A Reading from the Book of Life

The Line of Victory Is the Line of Illumination

The light of wisdom's fire is a piercing light! In its presence no other desire can remain except the desire to know and be the wisdom flame.

O piercing light, penetrating light of wisdom's crown,
Light of the World Mother renowned,
Now open the crown of life of each one;
Now open the blessed crown of life.
Angels of Jophiel's band,
Command, command
The Book of Life, its leaves of gold,
The oft-repeated story told.
From this I would read to chelas bold
The record of the history,
Love's story of the chosen few
That came, true blue—
With Sanat Kumara, Lady Venus, and the few.

Legions of light, legions of angels, we came. We came to escort the blessed children of the light. We came to deliver the mandate of the Word. We who heard so long, long ago the message of Sanat Kumara—we, the supporting angel bands who said to the mighty one, Apollo from the sun, Helios and Vesta and their flame of light ignited by the Kumaras' holy band and by their sacred hand: "We will come to insure that the light of the holy crown of Blessed Virgin and the Son will not go down as setting sun but e'er remain the majesty of the Christed flame."

Now from this book I read
Of those who also read and run.
For you are the runners in the race
Who have delivered many a message in your pace,
And the message that you have brought
Is the truth that God has wrought.
It is truth for which we stand,
And now illumination's band
Is determined that flaming Truth—
Goddess of the Light, Pallas Athena,
And all of her reign—
Might be supported by wisdom's rod
Raised on high in each chela of the light.

It says right here upon this page, inscribed in gold
That certain of the children of the light
Who came with Sanat Kumara of old
Were detained upon this earth
For succeeding incarnations
To invoke and precipitate
That flame of great worth—
The flame of self-worth,
The flame of the I AM THAT I AM.
And so it is inscribed
The name and number of each soul
Who determined to remain
To make Terra and her evolutions whole.

We Come with the Hope Fulfilled That the Everlasting Word Should Be Published Nation by Nation

I AM Jophiel, and with me Christine. We came to sponsor those who love the pristine light, who would be bearers of that ruby light. We have come in support of the mission of those who determined to hold the flame of worth. It is the honor of the Holy Spirit—that flame of worth. It is the love of Christ embodied in each and every son. The flame of worth is a message of self-esteem to every child and child-man.

With me, then, Christine continues in her message that those who came were determined to spread abroad that Word by all that would be available century by century in the proliferation of the message of truth. All who came looked forward to the day when Saint Germain, by the seventh ray, would release the science and the technology for the light of the Word to be carried into every hearth and home.

Even the Lord Jesus Christ anticipated the hour when that message would be shouted from the housetops and even transmitted, as they are today, by aeriels physical and of light. Thus, from house to house the message is broadcast across the bands and now by satellite. Therefore we come with the hope fulfilled in many a heart that this is truly the day when the gospel, glad tidings, and the everlasting Word should be published abroad nation by nation and now be heard.

Without a Manger, Christ Could Not Be Born

My beloved, the Book of Life lists the names of those who volunteered [to come to earth with Sanat Kumara]. Many are here and many have yet to hear our Word and thus be magnetized to their final offering upon the altar of the second ray.

The reasoning of every heart who has become one with the heart of the God and Goddess Meru and the messengers in this task is quite simple. If we can speak the Word once and it can be multiplied a million times, then why not maximize the message of the light?

And therefore through preaching the Word, one to one and two by two, you have come to the point in life where you can now deliver a message many thousands of times over by the printing presses, many millions of times over by the media.

Therefore we note those who have watched the battle and those who have fought point/counterpoint, that the fallen ones have also reckoned with the hour of your coming. They have determined to use the power of the press and all the rest to magnify the error. But, my beloved, though they misuse the technology of the Mother, they do not have the cosmic mirror at their disposal to reflect and refract the blessed note of wisdom's song. They do not have the power of the use of the Great Central Sun Magnet nor the Presence of Maximus. Therefore their means, though seemingly extensive, are always limited even within the finite domain.

Therefore, we come again. We come with the promise of the second ray. So many of you who have loved that ray have tarried for many, many a day on the first-ray mastery of the will of God, the light of Hercules, Astrea, Archangel Michael for the very building of the community and the sealing of the forcefield.

Aye, without protection, of what use is the coming of the Manchild? Without a manger, Christ could not be born. And without that manger, where might we place even the computer itself or the printing press or all of the facilities and the staff who are required for the printing of that Word?

The Alchemy of the Seventh Ray Whereby Wisdom's Light Might Go Forth

Now, lest I be heard by those who should not hear that which I have to say, I impart to you a message of the seventh ray. It is an alchemy that by wisdom's flame I assure you that you too can know the alchemy of the violet flame, where you have also tarried to prepare the carriers of our light, even your chakras and your four lower bodies, now bright.

The alchemy of the seventh ray upon the foundation of the first is truly the threshing floor whereby now wisdom's light, so piercing, so penetrating in its might, might go forth.

Beloved, understand that the power of illumination is the highest power in the raising of wisdom's rod, even the Kundalini fire. Some of you have noted the immense power of the Mother flame, the white light rising. Even that white light in all its dimension culminates in wisdom's ray in the crown chakra of our Father, Alpha, and the focus of the seven Holy Kumaras within the crown chakras of the children of the light.

Therefore, if you think that the white flame brings its initiations, beloved ones, I tell you that when the mind of the Buddha and the mind of the Christ and the true teachings that will liberate all life are published abroad—so piercing, so penetrating, so all-powerful in their penetration—I tell you, this is the ultimate offense because it is the ultimate reality against which the fallen ones have no defense whatsoever.

And in the face of that Cosmic Christ illumination, not merely in the spoken or the printed Word but in the presence of the living Son of God, the fallen ones have no choice but to slink into the night or to take the alternative (perish the thought!) to crucify, to murder the Son of God. Either they themselves must go down or they must see to it that the bearer of that bright love must be no more.

Thus is the tale of martyrs and of Thomas More, twice told. Again and again, sons of light have come. When they have embodied the fullness of the light, either they have taken flight to the Mount Zion or they have remained, offering their very body and blood in the crucifixion, for an acceleration of the judgment and the acceleration of the resurrection.

Now understand why we have placed such emphasis upon the first and the seventh rays. In the beginning and in the ending of the seven, Alpha and Omega, you discover the foundation of the community of the Holy Spirit with the violet flame, with the blue lightning of the mind of God, and with the very bursting white fire of the Mother in the midst and the chelas in the midst.

There is a structural foundation for the delivery not only of the Word but of the avatars, of the ten thousand and one of the Christed ones.¹ Then when we release wisdom's flame, it is protected within community, within the family, within the heart, with our bands reinforced over and over by the thousands and the numberless numbers.

The First of the Seven Candles of the Seven Holy Kumaras

Thus, my beloved, all of the illumination that has gone before, vast in its store of God-wisdom, is, as it were, the first of the seven candles of the seven Holy Kumaras. The wisdom that has gone before has concerned itself largely with the building of that structure that could contain the glorious light, the building of the identity of your very soul, the uniting of your soul within your being with Alpha and Omega to make you whole.

Understand, then, that with the era of the dawn of illumination's flame is the omnipotence of the omniscience of God to consume, by its very omnipresent love in the ruby ray, all error and those who bear the distressing signals of error and the erroneous consciousness of the fallen ones.

These distressing signals that come to you by the journals of the day or the media or by gossip or the unspoken contempt of the betrayers, one and all these must be swallowed up by the golden flame of illumination, with its penetrating sacred fire. The greatness of that light and of its power is scarcely known to you, but in this hour I come to declare to you that this is indeed the hour when you may claim the extraordinary light of the second-ray masters and cosmic beings, Buddhas and Christs, illumined ones—all of whom are at your service inasmuch as you are in the service of the Great White Brotherhood and of light and life and the path of the ascension.

It is on the very firm foundation of the second ray of the sons of God that the Lord has spoken the Word, “Vengeance is mine; I will repay. Thus saith the Lord.”² The line of victory is the line of illumination, and victory’s illumination is the swallowing up of the revenge of Serpent and his seed. Do not forget it. For it is a mighty sword, indefatigable in its work for the light. And my angels also are untiring, unceasing, indefatigable in their mighty grace.

Thus, by the grace of illumination’s flame, let the Word go forth that is the undoing of every erroneous statement, every false claim, all that is untrue. And let the violet flame and let the mighty flame of the will of God be the bright light of Alpha and Omega to hold firm and strong the community, even the clipper ship of the Guru and his chelas, until that hour when the ramming of the fallen ones does cease and the sea is calm and the land is still and elemental life are once again at peace.

Have Compassion upon Elemental Life

My beloved hearts, all of elemental life upon the planetary body are disturbed when the chelas of the light are assailed. When there is the threatening of the path of initiation by the fallen ones, you can feel the vibration of the elementals in the air. They are children, and yet they are mighty beings. They are distressed, for they know, almost more than those who are embodied, what are the consequences of the destruction of the path of Christed illumination upon earth.

Therefore, even the earthquakes of this week³ are an attempt by elemental life to rectify and to balance those outrageous claims made by those fallen ones, of whom it cannot be said, “They know not what they do.”⁴ For I tell you, the fallen ones know full well at levels of their being where they are one with the forces of hell that are entirely threatened, as Serapis has told you, by the Tree of Life and the flaming sword and the cherubim.⁵ Therefore, have compassion upon elemental life. Bring comfort to their altar. Give to them the violet flame and the certain knowing that God is victorious by his very mind in manifestation within you.

There is much work to be done to convey a true understanding of the teaching, and many of you have discovered that even when that teaching is conveyed, even when it is as plain as the plain truth, it is rejected because it threatens [those who are not ready to receive] the everlasting sacred fire of the light.

I Send You Forth with a Sword of Illumination’s Sacred Fire

My beloved children of the Sun, the anointing of the Buddhas and the Cosmic Christs is nigh. I send you forth with a sword of illumination’s sacred fire and the gentle omnipresence of the ruby ray.

Take care, then, to preserve your oneness and your community, that the Word of the Christed ones might be heard abroad in the land and that the individual bearer of the piercing light of the yellow ray, the golden light, might not be overcome in the way but might overcome—by the reinforcement of the entire body of God upon earth—all error and the erroneous doctrine and dogma of the fallen ones.

This is the intent of the mighty angels of the second ray, of the entire supporting company of the seven archangels and Archangel Uzziel of the eighth ray and all who serve the wisdom ray. And all who serve that ray are the entire Spirit of the Great White Brotherhood, for all serve that ray as the culmination of life and consciousness.

It is therefore our intent, as God wills it so and as the chelas will it so, to so press into the earth the sacred fire of the yellow ray that ere one century has passed, the erroneous doctrines and dogmas of Serpent and his seed shall have passed into the flame and earth and her evolutions that remain will know of the glorious light and opportunity that Moses declared when he spoke, “Ye are gods”⁶ and when the Lord Christ declared when he said, “I am the resurrection and the life.”⁷ “He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness but shall have the light of life.”⁸

Only Life as God Can Destroy Death and Swallow It Up

Beloved ones, the light of life is transferred to those who embody the true teaching that we have brought. I bow before El Morya and Saint Germain and the chohans of the rays, who have nourished the light, the teaching, and the community so that we might come and find here, solid and secure, a base for the release of the most tremendous wisdom and teaching that the world has ever known.

This teaching must come forth if the golden age is to come. This teaching must come forth. And when it comes forth, my beloved, ere the entire momentum of human error is consumed, watch—watch and pray. For Serpent and his seed will pit their error against the flaming ones of illumination and truth and justice until one or the other is consumed.

Thus it becomes the battle of the will. It is the will of God within the chelas that will prevail. No other will can prevail against the fallen ones, for theirs is the will unto the death. And unless that death be reversed upon those who send it forth, it is laid upon the lightbearers themselves.

Thus the line is drawn, and the confrontation, and the extremes are present—life in the ultimate sense and death unto annihilation. There is no other will, save the will of death, that is stronger in the human consciousness. Only the will of life and the will of God is able to overturn it—not mere human willing or wishing; not the variance of misapplied Law.

Aside, then, from the manifestation of the life of Almighty God, we find prevalent in the earth, as the messenger has told you, the momentums of death. Only life as God can destroy death and swallow it up! And only the second ray of the Cosmic Christ is able to lay before the entire earth that teaching that refutes every lie, point by point, of the long road of death that the fallen ones have placed before humanity. There they have bidden them enter, and many have followed. They have followed the Four Horsemen of war and famine and plague and death itself. They do not understand that the Four Horsemen are the initiators of mankind in the returning karma of that which they themselves have put forth in the world.⁹

These four momentums of anti-life can be destroyed by the Great Destroyer, the Holy Ghost, by the ruby ray and the violet flame, by the white fire of the Mother, by the blue lightning and cosmic purity of the mind of God, by immortal truth, by peace, by enlightenment. But the final death blow is the culmination of all of the rays in the ascending spiral, when the crown chakra within you bursts forth. Then and only then is death swallowed up in the victory of the Cosmic Christ consciousness.

The Joy of Hope in Wisdom and Wisdom’s Light

I AM Jophiel Archangel. With me is my Beloved and so many legions of the LORD. And all who have attained throughout earth and her history and her evolutions, by the grace of the seven Holy Kumaras of the wisdom flame, do hear my Word and send to you the joy of hope—hope in wisdom and wisdom’s light in the Mother, hope in wisdom anchored in the heart and mind and soul of every chela.

Let, therefore, the light swallow up the darkness. Let not the light or the lightbearers retreat but let them stand firm—firm and replete with Victory! Victory! Victory! I AM illumination's flame! I AM Illumina in action! I AM Elohim in action! I AM illumination in manifestation in the earth through my beloved, your most blessed self.

I AM here, and I begin to increase the yellow diamond fire of the mind of God sealed in the crown by Apollo. Increase I shall, by the Word that you tell, by the decree that is manifest, and by the all-consuming love of the heart.

I thank you and bid you a glorious day of the appearing in the mind of God.
