The Crucifixion, Free Will, and the Law of Transcendence Part 1

You must understand, then, that the hour of reckoning is the hour of summoning your own God consciousness, your own will to be, your own centeredness in the Mother flame. Great wisdom comes from understanding what can be changed lawfully by cosmic law and by the intercession of miracles of grace through individual lifestreams. And then again, wisdom is to assess what cannot be changed because the majority of the people have aligned their free will with the nonaligned energies of the mass consciousness.

Thus, free will is ever preserved. For without free will there is no evolution, there is no continuity of being, there is no experiment in the great laboratory of time and space. The Crucifixion, Free Will, and the Law of Transcendence

*This Is the Fiery Core of the Torch of Liberty
That We Pass to You*

Part 1

O children of the Sun, the councils of the Brotherhood have assembled to be with you in this hour of the reckoning. As man reckons time and space, so the Law itself, embodied in the person of the Lawgiver, does reckon, as one who measures with the rod, those who are in the inner temple and those who are in the outer court.

Our God is a consuming fire of love.¹ So is his Law manifest as Above, so below. Understand, then, the equation of life and of crisis within life, as the crossroads of time and space bring before the world community both opportunity and decision.

Understand that the Law is impersonal yet most personal in its application. Those who are one with the consuming fire are drawn up in the draft of the Holy Spirit, and they themselves become a part of the vortex, the pillar of fire that leads the children of Israel and nations unto the Promised Land of the abundant life.

There are forces set in motion upon earth today that can only be checked by counterforces of light—light that must always be embodied within you, our representatives. Understand that miracles are wrought by God through instruments such as ascended masters and angels, such as embodied devotees—those who form the connecting link of light, those who keep the currents flowing in the heart of the earth.

When Free Will Is Withdrawn, Time and Space Collapse

Understand, then, that inasmuch as the Lawgiver is the Law, there is no abrogation of cosmic law in deference to this or that person who may be beloved of God yet who stubbornly remains outside of the geometry of that Law.

God loves himself in every part of life. Every child of his heart is beloved. And all that has proceeded forth from him, even energy itself, contains the very magnet of his love whereby that substance, that will, that force, that energy, and that very mind will ultimately return to him.

Now, then, there are individuals today—through ignorance, through manipulation—who are aligned with forcefields completely outside of the nucleus of God's Law, God's economy, God's abundant life, and God's own Reality. When the LORD God intensifies the sacred fire in the midst of the people Israel and the whirlwind begins to accelerate, you must understand that only those who are aligned with the Law that is the consuming fire will remain within the vortex of Reality. Those who are unaligned or misaligned, those who remain at the periphery of life itself, are thrown off, by the very force itself, from the whirling action of the sacred fire.

These are laws that have ever been at work in the Matter spheres. If they were to be violated by the LORD for one person or for another, then the entire system of universal law would break down and those who have abrogated the law and worship the lesser self in place of the Greater Self could then find passageway into the very midst of the Garden and the Tree of Life.²

You must understand, then, that the hour of reckoning is the hour of summoning your own God consciousness, your own will to be, your own centeredness in the Mother flame. Great wisdom comes from understanding what can be changed lawfully by cosmic law and by the intercession of miracles of grace through individual lifestreams. And then again, wisdom is to assess what cannot be changed because the majority of the people have aligned their free will with the nonaligned energies of the mass consciousness.

Thus, free will is ever preserved. For without free will there is no evolution, there is no continuity of being, there is no experiment in the great laboratory of time and space. When free will is withdrawn, time and space collapse. Yes, I said: When free will is withdrawn, time and space collapse.

The Law of Transcendence Is the Very Foundation of Life

Time and space themselves are the manifestation of the free will of the Creator within the creation. They are verily coordinates of universal creativity. Thus, should the LORD God determine to enter the mainstream of life in violation of free will, that free will would be withdrawn and therefore the entire opportunity for the law of transcendence to be outpictured within the individual [would also be withdrawn].

This law of transcendence decrees that every individual manifestation of the Godhead has the divine right to transcend himself. Understand the meaning of this—that the spiraling flame within you, God ordained, has the right to spiral higher each day. And the soul has the right to decide to identify with that spiral, to become the spiral, and therefore to transcend the former state. This law of transcendence is the very foundation of life, of evolution, of expansion within an expanding universal God consciousness.

You will note how the fallen ones have attempted to deprive the children of the light from self-transcendence. Once you have sinned, they will nail you to the cross of sin. Whatever you have ever done in whatsoever embodiment, they will call forth the record and nail you to the cross of that record long after you have repented and advanced to heights of virtue.

The Crucifixion Is the Means Whereby the Soul Transcends Itself into Higher Dimensions

The crucifixion is not the nailing of the individual to the cross of individual sin. It is the cosmic cross of white fire that is the foundation of the initiation of that crucifixion. And through that cross of white fire, Alpha and Omega, lo, they impart to you the light of God consciousness to transmute bodily within your temple planetary karma, personal karma, and to hold the balance in the hour of transition.

The crucifixion is the fastening of the soul to the cosmic cross of white fire. It is the great privilege of having access to the line of Alpha and Omega whereby freedom in time and space is indeed sustained. Therefore, you can understand that the crucifixion itself is the means whereby the soul transcends itself into higher dimensions, namely into the great spherical being of the Godhead.

This is liberty! This is the fiery core of the torch of Liberty that we pass to you! Understand how the fallen ones have attempted to pervert the very path of initiation and to use sin and the sense of sin, struggle, and the sense of struggle to take you apart from the mainstream of the joy of God-realization through initiation.

Therefore, the law of transcendence decrees that those who will to be and to accelerate life must be given the opportunity to do so. And those who exercise free will to confirm and affirm the nefarious deeds of the fallen ones and their manipulations of life upon earth must also be given the opportunity to do so, because they must understand the beginning and the ending of their decision and their exercise of free will so that ultimately they may make the decision to bind the spoiler within the temple of life.

Learning Is a Most Necessary Experience for Evolving Souls

Free will, then, is the supreme opportunity to learn. Learning itself is a most necessary experience for evolving souls. Therefore, the Karmic Board looks upon the evolutions of earth and of the land of America, and our decisions must effect each individual and group of individuals who fall necessarily into the categories ordained by their own expression of free will.

The free will to misqualify energy in certain areas results in individuals aligning themselves with all others who so misqualify energy. This is the understanding of the law that like attracts like. Thus, you find yourselves in the company of lightbearers of a certain dimension and understanding. This is the definition of your community representing the Great White Brotherhood.

Now we look at a nation and we look at the crossroads. The crossroads for some represent the cosmic cross of white fire and the supreme moment of self-transcendence. There is no law that is written in heaven or on earth that says you may not pass through the fiery crucifixion and emerge walking the earth in the full power of the resurrection spirit. There is no law that has decreed the death either of the soul or of the physical temple simply because you pass through the crucifixion.

Therefore, life reborn, resurrected, charged with that flame of mother-of-pearl is the result of your submission to the Path and gives to you a net gain of life and light with which to infuse the decay and the dying of society itself—yea, even of the dream of Saint Germain for America. How the clouds of greed, of hate and hate creation have distorted and covered over the dream for so many! So few have the vision, and those who do have so little understanding of the implementation of the vision.

The Lifeline of Energy

Therefore, we come that you will understand that God has set you aside as a peculiar people. It is not only the people of the world who think you peculiar, but the angels and the ascended masters also know that you are a most peculiar people who are willing to have the full power of the Holy Ghost flow through you in the spoken Word, in your affirmations, which have an unending chain of life all their own, proceeding from the heart of the Mother, where all invocations gather.

This chain links to the very heart of Alpha. It is forged and won by every prayer, every dynamic decree. And the calls of Keepers of the Flame are that certain frequency of light charged by the Holy Ghost, the Father, and the Son, united as one through the Mother flame.

This chain of light is a two-way street, a cord of love. It is the opening of the way of life descending. It becomes the umbilical cord of the earth itself whereby the child in gestation, not yet even born, is nourished with life. And all of you collectively give birth ultimately, as it is God's will, to that universal Manchild within the planetary body as the Christ consciousness of the few and hopefully the many.

Thus, the lifeline of energy sustained by those who have never lost the memory of the Word of Sanat Kumara is ever the hope of the Karmic Board. And therefore we come in our concern that this lifeline be not cut inadvertently by any force whatsoever, most especially not by the ignorance or the absence of preparedness or readiness by the children of God.

The Expansion of the Message

We have proceeded upon a course of parallel lines in the past seven years. We have determined that this company of lightbearers should be prepared for survival in the octaves of Matter, no matter what the conditions of change or turbulence or transition upon earth.

We have also determined that simultaneously with this preparation there should continue a program of mass education of the people who have ears to hear the teachings of the Brotherhood and whose fears, transmuted by the violet flame, no longer impede their preparation to know the truth, to face the truth, and to know all of the consequences waiting on the very threshold of precipitation in this octave.

Thus, seven years are drawing to a close, which mark the anniversary of the ascension of beloved Lanello.³ This has been a seven-year opportunity for the expansion of the message. Each seven-year cycle contains within itself a certain seed-matrix of the Cosmic Christ borne by the chelas. Therefore, the Lords of Karma look to the conclusion of this cycle on February 26, 1980, as the moment when we will know the harvest and the results of our experiments.

With the release of illumination's flame, with abundant joy of freedom, many students have come and gone through the halls of Summit University. Some are pillars of fire in our teaching centers and study groups, and others are situated throughout the earth as real and living Keepers of the Flame. Upon some the seed of the Sower has fallen as upon the rock, and they themselves have not assimilated the seed and therefore have gone their separate ways.

It is our consideration that many more who could have accepted the full, effulgent light of our torch should have done so but have not. Therefore, the balance of light in the earth is precarious. Therefore, while we pursue the posture of conversion and preaching to the nations, we desire to confirm within our very midst a strong heart center, a viable center to this community, a center that would be the refuge of lightbearers, a spiritual refuge and even a material refuge.

Therefore, we look to the concentration of light and to the God consciousness of the ascended masters expressed through the leadership of our activity to provide the ways and means for the light of the torch we have passed to be maintained.

"The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom." This previously unpublished dictation by the Goddess of Liberty was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Saturday, October 13, 1979, during the Keep the Nations Free seminar, held at Camelot, Los Angeles County, California. Part 2 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 10. [N.B.] Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] (1) See Deut. 4:24, 9:3; Heb. 12:29. (2) The Garden and the Tree of Life. On May 15, 1978, the messenger Elizabeth Clare Prophet explained that the Garden of Eden was created by God as a replica of the causal body, and in the center of the Garden was the Tree of Life, the focus of the I AM Presence. Those who rebelled against the law of the Christ were expelled from the Garden and could not be given access to the I AM Presence and causal body. She explained that in order to guard the consciousness of the I AM THAT I AM, the LORD placed at the east of the Garden cherubim and a flaming sword, which turned every way "to keep the way of the Tree of Life." See Gen. 2:8-9; 3:22-24. (3) The ascension of beloved Lanello. The messenger Mark L. Prophet made his ascension on February 26, 1973, from Colorado Springs, Colorado, and is now known as the ascended master Lanello.
