the Mount Zion. Therefore consider my word. [12-second pause]

The sovereignty of free will has not been set aside. Thus the equation of the people's choice must enter in. And the choice of the people depends directly upon the education of the people, the enlightenment of the people, which depends directly upon the leadership. And if the leadership receive not the torch of light from previous leadership and from our own bands, then the chain reaction of the blind leaders of the blind will continue unabated. We cannot merely chart on a graph at Darjeeling the activities of our "soldiers." But we must also take into consideration, now and in the future, the voice of the people, the popular voice.

What will be the outcome of the elections in the United States? The whole world watches as a scramble of figures emerge out of a scramble for power, and for some, out of the desire to truly help this nation in her darkest hour. Yes, it is the darkest hour. And it is also the darkest hour of ignorance of this people concerning the crisscross of forces in the world at large.

We study whether or not our message will reach enough of the people and if it will be received by them in time to change some of them and to change their thinking. We cannot predicate the decisions of our Brotherhood or the future of our activity or the work of our messengers based on the acceptance of the masses, on the popular vote, or even on the outcome of the elections. For the LORD Almighty has never placed in the cradle of the carnal mind's misuse of free will the outcome of their purposes.

Physical and Spiritual Dangers

We, therefore, have built our movements apart from and separate from the mainstream of the downward coursings of the karma of the people. Understand, then, that we do not trust to any government or any economy the ability to protect or to guarantee the lives or the safety of our best servants. Would to God it were so! Would to God it were possible! A fond dream did Saint Germain have in laying the foundation of a land of freedom that might secure the bastions of freedom and of light for this the hour of the capstone of the pyramid.

Look to the right. Look to the left. You see how the dulling of the minds, with all of the many forms of pollutions and lethargy, has left the people vulnerable to poisoning, to toxins, to dangers not acted upon swiftly enough. Why, beloved ones, there was just the very instance of the poisoning of chickens and hogs by a deadly chemical and the failure of the bureaucracy to alert the people and to sound the alarm—the delay of five weeks, even, in the tracing of all the harm that went forth.<sup>1</sup>

Do you suppose that such a government that is unable to mobilize itself in interior defense, in exterior defense, or even in the simple management of a budget or of inflation or deflation could be trusted with the guarding of a light that it has no capacity to even perceive, let alone contain?

There may be dangers at the physical levels of life and death to all of the people. But, beloved ones, do not underestimate spiritual danger when only those who are the spiritual may fortify spiritually.

Your existence is not to be compared with normal existence. You live in other dimensions, though you mesh with the physical plane. Your perceptions extend beyond this plane; therefore you have received us and our word and our messenger. Your souls behold me standing on this platform, no matter that your physical eyes are overcome by the various pollutants of the environment. You are here because you know, because you see with the inner eye.

Thus you can understand that you live more in the etheric plane than you do in the physical plane. And there are many among mankind who do not even perceive the etheric plane. They do not live beyond the mental belt, and the lower mental belt at that. Thus their perspective is largely different. Their values are not yours. Nor do they perceive the highest forms of danger, nor can they understand psychologically or philosophically the concept of absolute Evil. And because they cannot understand it, they argue against it and say it does not exist.

Absolute and Relative Choices

What is absolute Evil? It is the sovereign choice of absolute free will to be Antichrist by forces who were once seated in the councils of the Almighty.

Do not, then, consider it to be so unusual that individuals closest to the messenger have betrayed the messenger. Those closest to the Almighty betrayed him.<sup>2</sup> All who must have initiations of chelaship must finally come to the throne of the Ancient of Days,<sup>3</sup> and we send our messengers as little “thrones,” you might say, as testing oracles, as focuses of light against the greater judgment to come. Thus those given the opportunity of the path of the ascension may take many steps before rejecting the Person of God. It is the rejection of the Person of God that results in the manifestation of absolute Evil.

Relative evil consists of day-to-day decisions that people make—to sin or not to sin, to steal or not to steal, to cheat or not to cheat, to gossip and malign or not. This is relative good and evil. But the absolute choice to absolutely deny the incarnate Word results in a manifestation diametrically opposed to the Godhead himself. He, then, is absolute Good, and those who deny him become the absolute deniers. Therefore the term absolute Evil.

Understand it. For those who are common sinners in the streets have greater hope of salvation than those who have gone all the way to the point of the vision of the Lamb on Mount Zion and then turned back and said, “I may return another day, or I may not.”

Beloved ones, the time and the space of the choice are God's determination. The choice itself is yours. You did not preordain the stars! Therefore, seek not to preordain their coursings! There is a time to be children on the playground of life, and there is a time to be chelas.

Understand the law of cycles and profit thereby. For in the springtime is the bud. In early summer is the rose. And in autumn the last rose of summer drops its petals. Would you at that hour suddenly demand the bud or the flowering rose? Understand the laws of cosmic cycles and realize what is relative—what is relative in the sense that there is room for you to breathe or not to breathe the fragrance of angels.

Then understand, when life reaches its culmination and opportunity's door is opened widest, that in truth the LORD God Almighty presents himself in his full Electronic Presence to the most insignificant believer upon earth with the opportunity to choose immortal life. And understand that that opportunity may come through a beggar or a messenger or a friend. But when it comes, the soul is expected to give deference to the form and the content of the message and the messenger.

Thus some have made absolute choices on the Path in this life, and some are yet within the more comfortable realm of the relative day-to-day experiences. You cannot blame the messenger because you have come too close to the fire, because now you would remove yourself but you cannot. Beloved ones, that cycle is in yourself and not in the messenger. Let us, then, speak of the outcome of events, since all events upon earth are the result of choices—absolute choices and relative choices.

Do you understand that I am here imparting to you a spiral of my turban, a circle of my crown chakra? I tarry with you to intensify an energy with which I anoint you so that in the days ahead, you—being saturated with an extraordinary momentum of my own will and devotion to the will of God—might make your own right choices.

I am an instructor of some experience, and I understand the value of having close to me my students for extended periods. For in those periods I transfer the net gain of experience of a thousand years on this or some other planetary sphere. I desire to give you this portion of myself today, for you will be confronted with many serious choices and with the necessity to evaluate life and what is happening in this nation and in other nations.

The Judgment of Babylon

We will act for the preservation of community. We will act on behalf of those who have perceived the light of Sanat Kumara and who understand their most important service to be the holding of that light. The holding of that light allows the angel to fly in the midst of heaven with the Everlasting Gospel<sup>4</sup> in order to preach unto the men of the earth and the women and the children and all souls.

And then there is the judgment of Babylon.<sup>5</sup> Babylon, beloved ones, represents the organization of the Watchers in Church and in State. The amalgamation of anti-light in the Church has been called the Great Whore.<sup>6</sup> This is the ecclesiastical Babylon.

There is the secular Babylon in the entire buildup of a materialistic government and economy and consciousness. The judgment of these amalgamated forces must come. It must come, and therefore, as Gautama Buddha has said, "Sometime, somewhere, the children of the light must take their stand."<sup>7</sup>

The vision of Zion,<sup>8</sup> the chelas with the Guru, allows all else to follow—the pouring out of the vials of the seven last plagues,<sup>9</sup> the woes (which are the return of karma), the exposure of Antichrist, and the judgment of that which is revealed as the beasts that rise up out of the sea and up out of the earth, and the dragon who gives them their power and their seat and great authority.<sup>10</sup>

It is one thing to have the exposure of error and of absolute Evil. These exposures have been forthcoming by numbers of individuals who have written works on the issues of the time. We have worked with them, and thus available to you is much research that has gone before, defining the many issues that come to your attention through “Mother’s Manifesto.”<sup>11</sup>

First, then, is the isolation of the condition in order to give the children of the light the opportunity to separate themselves from those conditions and also to choose whether they shall accept the mark of the beast<sup>12</sup> or whether they shall reject it.

When the opportunity to have right knowledge concerning the issues at hand has been sufficiently given to the people of earth and the people of the earth have made their choice whether to take the Everlasting Gospel—whether to accept the person of the Ancient of Days, whether to accept the path of the ascension (which is the spiral up the mountain)—then and only then does the Final Judgment come.

How long the LORD will require for this process is a cycle that is sealed in his heart. He has shielded it from all eyes, and only the LORD God Almighty holds the law of the shortening and the lengthening of those cycles.

Pursue the Course of Chelaship

Now, then, my beloved, the course that we have set before you to pursue with all diligence is the course of chelaship, which is indeed the holding of the balance for life in the earth. We will pursue it with you. We will find with you the souls who can come into alignment with the vibration of Sanat Kumara. And those who cannot—to whom the message, the fiery message would be an offense and an indignation to their own right sense of life—these we will leave in the outer churches so that they may hold some light and some love on our behalf.

darkening cycle that is ahead, we direct your attention to the Light, to the Star, to Sanat Kumara, and we say, be steadfast. Be steadfast in fixing your gaze upon the light, and be willing to walk all the way to the summit of the mountain with the Lamb.

I AM El Morya. I shall return with further counsel concerning world goodwill and the issues of our time.

I AM in space the point of the diamond.

Purusha! [Master breathes out deeply.]

Manufacture of the polychlorinated biphenyl, or PCB, was stopped by the Environmental Protection Agency in 1976.” An article in The New York Times on September 15, 1979, reported: “The chain of contamination has been traced to a hog processor. . . in Billings, Montana. . . . The company sells the meal, a waste product of its meat production,” to several western and mid-western states, per FDA officials. The chemical has “caused cancer in laboratory tests, killed cattle in Kansas and caused skin diseases in humans.” The chemical is “used as a coolant in electrical equipment” and was “outlawed five years ago but is found in older machinery, including some used on farms.” (2) Those closest to the Almighty betrayed him. This refers to the fallen archangel Lucifer and his lieutenants, who betrayed the Almighty. In The Path of Self-Transformation, we read: “The LORD had not kept his secrets from his son [Lucifer]. Alas, the folly of the fallen archangel was his familiarity with the LORD. Lucifer was not content to make himself equal with God (which equality God shares with his sons and daughters, for he made them co-creators). But Lucifer placed himself above the LORD God and boasted before the hosts of the LORD that he, Lucifer, could bring forth a creation better than the LORD’s. He could do anything that the LORD could do, or so he thought.” (The Path of Self-Transformation, p. 50) (3) Dan. 7:9–14. (4) Rev. 14:6. (5) Rev. 14:8; 16:19; 17:5; 18:2, 10, 21. (6) Rev. 17:1; 19:2. (7) The children of the light must take their stand. In a dictation given on October 6, 1979, Gautama Buddha stated: “Sometime, somewhere, the children of the light must stand up and be counted. And that moment has come. . . . Sometime, somewhere, the children of the light must take their stand and sing the new song of determination and of fervor and a certain release of the heart when all of the stops are out and, beloved ones, the fervor of your soul literally scrapes the very heavens.” (8) The vision of Zion. This refers to the vision of John the Beloved in the Book of Revelation, chapter 14:1–5, which begins, “And I looked, and lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father’s name written in their foreheads.” The “vision of Zion” may also refer to John’s vision of the “holy city” as recorded in chapter 21:2: “And I, John, saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.” (9) Rev. 15, 16. (10) Rev. 13. (11) “Mother’s Manifesto.” See Pearl of Wisdom, this volume, no. 4, n. 2. (12) Rev. 13:16–18; 15:2; 16:2; 19:20; 20:4. (13) The Dark Cycle. See Pearl of Wisdom, this volume, no. 1, n. 9.
