

The Beloved Goddess of Purity

You Must Be Free to Love!

Love Is Always the Gift of God

Do you know, my beloved, that the greatest degradation of all that is practiced, even by the children of God, is the degradation of your own blessed Self, the personal Selfhood of God within you? You deny that Self in so many ways, small and great, often by ignorance and sometimes by willfulness, stubbornness, and neglect.

But I am come not to condemn but to exalt the God within you. I come, then, to isolate for you, most tenderly, those aspects of yourself that you have thought to be so real, which are actually unreal. I come to teach you, by the love of the universal Virgin, how you can change some of the practices of your life so easily. It is merely a rechanneling of energy, a mindfulness toward God as Mother within yourself.

The love that you already feel and know I would show you how to go. I would show you how to contact that light, to place your attention upon it in prayer, in meditation.

The Beloved Goddess of Purity

June 8, 2025

You Must Be Free to Love!

Love Is Always the Gift of God

I AM the Goddess of Purity. I descend into your midst by the light of the Central Sun transferred this day, this holy day of holies,* into the heart of the earth.

And do you know, my blessed children, that there is not a soul upon earth who has not received an increment of the light of the Mother? For this is the great celebration of her light indwelling.

This increase in energy is felt in many levels of consciousness. Those who are the spiritually attuned receive the light and become more of it. Those who are not, misuse the light and are therefore responsible for greater and greater degradations practiced against the Woman clothed with the Sun.¹

But do you know, my beloved, that the greatest degradation of all that is practiced, even by the children of God, is the degradation of your own blessed Self, the personal Selfhood of God within you? You deny that Self in so many ways, small and great, often by ignorance and sometimes by willfulness, stubbornness, and neglect.

But I am come not to condemn but to exalt the God within you. I come, then, to isolate for you, most tenderly, those aspects of yourself that you have thought to be so real, which are actually unreal. I come to teach you, by the love of the universal Virgin, how you can change some of the practices of your life so easily. It is merely a rechanneling of energy, a mindfulness toward God as Mother within yourself.

¹This dictation was given on the day of summer solstice.

The love that you already feel and know I would show you how to go. I would show you how to contact that light, to place your attention upon it in prayer, in meditation. I would show you that the very same energy that you use as the crystal clear water of the stream of life flowing through you—the same energy that you use in idle conversation or in idle pre-occupation—may be summoned and used by the enlightened will so that you have a channel for your love, which has many, many more expressions that you do not know exist even now.

The Giving of the Self Wholly in Love

When you love an individual purely in God, it increases the flow of love through you. When you love only for possession, only because you are insecure or seek some measure of personal gratification, then you decrease the flow of light within yourself. Now then, see how easy it is to love purely and to be unthreatened by the giving of the self wholly in love.

Who is loved, and whom do you love when God pours his infinite love through you? First you love a soul in the state of becoming God, but there is a Sun behind the soul that is called the Sun behind the sun. This Sun is the Source of the person that you see. Without that Source, there would be no one there to love.

Therefore, by a turning of the dial of the attention when you love a friend, a beloved, look beyond the outer and love intensely for a moment the brilliant light of the Person of God—the Sun of God behind the soul. In this moment of loving, you will assist that soul to reconnect with his Inner Self.

In this moment of loving, you are acknowledging that by the grace of that Real Self, the soul is your friend. And by the grace of that person, you do have a friendship and you do have one with whom you share the joys of life.

As you practice the ritual of loving the Sun behind the sun in all, you are far less burdened by the human traits of personality, by the burdens of mood energies or discarnate entities that seek to come between families and friends, and then on a larger scale between nations.

The Loving of the True Person of God within One Another Is Liberation from Bondage of Every Form

When you answer the Word of Christ, “Who am I? Whom say ye that I am?” with the words, “Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God,”² you have broken the stronghold of an idolatrous love and thereby you have opened an infinite love that will endow your friendship with new life, that will enable you to extend love beyond the narrow confines of one to the millions, to the multitudes. As you practice loving the Person of God, you will find an increase of the Person of God within yourself.

It is lawful to love God in the saints who have gone before you and not to worship their personality. Even the personality of Jesus ought not to be worshipped, but the light of the living Christ within him. This is the object of your adoration; then transfer it to yourself. Throw the laurel around your own neck. Go into the samadhi of that communion and discover that the ailment of this civilization is the absence of the pure and living love of the Sun behind the sun. Fail to give it and you fail to receive it.

Why, my beloved, I suppose it is no surprise to you, but it is almost a surprise to the angels, that as we look down the record of your life we do not find so many days when you have filled your days with the loving of the true Person of God within one another. Is this not the starting point of the path of your soul’s liberation? I say it is. It is liberation from bondage of every form!

You must be free to love, to give love, to be love, and to know that the energy of love is not of yourself. When you say “I love you,” it is God in you who says “I love you,” for you do not have any capacity outside of God to love. You cannot prime the pump of love on your own. Love is always the gift of God.

What, then, of love’s gross perversions that we behold throughout the fabric of society? My beloved, these perversions that come in every form of hatred or slander or gossip or fear or so many practices, all of these pile as dead leaves. They pile up and they pile up and they weigh upon your body. They weigh upon the cities. They weigh upon the earth. And this, I show you clearly in your soul, is the cause for cataclysm.

Disobedience to the Law of Love Is the Closing of the Open Door of God Consciousness

You have heard that cataclysm has threatened this coast, and indeed it has.³ If it is to be permanently prevented, it must be by the increase of pure love—love that is not afraid to face the laws of God, to be obedient to them, and to be delivered from the misuses of those laws; love that does not deny God, who comes with a chastening love and a compassionate word; love that does not say, “Leave me alone. I will do anything I please, for God will still love me.”

My children, God may still love you, but by your own misuse of his sacred fire, you may have placed yourselves outside of the center of his Being into that outer darkness where there is weeping and gnashing of teeth because—as it was in the Mystery School of Eden on Lemuria—when there is disobedience to the law of love, there is the closing of the open door of God consciousness.

Do not blame anyone else, then, if you do not have all of the fruits of the Tree of Life that you desire to have. But go! Go where the Gurus are! Go to the Ancient of Days! And do not fear the flaming sword. It was created by God and given to the hand of the archangel to cut you free only from those conditions that are not of your True Self.

Would you be free? Then tarry long enough with me and with my cohorts of light. Do not lash out at the very ones who come to deliver you, simply because we step upon your toes and tell you that God knows you are a child of his heart, but he also knows that you have been kept apart by triviality, by chaos and confusion, by strong delusion. And those things that you are most vehement in defending as your right—if you could only behold at inner levels the truth of your light and life—you would immediately denounce and desire to be no part of.

Why Does God Test You?

Tarry, then, a moment. You come for the gift of the Mother. I am here to convey to you the gift of the Central Sun. But the kingdom of God is not born in you in an instant, in a moment when suddenly you demand it and come to the altar and say, “Well, here I am, LORD. Now show me who you are.” The LORD has been waiting many aeons for your coming. And when you come, he must once again give you the testings of your souls where you have left off to seek your own fortune in the veils of maya.

Why does God test you? Because he desires to give you intense light, and he will not entrust his light to you if on the morrow you will squander it and misuse it and turn and fail to forgive your brother or your sister.

Light is the most precious commodity of the cosmos! Why, it is God himself! Giving that light away, giving too much light, can give to the children of God too much play, too much lenience, too much opportunity to destroy themselves and a civilization and a world.

Did you know that it is possible for you to destroy this earth, even as it is possible for you to raise it up in the resurrection?

I have said, “Ye are gods, and all of you are children of the most High.”⁴ These are the words of Moses,⁵ the Guru you left in the way because of the piercing penetration of the fire of his eyes penetrating your soul, exacting obedience for a higher goal, not willing to allow you to tarry in the wilderness but determined to bring you to the Promised Land. I am here for those who seek readmission to the mystery schools of Eden, to the retreats of the Great White Brotherhood.

You Have Drunk the Cup of This Life to Its Dregs

I love you. Can you believe that? Can you believe that I have walked as you have walked, that I chose long ago to take my ascension, to accelerate into light, that long ago I was with you in these temples?

Some of you were with me when I made that decision to go on to higher light and you said, “We will take another round. We will go another way.” That choice has resulted in your being here, as our messenger has told you, another quarter of a million years.

You have drunk the cup of this life to its dregs. You have tasted all things again and again. No wonder it is the bored generation. No wonder nothing is new or exciting. Why, you have done it again and again and again. And I tell you, the only reason that you do not cease is, first of all, you do not see a greater bliss in God consciousness, and secondly, you really do not have free will.

You have turned over that free will to unseen forces, whose presence you have no conception of. And therefore the gift of freedom that you have thought you had preserved is compromised by indoctrination, by habit, by ignorance, which is your own karma for ignoring the Law in the past.

The Mother Will Open the Way When You Love Her in Purity

We come at summer solstice 1979. We have sent our messenger to the city of the seven hills* to raise up the light of the Holy Kumaras. These sons of light from Venus are the ones who activate greater enlightenment in the crown chakra, and this they do by teaching you how to raise up the Mother light.

We come with a teaching. If you desire greater power, greater wisdom, and greater love, then know this—that the burden of proof is upon you! You must prove self-worth to the Almighty, who imparts his flame to those who elect to do his will, to be himself incarnate.

Someone has rightly said in this community that the only one who is slave is the one who is waiting for someone else to set him free—a very interesting comment on the affairs of the times. If you are slave, you have willed to be slave. You can be God-free. You can invoke your inheritance. But you must prove your worth.

If you would be free from the false gurus and their false teachings, you must be willing to change. For the attraction of the false gurus is the easy way of stealing the light of the Mother and using it to your own devices. If you would use it for the ascension, then you must qualify under Serapis Bey, the hierarch of Luxor. The Ascension Temple receives candidates for the disciplines of the Mother flame.⁶

The symbol of the Great Pyramid is the symbol of the Mother flame rising in you. All of her mysteries are within it. And the mystery of the Sphinx, the very riddle of life itself, is that the Mother is teacher and the Mother will open the way when you love her in purity.

Yes, there are surrenders to be made. Yes, indeed, there are sacrifices of the old ways. There is service to be given. Those who fear the work of the Holy Spirit as the sacred labor

*the city of San Francisco will not accommodate the presence of the Mother. For the Mother is the one who teaches the glorious handiwork that builds a culture and a civilization that strives for excellence. The Mother is the one who can empower you to slay all of the dragons who are in the process of destroying the great civilization that is and the great civilization that is to come in the golden age.

Plunge the Light of the Sword of Kali into the Cause and Core of the Conditions That Bind You!

I, therefore, set before you a challenge. I AM the Goddess of Purity. I AM Real, as Real as the Source from whence you came. For I have become one with that Source.

I challenge you to seriously investigate the teachings of the ascended masters. I challenge you to apply their science and their religion. I challenge you to be objective, unbiased, unbigoted, unprejudiced, and fearless. Those who receive the prize of the transfer of light, of life and of light, are only the fearless.

If you fear anyone, that one is your god. You say it is a trite expression. Well, I say, do you really think so, inasmuch as clearly the records of your own subconscious show that there remains within you fear itself?

You say, "I have no fear." I challenge you. I will expose your fear and I will show you simultaneously how you can consume that fear in the name of God by directing into it the most intense light of the Kundalini fire.

You can consume the cause and core of the fear of death that you had ten embodiments ago, which looms as a specter in your subconscious, unbeknownst to you. And the only evidence is the limitation of your life. The limitations of your life are evidence of pockets of energy locked into fears and hatreds and hostilities. This is the energy of God that is not available to you, that is sapping your strength, making you tired, making you ill, and giving you the problems of your psyche.

I say, plunge the light of the sword of Kali into the cause and core of the conditions that bind you! Have the courage to be! And if you have the courage to be, then have the courage to challenge the entities infesting this youth of America and depriving them of that will to be alive.

Fear One Thing—

Those Who Deny That God Lives in Your Temple

Yes, there is a death consciousness abroad in the land. It is a relative consciousness seeping slowly as sludge unperceived. There is less vibrancy of life as a percentage of light today in America than there was ten years ago, fifty years ago, two hundred years ago.

Imperceptibly, people desire death. How do they demonstrate that death? Not alone in murder and suicide but in knowingly taking into their bodies substances that shorten their lifetimes.

National abortion is a national death wish to destroy the self, because everyone knows that the self is the little child swimming in the sea of the Cosmic Virgin. The denial of life to the child is the acting out of suicide one by one, but this, beloved, is the dangerous suicide of your soul. For your soul is the little child.

I come to love you and to love you free and to say: Fear not. Allow your soul to live. Allow other souls to live. Forgive yourself. Forgive all, and make way for the coming of the King in every part of life.

Let us see in America the raising up of a new generation of lightbearers who do not fear to receive life or to give life, who do not fear the procreative process of the bringing forth of children of light, who do not fear the projects of creative input, crying out for you to come and to show and to teach the world how to truly live.

Do not fear the sacred fire. Do not fear the Mother energy. But fear one thing—fear those who deny that God lives in your temple and must be worshipped there. Fear your own fear of his Presence. Cast it out. Transmute it. Then only the fear of the LORD in the name I AM THAT AM will remain. And that is the only lawful fear there is.

I come to reveal to you the psychology of your soul as to why, for carnally-minded reasons or intellectual reasons or emotional reasons or subconscious reasons, you reject your divinity, you reject your Godhood, and therefore you cannot accept that divinity in the ascended masters.

This denial is a suicide in itself. Deny God in his children, and you have denied him in yourself. And therefore understand, “He that denieth me before men, him will I deny before my Father.”⁷

Garner the Light

Now my angels have gathered in rings upon rings around this city. We come to purge. We come to purge this city of San Francisco of all that is anti the light of the children of the One. We are setting seven electrodes by the light of the seven Holy Kumaras. They are gathered as seven rays of light, intensely now establishing pillars of energy in the seven hills from the heart of the earth to the heart of the Great Central Sun. These are hills of light. These are points carefully calculated as the chakras of the city of the Mother.

AIM AUM

Simultaneously this day, a pillar of fire has been anchored in Los Angeles. Great light comes to the west side of the City Foursquare. It has a cosmic purpose, for God’s purpose is not to perpetuate death or a cult of success or aeons of self-indulgence. God’s cosmic purpose is to raise up the children of the light who would be free to set life free, who would love to love life free.

The ascended masters of the Great White Brotherhood are uncomplicated, and our message is never complex. It is simply this: We have walked in your moccasins. We have moved in the time and space where you are. We have chosen to be free. By God's grace we have increased the light until we are one—individualized as points of infinity, points of the universal One.

We are the compassionate ones and the bodhisattvas. God has granted the dispensation of the age for us to stand forth and offer you the gifts of our path and our teaching.

We bid you welcome. We would give you all that we are and all that we have and the full momentum of our light that we have garnered unceasingly for hundreds of thousands of years. But first the Law requires that we secure your person in God, that the light of the Mother may not overtake you or be squandered or compromise your blessed identity.

When you make yourself ready and apply the teaching, as quickly as you are able to receive it we transfer light! This is our promise. This is our simple message. And all avatars who have ever come have come for this purpose.

Therefore, welcome to Camelot. Welcome to the secret chamber of your own heart, there where you meet the LORD face-to-face.

O my blessed souls, such burdens are lifted when you find the hand of the Mother and let her take you all the way Home.

I AM releasing the light, your own just portion according to your attainment of solstice.

Urrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrr

AIM

Garner the light. Guard the light. Be who you really are. Meditate on the One. And the Mother, flaming Goddess, will come to you and teach you day by day.

I AM the Mother. I bow before the light of Buddha, of Christ within you.

AUM

(3) That cataclysm that has threatened this coast. On October 11, 1987, the messenger gave a review of historical and current prophecies, including possible cataclysm on the West Coast. She quoted Edgar Cayce (1877–1945) as stating, "Los Angeles, San Francisco, most of all these will be among those that will be destroyed." She said, "Now, the degree of the earthquake and the degree of destruction can be determined by the lightbearers of these cities and of all of us throughout the world to invoke the violet flame that consumes the karma." On April 13, 1979, she explained that "the violet flame holds the balance against every form of cataclysm if we would only invoke it." (4) Ps. 82:6. (See note 5.) (5) In John 10:34, Jesus says, "Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?" Since Jesus says "your law," this refers to the law of Moses. This statement must have been part of the law of Moses and is now no longer extant in the canonical texts. David, however, knew the teaching of Moses and used it in the Psalms. Therefore, this saying was originally a statement of Moses, as per the Master Jesus. (See note 4.) (6) The Ascension Temple receives candidates for the disciplines of the Mother flame. The Ascension Temple is located in the etheric plane at Luxor, Egypt, on the Nile River. Candidates for the ascension have or are striving to balance at least 51 percent of their karma, to fulfill their divine plan of service in the octaves of time and space, and to meet other specific requirements that must be fulfilled in order to make one's ascension.
