

Beloved Saint Germain
Uncle Sam Wants You!
Part 2

...And we will call upon our ascended master students to go forth and to challenge the entire momentum of abortion in this nation—this heinous crime against all life, which has naught to do with religion! And because they can find no other excuse, these pro-abortion factions will stand and complain that pro-life is a religious issue.

My beloved ones, religion implies organization. It implies institutions. Neither prayer nor the reading of the Bible nor pro-life has anything to do with religion! The reading of a Psalm of David in the schoolroom and the saying of the Lord's Prayer has naught to do with religion! For neither one had any institution!

David, the great soul of light, wrote his Psalms, and they have everything to do with the soul's evolution Godward and the soul's right to commune with God irrespective of religion. And I tell you, the principles of Church and State have ever been combined by the prophets of Israel.

Beloved Saint Germain

Uncle Sam Wants You!

Beloved hearts of light, some of you did not realize that our Montessori students suffered a telling blow this very week, the condemnation of the world. These hearts of light, in addition to preparing for my freedom rally, prepared a magnificent performance on pro-life,¹ and Excelsior produced two magnificent works of music.² They were invited to do so by a national coalition of youth on pro-life who were meeting in Minneapolis, and generous Keepers of the Flame provided more than $5,000 for their transportation. The students were willing to leave in the wee hours of the morning on Friday to perform that evening, and to be back [in Los Angeles] on Saturday for the freedom rally. Therefore they were preparing two plays in this very week.

Then came the fallen ones. Then came the Serpent in the person of one Barbara Brown, and an entire TV station (pro-abortion) determining and threatening to that pro-life convention that if our students should perform, this TV station would then show on the television an exposé of this Church Universal and Triumphant as a cult and all of its members as cultists, and therefore of the pro-life movement being affiliated with a cult.

These individuals who were a part of the pro-life movement did not have the straight spine, the God consciousness, and the determination to stand by their commitment and to stand by our children. And therefore [these individuals in this pro-life movement] sheepishly called at the last minute, even in the hours just before Thanksgiving, and declared that they had decided not to have our children perform, or Excelsior, lest they be associated with a cult, lest they receive bad news coverage for their convention.

Well, it so happened that quite a number, even eighteen in number, Keepers of the Flame had supported that convention, served shoulder to shoulder with those of every faith in Minneapolis to prepare for that convention. By my direction, one and all resigned in protest. And I am gratified that they have understood this mockery of the child, this offense to the little child!

Pro-Life Has Nothing to Do with Religion

Why, these children who would perform were but ten or twelve or fifteen years ago in the womb! What life are these pro-lifers defending, I say?

Can they not see that it is the same life? If they are pro-life in the womb, why are they anti-the child now born, now in manifestation? Truly, this pro-life movement took the sword of abortion. And if they could, they would have denied the very life and snuffed out the fervor of freedom in these hearts.

Therefore I have asked those Keepers of the Flame, who contributed generously to bring these souls to Minneapolis, to take their contributions and to use them more wisely for the making of another film—that film of their play on pro-life. And let that film be carried around the nation with our freedom rally and to pro-life circles, and let those who value the child and the flame of the child stand with them!

For I tell you this day that these children will manifest the judgment of the entire “pro-life” movement! And if they reject our children, we will reject them! And we will not use them! And we will call upon our ascended master students to go forth and to challenge the entire momentum of abortion in this nation—this heinous crime against all life, which has naught to do with religion! And because they can find no other excuse, these pro-abortion factions will stand and complain that pro-life is a religious issue.

My beloved ones, religion implies organization. It implies institutions. Neither prayer nor the reading of the Bible nor pro-life has anything to do with religion! The reading of a Psalm of David in the schoolroom and the saying of the Lord’s Prayer has naught to do with religion! For neither one had any institution!

David, the great soul of light, wrote his Psalms, and they have everything to do with the soul’s evolution Godward and the soul’s right to commune with God irrespective of religion.

Everyone upon earth ought to honor David and his Psalms! And the Lord’s Prayer is not confined to Christianity except by the seed of the wicked, who desire to make of it a religious interaction of the soul with God when it is a personal interaction!

And I tell you, the principles of Church and State have ever been combined by the prophets of Israel. You cannot remove the flame from the institutions of life on the basis of petty intellectual argument or the sowing of the seeds of the Serpent through Madalyn Murray O’Hair³ and all of the atheists, who are nothing but Luciferians in disguise!

Beloved hearts of light, let us have a clearing of the air and let freedom’s bells toll! Pro-life has nothing to do with religion!

Does anybody cry out when there is murder and there must be a trial and there must be imprisonment or execution and say, “It is a religious issue”? I tell you, Nay! It is not a religious issue! It is a question of life, your life. And these individuals [in the coalition of youth on pro-life and through this TV station] have as surely denied the little child this week as the pro-abortionists have denied that little child with the surgical instruments and with death itself.

The Power of the Holy Ghost

Beloved ones of my heart, all of heaven bears the fervor and the flame that I bear this day, and it is yours for the asking! It is yours for the taking! You must understand that this fervor at hand in my heart is the action of the sacred fire that I desire to pass through you. And you will have to know that Saint Germain is excited about these issues, and you will have to get excited also! And you will have to understand that that excitement, that determination, that energy that I release is part and parcel of the Holy Ghost of the seventh ray!

The Holy Ghost of each of the rays bears a momentum of power to melt molecules, to rearrange them, to break up old substance. And therefore we will go forth with a fervor of freedom such as the world has not seen, and you will carry this fervor from my heart because your hearts are pure. And you will learn the way in greater and greater responsibility and ability to execute and perform those assignments that I give you, and you will take the power of the Holy Ghost from El Morya, who teaches you how to organize and who descends with blue lightning to break up the substance of disorganization and the inability to perform and the failure syndrome brought to your attention by the Lord Jesus Christ.⁴

All of these must be exorcised from your temple! For look as I show you from the Mount Ararat!⁵ Look upon the earth! Look at the souls who are not being born because of this lie, because of this manipulation, because of this blackmail!

Nonattachment to the Fruit of Action

I tell you, beloved ones, that when the media begins to blackmail organizations that stand for light, it is high time that the sons and daughters of God decide that it is the hour for action. You cannot have this tyranny! Whether it is the media in the United States or the Khomeini in Iran, you must not allow blackmail on the principles of freedom, and therefore you must determine that for no cause or condition will you ever be blackmailed! And this comes from the teaching of the Buddha—the nonattachment to the fruit of action.

This I spoke about to the messenger in the last few hours—nonattachment to the fruit of action. I called for a rally. You produced a rally. Now let the increase be the LORD'S! Let multiplication be the LORD'S! Be not concerned as to who came and who did not come. Be not concerned, for you collectively have passed a key initiation. This collective effort of an organization, of a movement of people, is an initiation of the ruby ray under the Lord Sanat Kumara.

There are not many groups of people upon earth who can move together harmoniously, who can make a decision, act upon that decision, and move forward and change the course of events.

You have heard of George Washington coming on his white stallion and mobilizing the troops. This is the coming of the Word! It is the coming of the electron! It is the coming of that electron who comes in the very center of action and becomes the magnet to magnetize the people to move as one flaming sword.

The Formula for Freedom Rallies

Beloved hearts of light, thank God that you can receive the direction of the ascended masters' councils. For as you can see, there may be many good ideas put forth this day as to what to do next concerning freedom and the price that must be paid to preserve it upon earth.

But I tell you, the one idea that I have given this day comes by the unanimous consent of the Council of the Royal Teton and the council in Darjeeling. For we see that it is necessary to multiply the body of God upon earth, and where there are not enough numbers we then multiply by the visual image the action of the light.

And we will reproduce that flame of that freedom rally in every place where that film, that music, and hearts of light gather to organize a similar activity. It can be done! It shall be done! And it will come because you sit down and go over, point by point, each event of last evening, each point of preparation, each decision. For you who were a part of it will be required to give an outline so that all groups and teaching centers may learn by your experience and may have the most important direction that they need to manifest their freedom rallies throughout the decade of the eighties.⁶

The formula is there. It can be improved upon. But it ought not to be altered to the point where it cannot be recognized. The playing of Fireworks! is a central part of that rally.⁷ The march is a central part, and the speaking for freedom by those who are the master of ceremonies. The music is the essential element, and the alternating of the march beat and the three-quarter time is an action that will balance the chakras and the four lower bodies of the people.

It is very important, as you have seen, to communicate with all who come through the door and to let them feel my heart's love, which is so intense for them, for freedom, and for America. And it is very important that your dynamic decrees precede such events. Media coverage is important, and thus the word goes far and wide.

“Saint Germain, I Bear Thy Cross!”

Let there be peace throughout this company. Let there be peace in our teaching centers. For this day there is a sealing of an initiation fulfilled and there is the beginning of the next.

I AM Saint Germain. I stand by every student of Montessori

International who stands for me. I stand by every lightbearer in America who has the courage to speak my name and to defend my flame. I stand by the messenger, who cries out into the day and into the night, "Saint Germain, I bear thy cross!"

I stand by every chela who has heard this mantra, which I gave to the messenger when I placed upon her my mantle and told her that in any hour of the day or night when she should desire cosmic assistance, to give that call. For when you agree to carry the cross of the Guru, you have the support of all of the legions of the Guru and you are standing in the very presence of the Guru. Every chela who volunteers to bear the cross of Saint Germain has my Electronic Presence with him [or her], and my legions.

Therefore, you see, beloved ones, if you are going to bear world karma and the black magic of the misuse of the science of the Word in its horrendous manifestation of recent weeks,⁸ then you might as well go all the way and have the full protection of the light by giving full surrender to the light! And I speak to some of you who sit on the fence and have not yet even decided to become probationary staff members or chelas in the true sense of the word.⁹

When you pussyfoot, as they say, your little pussyfoot may get cut off one day! For you have not protection when you have not sealed yourself with the Great White Brotherhood. And therefore, if we go forth to do battle with the entire dragon of the Capitalist/Communist Conspiracy, let us see to it that our chelas have the full reinforcement of the entire Spirit of the Great White Brotherhood.

And let the rest be forewarned. It is better not to be a part of this community of Camelot [if you are sitting on the fence]. For I tell you, it is simply too dangerous. And he who has not the commitment from this end will not have the commitment from our end, and therefore in the moment of great crisis we are not permitted to intervene.

Give It Your All!

The key to the survival of our messengers these years has been this very element of total dedication, and therefore they become the Rock incarnate, for they cannot be moved from the task at hand—not by demons or devils or false hierarchy or by recalcitrant chelas who taunt and tempt them with their continual disobedience.

Thus, we have much to do. We have a future, a freedom to guarantee for mankind. And you have your own selves to deal with, to accelerate, to increase, to exorcise from within your temples all that prevents the full release of my purple fiery heart.

I long, I long, I long for the day when my purple fiery heart shall be in manifestation within these chelas in such intensity as to scare away those devils and to burst a fire of freedom that none who are of the light can resist!

Well, my beloved, you are scarcely resistible today—not to ascended masters or angelic hosts or to the friends of freedom who came out to see you. And therefore the word will go forth, and not the disparaging word but the word of praise. And in praising you, they praise the LORD. God bless them! Though they know not what they do, they have praised you who have come in my name. Therefore they receive my reward, and many of them I have known and many of them I brought especially for the occasion.

We of the ascended masters are shepherds. Do not forget it! We will leave the ninety and nine and go after the one lost sheep. We have been known to hold events far more spectacular and more costly in light, dispensation, and supply for the saving of one lost sheep.

If you have saved one, be glad and rejoice! If you have saved a hundred or a thousand, be glad and rejoice! But be not ambitious concerning events, desiring more and more people. Be nonattached to the fruit of action. Give it your all! Give the light! Give the determination! Use your heads. Be wise. Be practical. Be patient. And then leave the rest to us.

Uncle Sam is with you, and Uncle Sam wants you!

[Laughter; 55-second applause]

“The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o’er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom.” This previously unpublished dictation by Saint Germain was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Sunday, November 25, 1979, during the Sunday service at Camelot, Los Angeles County, California. Part 1 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 31. [N.B. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] (1) A magnificent performance on pro-life. The students of Montessori International enacted a pro-life drama in 1980 entitled A Soul That’s Free! This video is no longer available. (2) Excelsior. See Pearl of Wisdom, this volume, no. 30, n. 10. (3) Madalyn Murray O’Hair was an American activist (1919–1995) who supported atheism and separation of Church and State. As a result of the Murray v. Curlett lawsuit (1963), the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that official mandatory Bible reading and prayer in American public schools was unconstitutional. However, in Santa Fe Independent School District v. Doe (2000), the U.S. Supreme Court stated that “nothing in the Constitution as interpreted by the Court prohibits any public school student from voluntarily praying at any time before, during, or after the school day.” (4) The failure syndrome brought to your attention by the Lord Jesus Christ. In a dictation given on November 22, 1979, Jesus commented on the death-wish chanting from Iran and stated: “Let the life wish and the life decree go forth in my name and the name of God. . . . Let the violet flame, let the flame of Cosmic Christ illumination consume in our disciples the failure syndrome, the will to fail, and that failure that is incorporated into the projects of victory. . . . I am determined that the demons and hordes of failure, seeking to enter the midst of my body in earth, penetrating through their subconscious minds and momentums and astral belt patterns and emotional bodies shall be bound! . . . This programmed failure must cease! You must accept no defeat. . . . Entertain no defeat. But the will to win must be the ultimate will within you, my beloved. . . . You have asked for what you should call. I say give The LORD’s Ritual [of Exorcism] and name the hordes of death and the hordes of failure. They are called anti-Victory. . . . So those demons of failure must be commanded Out! Out! of the astral bodies [of those who occupy the offices in government]. And the will to victory must be supreme. Look within yourself, beloved ones. The fallen ones have determined to plant seeds of failure in the garden of your consciousness, and in past eras they have succeeded. . . . You must determine when you step forth by God-direction on a new day, a new project or the continuing of an old one, that you will finish the course you have set, that you will return to that twelve o’clock line. . . . My beloved, come into my sacred heart today and learn of victory. . . . I AM God victorious! There is no other presence but God-Victory in our bands! All else is unreal.” (5) As I show you from the Mount Ararat. See Pearl of Wisdom, this volume, no. 31, n. 9. (6) So that all groups and teaching centers may learn by your experience. Since 1979, prayer vigils, marathons, and freedom rallies have been held at headquarters, in teaching centers and study groups across America and the world and on the broadcast. Each vigil and prayer and decree marathon has its own matrix, outline, or model, and can be repeated by teaching centers and study groups at any time, should they desire to do so, or they may choose another matrix or outline for a vigil or rally. Teaching centers and study groups may also consult the online calendar of events at the TSL member website and view the broadcast decree and service schedule to decide if they desire to participate. (7) The playing of Fireworks! See Pearl of Wisdom, this volume, no. 31, n. 7. (8) The misuse of the science of the Word in recent weeks. See Pearl of Wisdom, this volume, no. 30, n. 4. (9) To become probationary staff members. This refers to a level of staff commitment known as “probationary,” which is in preparation for the next level of “permanent staff.” These levels of commitment and discipline were inaugurated by the ascended masters through the messengers when they were in embodiment. On June 4, 1980, the messenger explained: “So a probationary staff member would be one working into the position of chelaship, being given disciplines and initiations to see how the word of commitment actually comes into action. . . . Going from probationary staff to permanent staff and [making] that permanent commitment are the chelas closest to me who share with me as one body and one flame the destiny of the activity, the work, the service.”
