El Morya's Christmas Letter 1979

Darjeeling, India
Approaching Winter Solstice

To the sons and daughters of the Ancient of Days I address my Christmas letter, and to the thousand thousands who minister unto him and to the ten thousand-times-ten thousand who stand before him. For, lo, the judgment is set and the books are opened and, behold, one like the Son of man cometh with the clouds of heaven—lo, he cometh to the Ancient of Days.<sup>1</sup>

Let all upon earth rejoice this Christmastide. Yes, rejoice in the Son of God born anew within your heart declaring, “Lo, I AM come to do thy will, O God!”

Let all men and women of goodwill fear God and give glory to him, for the hour of his judgment is come.<sup>2</sup> Therefore worship him that made heaven and earth and the sea and the fountains of waters.<sup>3</sup>

I AM El Morya, thy fellow servant on the path of light. I have walked with many of you who know me not as the devotee of God's will, the one who adores him still and who moves among the hearers of his Word, their hearts to instill with righteousness, with truth, and a flaming sword. I am a brother of light, O soul of God. I pray you, tarry with me as I unfold for you a sacred mystery of life becoming Life and of God's holy will for you, which is good, oh, so good, my friend. I come to deliver to you the message of the Ancient of Days sung by my chelas, for I am a guru of sorts, and they who are called Excel-sior<sup>4</sup> have sung a new song to the Lamb and to his Father, whose name is written in the foreheads of the hundred forty and four thousand who are with the Lamb on Mount Sion.<sup>5</sup>

Yes, my chelas have sung for you and for me the message of Sanat Kumara, the Great Bodhisattva known to Daniel and the prophets of Israel as the Ancient of Days. In his name we say, “Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee!”<sup>6</sup>

A bodhisattva is a saint who tarries with earth and her evolutions, serving to set life free lifetime after lifetime. And when all of this is said and done, the bodhisattva still serves to inspire the unillumined in Christ's Word from heavenly octaves and celestial spheres.

The Ancient of Days Is Come into the World

I bring you the message of this Ancient of Days, who would make known to every soul of light upon earth this Christmastide that he is come into the world, the sponsor of the sons of God who have ministered to life East and West. And the message of his perpetual prayer is “I AM come into the world not to condemn the world, but that through the Christ in me all might have life, and that more abundantly—life and that more abundantly. . . .”<sup>7</sup>

He brings the knowledge of the Presence of the I AM THAT I AM individualized for each child of God. His message is of the indwelling light and of the birth of Messiah in every child's heart.

This great bodhisattva, who revealed himself to Moses in the person of Jehovah and to Ezekiel as the fire infolding itself, to the soul of Gautama as the Buddha, to Zarathustra as Ahura Mazda, and to the Hindus as the Eternal Youth, has appeared to humanity in every epoch of earth's changes, signaling the beginning and the ending of cycles. He enunciates the Word and with the LORD God Almighty declares, "Let there be light"—and there is light.<sup>8</sup>

John the Revelator described him as the one holding the seven stars in his right hand who walks in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks delivering his message of the judgment to the angels of the seven churches.<sup>9</sup> This Ancient of Days was heard by John the Revelator to say, "I AM Alpha and Omega, the first and the last."<sup>10</sup>

To the beloved disciple to whom the Ancient of Days appeared, he was as "one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; and his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. And he had in his right hand seven stars; and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength."<sup>11</sup>

He is known to us of old as Father, for he was the first Guru who came to rescue earth's evolutions, who had forgotten the name of God, who had lost the soul memory of their origin in him, and who had left off from worshipping the Trinity, which the LORD God Almighty had sealed within their hearts in the Beginning as the threefold flame of life. For aeons we have called him Father and we have chanted our chant of love to him, whom the Nameless One anointed to sit upon the great white throne in the first and the last judgment.

Before him and before the four and twenty elders and the four living creatures we have given the mantra, "Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever."<sup>12</sup>

Now, my beloved, we who are your elder brothers and sisters on the Path come to you with a special message of his Word that was with God in the Beginning, without whom was not any thing made that was made.<sup>13</sup> From the Father and the Son—the Ancient of Days and the Lamb—we bear the prophecy for the 1980s and the joy of his eternal stars to all who are of goodwill and to the hearers and doers of the Word.

While seers and psychics have predicted earth changes and even cataclysm and Peter himself saw the heavens on fire and the elements melt with fervent heat,<sup>14</sup> the redeemed from the earth who follow the Lamb, being the firstfruits unto God,<sup>15</sup> have beheld the sea of glass as the lake of sacred-fire transmutation.<sup>16</sup>

They have heard the sound of the AUM in the great cosmic wave of light that is oncoming. They have sung the new song of their Father's name before the throne. They have read the Everlasting Gospel. And, above all, they have understood that the prophesied judgment—which some have feared unto their death and others would hasten unto the resurrection of eternal life—is truly the moment when light and darkness are divided by the sounding of the Word<sup>17</sup> and by the sword of the Prince of Peace.

I Place in Your Hands Two Songs Inspired upon My Chelas by Sanat Kumara and the Lord Christ

I am a brother of light, true blue. You may call me an angel of goodwill if you like. I place in your hands two songs inspired upon my chelas by Sanat Kumara and the Lord Christ.<sup>18</sup> The music, the sound, the sea, and the singing are for your meditation at the solstices and the equinoxes, on Christmas Day, and on each holy day designated for the celebration of light.

The hosts of the LORD who serve with these world saviours, who are my friends and yours, would have you hold consonance with the Word, would have you hold the earth in the embrace of love and in the sound of the Word that is for the transformation of worlds this Christmas Day, this winter solstice, and on and on throughout the decade of the eighties.

Indeed, this is an era of transition when many souls will accelerate into that higher consciousness that lends awareness of other evolutions and even of the saints robed in white who comprise our band known as the Great White Brotherhood. We serve to set life free. We would enlist you in the service of the light in the coming days. For the prophecy of the LORD sent by his Spirit unto you is the warning that both the Light and the Dark will intensify as certain cycles are ending and others are beginning.

We desire to see children of the light in all of the world's religions and in all of the uplift movements of Aquarius dip into the fount of eternal life borne by Sanat Kumara and the Lamb on Mount Sion. We admonish that it is you who must mount the higher spiral that leads to the point of contact with the far-off worlds. It is you who must learn the science of the spoken Word, which is verily the new song of the chant, the mantra, the dynamic decree, and the penetrating prayer spoken into the day and into the night.

We are no prophets of doom or of dire destruction, yet we see and we read the handwriting on the wall. Truly, many have been found wanting. They are wanting adequate light to fulfill their fiery destiny—the very purpose to which they were born. We call upon the faithful to be bearers of light to the poor in spirit and to those who lack discernment of the signs of the times. For the prophecies of the Lord Jesus Christ and of the apocalyptic writers will indeed come to pass—but not as some men think.

For there are planes of heaven and there are planes of earth. These planes that were revealed to Enoch are the stairways of consciousness.<sup>19</sup> Therefore where thy consciousness is, so shall thy experience be. And the wise know that the highest highs and the lowest lows are experienced by different individuals at the same point of time and space.

Some of you have heard of Saint Germain, others Djwal Kul,

K.H., or the M with which I have penned my name. Others of you are more comfortable with the Virgin Mary or Maitreya or Buddha. But now in this hour of cycles turning, we call to those who have not lost the vision and to those who desire to attain it. Both are summoned to our council table, where we meet in my retreat on the etheric plane at Darjeeling, India. Let those of you who read and run to the rhythm of the stars respond as the hundred forty and four thousand—the archetypal number who in every era of transition hold the key to God consciousness on the earth.

Take This Gift of My Heart

In the name of the Ancient of Days, I call to you who have long meditated upon the mind of God to understand that now is the hour designated by the Ancient of Days for you to hold the maximum light in heart and mind and soul and in the sacred centers of being. The sign of 1980 is the sign of integration when all of life upon earth will be accelerated by the music of the spheres to a greater attunement with the vibrations of sun centers and the nuclei of star systems.

To you who can understand that all of life is one and that all of life must be held in the harmony of the vibrating chords of cosmic consciousness, I say, have mercy upon mankind, who are like sheep scattered upon the hillsides of the world. They know not the way to go. We call to you, whoever, whatever you are. It matters not what your race or nation or by what word grouping you choose to define the Infinite One. Now is the hour when that One is calling, calling to the vanguard of light upon earth to hold the light of harmony, love, truth, justice, mercy, freedom, peace, and enlightenment.

To you who have already sensed the oncoming challenges of the eighties, to you who understand your mission in holding the balance for sudden changes in the governments and economies of the nations and as upheaval and earthquake in elemental life, I say, take this gift of my heart sent to you via my messenger and become the soundless sound of Sanat Kumara, which resonates in the Word of the Lamb and through your heart unto the great multitude. For when you play these songs and meditate upon the great God-free beings serving earth's evolutions with such compassion as is scarcely comprehensible by you, you will be surrounded by rings upon rings of angels, fiery seraphim, and the cherubim of love.

Legions of light have pledged to stand with every one of you who chooses to be with the Great Initiator and the Great Integrator in this decade when the challenges, crises, and decisions met by the sons and daughters of God will determine what the course of life will be on earth in the coming centuries.

You who are waging war against injustice in God's name, you who have taken your stand on the line of truth to be with the light where the light swallows up the darkness, know that I am with you, that ministering thousands are with you, and that we have seen the oncoming light and the oncoming darkness and we have pledged ourselves to stand with that God-free being Mighty Victory and his legions to serve to set life free and to uphold those who give their lives for the sake of humanity.

We are the reinforcements from heavenly octaves. We have served on earth as you now serve. We have passed the initiations of our Gurus, and by the law of transcendence we have accelerated into the octaves of light.

The Blessing of the Universal Word through Music from the One

Beholding the work at hand and knowing the need of our best servants, we summoned Excelsior this past summer to prepare and to perform the music of the spheres, which a number of our bands inspired upon them through the angels of music. Seeing the sign of severe testing of souls, we come with the balm of Gilead. It is the blessing of the universal Word through music from the One—the God who is the God of Harmony.

Under our careful instruction, the messenger and a most dedicated staff of lightbearers have prepared an album of songs entitled Harpstrings of Lemuria.<sup>20</sup> The two songs that we have sent with this letter are among thirty whose combined frequencies are calculated to hold you in the light as you hold the earth in light and raise the torch of Liberty that all might be saved from the bondage of selfishness and the tyranny of spiritual wickedness in high places.

A few of the songs were inspired by us upon other composers, while most are new for the new wave of the decade and for the carrying of the coil of light to be released at solstice. This coil has a sound and a frequency that must pass through the subconscious, the conscious, and the superconscious beings of earth's evolutions. It is a coil of energy that must penetrate matter in the mineral, vegetable, and animal kingdoms.

We would assist and we would ask you to assist us in amplifying this energy by means of the sounds prerecorded by the messenger with Excelsior for this very purpose. Lo, the Ancient of Days hurls a sphere of light and the Lamb unfurls the banner of the Cosmic Christ.

All of Heaven Is Poised for the Victory

O children of the Sun, respond to the Mother flame. Carry the light in the 1980s. Carry it in the secret chamber of your heart and with the hearing of the inner ear. Carry it in your eye, beholding the All-Seeing Eye of God. Carry it in your soul, one with his Spirit. And carry it as you sing the new song with the legions of light who are implementing sound and the sound waves to counteract discord, all destructivity, disease, and death ere it return to mankind, who have sent it forth with the suddenness of a woman's travail.

My beloved brothers and sisters of the light, I address you as co-equals and co-inheritors of the mantle of God's will.

I pray that without fear, with long-suffering and perseverance, you shall endure and fulfill your mission of this year and the decade to come.

All of heaven is poised for the Victory. We look to commune with you, each one, directly through the ultra-dimensional sound of Excelsior. May you who believe in angels and in the brothers in white be not forgetful to entertain strangers. For this is the hour of the coming of the LORD's Spirit in the manifold expressions of our legions who are descending to earth on the glorious mission of the sons of God to raise up souls who are counted as the servants of the Lamb.

I AM El Morya. Through the ages I have worn various guises and disguises. You will know me (as I stand beside you in answer to your call) by my vibration, by a certain knowing, a certain God-determination, a certain will to move and to be movers of men and mountains. You will know me by my impetus that I give to you to act, act, act in the name of God to set the captives free.

Let us be up and doing. I am with the I AM THAT I AM, who reveals himself in the outflowing and the inflowing of events.

Children of the Sun, be prime movers of light and love and goodwill in time and space and you will be with me, held in the bonds of the eternal Brotherhood.

In the Spirit of Christmas,

I AM
