Follow the Thread of Gold— the Christly Leadings of the Voice of God

O precious ones, you do not realize how utterly important it is that you sense within yourselves the reality of your cosmic being, your spiritual inheritance, and the great faith that God has implanted within you. The power of light's invincible perfection and radiance is of more value than all of the treasures of the world. For by means of the sacred fire and the light of God, all substance may be formed by the builders of form and the tiny elementals.

As the alchemists knew, and I refer to those who were true, it would be possible for mankind to actually summon the element of gold itself from the very atmosphere and to produce it without any question whatsoever, if they knew the great God-potential that is within them. After all, blessed ones, do you realize that within the earth itself there are mighty veins of gold ore still undiscovered by mankind?

Do you know, precious ones, that this gold that is...

Follow the Thread of Gold— the Christly Leadings of the Voice of God

Hail, legions of Peace! I AM come this day with the shining garment of God, the victory of life, the purifying elements of the sacred fire. I AM come to bring to all the understanding of the countenance that shines like the sun. I AM come to bring to all the understanding of their own face as the face of God.

All must recognize, one and all upon this planet, that the patience of God ought not to be tried by mankind, neither should mankind tempt the LORD their God.<sup>1</sup> For the LORD thy God hath brought unto thee every grace and every good gift, and all in heaven will forever sing his praises and adoration for all that he is—the Strength and the Light of Life.

O precious ones, you do not realize how utterly important it is that you sense within yourselves the reality of your cosmic being, your spiritual inheritance, and the great faith that God has implanted within you. The power of light's invincible perfection and radiance is of more value than all of the treasures of the world. For by means of the sacred fire and the light of God, all substance may be formed by the builders of form and the tiny elementals.

As the alchemists knew, and I refer to those who were true, it would be possible for mankind to actually summon the element of gold itself from the very atmosphere and to produce it without any question whatsoever, if they knew the great God-potential that is within them. After all, blessed ones, do you realize that within the earth itself there are mighty veins of gold ore still undiscovered by mankind?

Gold Is the Condensed Radiance of the Sun

Do you know, precious ones, that this gold that is veined within the earth is actually the condensed radiance of the sun itself and that it has retained the power of the sun to vivify the earth body?

Do you know, precious ones, that there is actually a trace of this precious mineral within your physical bodies?

Do you understand, precious ones, that the condensed power of light itself in minute form manifests through your physical body and enables you to keep a balanced condition?

Why do you think, precious ones, that the United States of America, which is indeed the sweetheart of Saint Germain, has stored vast treasures of gold such as are now reposing at Fort Knox?

This gold is for the purpose of holding in this ascended master nation a spiritual radiance that can be useful in the transmuting of many conditions that mankind are not aware of, as well as in bringing in greater supply to this land so that America can be the source of great strength to all nations of the world—as the great giver of good gifts to the family of nations, the great unifier, the great transmuter, and the great father-friend to all.

Metals and Precious Gems

Mankind must understand that there is an inner action of the Great Law functioning through the metals and precious gems of the earth. Mankind must understand that the breast-plate worn by Aaron, the high priest, had not only physical symbology but also the spiritual power of the ancient priesthood, which was locked within the physical object itself.<sup>2</sup>

Mankind do not understand the power today of that which they have termed in part as talismanic magic.<sup>3</sup> I think, then, that we ought to reveal just a little of this so that mankind will understand that in the outer use of symbology there is a specific inner action of the Great Law that can be constructively used to bless mankind upon this planet and to hold a focus for the angelic hosts.

Do you know, blessed ones, that to retain upon your person an object of gold is most valuable if it be properly magnetized so as to draw the power of the sun close to your individual person?

I do not say that mankind should covet gold. This must be without coveting. It must be placed as a focus of spiritual adornment upon your person, and then the light called forth by God's grace so that the great power of the radiance of the Sun behind the sun will radiate into the golden substance and retain the charge of Cosmic Christ love and the charge of Cosmic Christ wisdom, which the Great Law will actually hold in the golden element.

The Golden Word

Precious ones, the statement has been made that "speech is silver but silence is golden." Now, then, when you come into the golden age, the word that goes forth from you will be the golden word—the golden word that itself possesses the richness of Cosmic Christ discrimination whereby when you speak to your brother, words of infinite comfort shall flow to him and repose and nestle in his heart long after he has forgotten the fact that you met on a specific occasion. The date may be forgotten, but your precious words, golden words of love and light as an anointing upon his heart and head, will bring him peace and comfort and inspiration.

Do you know, precious ones, that mankind today so frequently speak the brutal word, and this brutal word is remembered and it brings pain to the hearts of mankind over a long and prolonged period of time? The same holds true for brutal thoughts, which mankind unwittingly, sometimes haphazardly, permit themselves to express.

Deny, then, the power of these and let them not pass your lips. For truly though they be sharp barbs of wit, I say to you all, they are but silver and they are moon substance. They are emotional substance and they bring you under the power of the "moon mother," and they bring you under the power of that which pulls you down to false gods and idols, as Ishtar<sup>4</sup> and as those who worshiped the cult of the Minotaur.<sup>5</sup>

I call to your attention, then, that mankind must understand the meaning of the golden apple thrown before Atalanta.<sup>6</sup> They must learn to distinguish the true attractions of their spiritual quest from the false detraction that would hinder them in the race.

Likewise, they must understand how to follow the thread of gold—the Christly leadings of the voice of God uttering truth to the heart through the long night of human chaos, which enables man to emerge victorious from the labyrinth of human consciousness after having slain the minotaur creation—all of the ghastly and grisly conditions that mankind have conjured up by their thoughtlessness and brutality. They must recognize that all the former conditions must be forgotten, and they must hold to the virgin consciousness of pure gold, to all that which is golden in the eyes of God.

The Creation of the Money Beast

Mankind have so frequently created a golden calf, which they worship and dance around to manifest the bestiality of their nature. For when the golden calf comes full blown into manifestation, there is then created the money beast, which mankind today worship rather than the Most High God.

I wonder how many of you are aware of the fact that the money beast is a tangible creation that actually abides in the atmosphere over the city of New York and causes much manipulation and fluctuation in the stock market there, often resulting in grief and panic to mankind.

For example, in the great crash that occurred in the 1930s, mankind did suffer very definitely as a result of the manipulations of the stock market. The savings of entire families and individuals were wiped out in an instant, and the suicide entity had a field day to bring about destruction to mankind.

Do you see the difference in conditions when the laws of God are obeyed? You recall in the vision of Moses descending from the heights of the mountain that he came and found the people worshiping the golden calf and he did break the tablets of God's Law. For his heart did burn within him with grief to see civilization gone so completely contrary to decency and order before God.<sup>7</sup>

Good Character, Kindness, and Understanding

Now, I AM an archangel, and I AM charged also with the feeling of God-identification. I realize how very important it is to you, blessed ones, to earn a living and to have sufficient of this world's goods to keep yourselves together—as some of you have said, “to hold body and soul together.” But I tell you that you will never find through dependence on the outer the satisfactions that your soul requires.

You must recognize that the talismanic magic of God, which has actually caused tremendous spiritual foci to be created in various parts of the earth, is an active principle that mankind can tune in with, if they will. But in order to do so, there is a great requirement of the Law, and that requirement is a good character, a manifestation of kindness to one's brother, and of kindness to one's neighbor. It is a manifestation of golden understanding. For we are now entered upon the golden age, and mankind must understand by spiritual alchemy how they may transmute the old and hardened bitter opinions of consciousness and enter into a state of freedom, such as is epitomized by the ascended hosts and the angelic hosts.

Ladies and gentlemen, would you be free to have the virgin consciousness of Mary? Would you be free to hold the Christ concept in the matrix of your being? Then accept the understanding of golden speech and the golden rule, for the golden rule so clearly states as it is written in heaven: “Do unto others as you would that they do unto you!”<sup>8</sup>

I thank you and bid you goodbye for this day. God be with you.

“The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom.”
This previously published dictation by Archangel Gabriel was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Mark L. Prophet on Sunday, January 3, 1965, during New Year's Class 1965, held at the Dodge House in Washington, D.C. It was then edited by Elizabeth Clare Prophet in preparation for publication in The Summit Lighthouse New Year's Class 1965 booklet. (1) Deut. 6:16; Matt. 4:7. (2) Exod. 28:15–30. (3) Talismanic magic is the use of a religious or spiritual object or focus, known as a talisman, as a coordinate of energy. Energy and light arc from Spirit to Matter and go to the talisman and are released through the talisman. Statues or images and portraits of masters, jewels, gold, or other sacred objects are examples of talismans. The science of talismanic magic does not state that there is an intrinsic power within the gold of a statue, for example, or the paper on which the image of a master is produced. There is a power in the talisman if an ascended being or a Son of God has determined to endow that focus with power. The messengers have explained that the ascended masters do not condone the misuse or manipulation of the use of energy, as in black magic and witchcraft, however there is a right use of energy and meaning of the word “magic,” which Mark Prophet explained in a lecture on July 6, 1971: “In the word ‘magic’ is to be found the idea of magnification in consciousness. . . . In other words, magic starts out with the word m-a-g. . . then the i in magic stands for in and the c stands for consciousness. . . . In that thought is the power of cosmic I AM or cosmic eye magic. And it is resident in consciousness because it is the true magical sense, the true magnification in consciousness.” (4) Ishtar is a Nephilim goddess of love, war, and fertility, who bore the title “Queen of Heaven.” She is worshiped by the Akkadians, Babylonians, and Assyrians and is usually identified with the Sumerian-Mesopotamian goddess Inanna, whose cult included sexual rites in the temples dedicated to her. Ishtar’s worship in ancient Israel by the women of Judea was spoken against by the prophet Jeremiah, where she is referred to as the queen of heaven. (Jer. 7:18; 44:17–19) (5) The cult of the Minotaur. According to Greek mythology, the Minotaur, half man and half bull, dwelt in a complex maze, or labyrinth, on the island of Crete. Known as Minotaurus, the bull of King Minos, the creature yearly devoured seven Athenian youths and seven maidens as tribute. The Athenian hero Theseus was sent to destroy the Minotaur, aided by Ariadne, the daughter of King Minos, who fell in love with Theseus. Ariadne gave Theseus a ball of thread (which in one account is formed of glittering jewels and in another account is flaxen, or straw colored), and advised him to tie the thread at the entrance to the labyrinth and allow it to unwind as he traveled deeper into the maze, enabling him to find his way out. Theseus fought and slew the Minotaur, returning safely from the depths of the labyrinth. The myth may be based on the ancient worship and sacrifice to the bull god. In a dictation given on February 10, 1962, Lord Maitreya explained that the “golden thread of perfection is ever present with each of you, and it assists you in finding—if you will pursue it—the way back Home, the way back to the victory, the glory, the purity, and the power of the Cosmic Christ and of the Buddha.” (6) The golden apple thrown before Atalanta. In Greek mythology, Atalanta was a devotee of the goddess Artemis, the huntress. Her father wished to arrange a marriage for her, but the chaste Atalanta agreed to wed only if a suitor would outrun her in a footrace, which she knew was impossible. One of the suitors, Hippomenes, fell in love with Atalanta and prayed for divine assistance from Aphrodite, goddess of love, who gave Hippomenes three golden apples. As the race began, Atalanta, wearing armour and weapons, passed Hippomenes but was diverted off the path when he threw a golden apple for her to retrieve. When Atalanta would catch up with Hippomenes (after retrieving the apple), he would toss another golden apple and then another, thus diverting Atalanta from her path and finally winning the race and the hand of Atalanta in marriage. (7) Exod. 32:19. (8) Matt. 7:12; Luke 6:31.
