The Dispensation of the Ascension of the One You Call Lanello

You have seen these elements reflected in President Sadat, in Prime Minister Begin,² in other heads of state, in leaders in all fields. You have seen, if you have been perceptive, a certain penetration of the people worldwide with a common sense unique to Lanello, a directness for peace and an exposing of the obvious, the uncomplicating of the simple, which the fallen ones have made complex in many areas. The thrust of the sword of the knight of old has pierced the snarls of ignorance and deceit, even malice practiced against children, governments, and the economies of nations.

There is a new alertness and a keenness in many. There is hope across the planetary body. There is an awareness of life that there would not have been without the attainment in the earth and then the ascension of Lanello. His causal body is a key, and with that key the causal bodies of many saints have been unlocked. Within his own, others have manifested. Many spheres within spheres, then, have formed a giant molecule of light interpenetrating Terra and her atmosphere. And thus unbeknownst to many, the children of the light on earth have imbibed the very sacred fire breath of the saints who have gone before.

The dispensation of the ascension of the one you call Lanello has been a point of integration for souls who have been evolving with earth for the last quarter million years. In the physical earth, the causal body of the Mother has likewise sustained the forcefield throughout the planetary body, which has held the key for the causal bodies of unascended chelas to also be applied to the needs of lifestreams and communities and families.

Thus, by the witness Above and below of the messengers and the supporting company of saints, many seeds are in the

The Torchbearer in the Earth Establishes the Inner Retreat

Part 1

The torch of the Mother illumines the night, and without the torch the children cannot see the way to go.

Therefore, long ago I elected to be the torchbearer in the earth. By my light many have crossed from the dark shore to the golden shore. Many have come, for they have seen the light from afar. It has guided souls and ships and nations and lifewaves.

We, the emissaries of cosmic justice to the earth, address you from the Temple of the Sun.¹ We send forth the light of the seven rays of the causal body of Lanello. This celebration of that light accelerating unto God and decelerating into the hearts of devotees in the earth has been and is the superimposing of his causal body upon the planetary body of earth.

This seven-year cycle, then, is a great key. For the Ever-Present Guru* has set the forcefield of his attainment for the alignment of the spheres within spheres of the four lower bodies of the earth, and all evolving upon this planetary body have in some measure, as they have been able to receive it, taken in elements of his consciousness and love and light and purity.

*Lanello is often referred to as the Ever-Present Guru.

earth germinating, ready to sprout in the spring, coaxed by the warmth of the sun and the resurrection flame.

There is a time for sowing. There is a time when seeds unseen are pressing through and beginning to muster the will of a cosmic performance. There is a time when those who plant must tend their plantings, and then there is a time when the plants are strong and they are able to grow without the original hands by which life in them was begun. There is the summertime of life, when the fields are green and billowing and full. There is the harvest, and there is the long silence of the great nirvana.

If the Planet Is to Accelerate,
Then More Light, More Light, Is the Word

And so, my beloved, we who read the signs and the cycles have promised our report for this day and date. We come that you might understand how intricate is cosmic law—as intricate as a crystal, as simple as a snowflake.

The mind of Elohim, interpenetrating all of cosmos, does sustain within infinite spheres time-space continuums whereby evolutions such as these, in whose midst you find yourselves, might by free will work out the problem of being, which after all is no problem at all but only for those who have not perceived the essence of their own Be-ness. This lack of perception of the essence of Be-ness seems to be the isolated problem of life upon earth. And yet the veil is not lifted, and even the chelas of the light have not yet beheld the fullness of that God who is their very own identity.

Serapis Bey, son of light, son of Sanat Kumara, has come³ that you might understand that often [planetary] transition is the result of a transmutation that is invoked. If the planet is to accelerate, then more light, more light, is the Word. And since you have heard that Word and invoked more light, we must then deal with the equation of the effect—physically, mentally, on the astral and etheric planes—of the result of more light.

Understand that we who keep the watch on planetary cycles of karma and personal karmic initiations, though we may see distant cycles fulfilling themselves in the now and in the future, also see shorter spirals punctuating the wider spirals of cosmic destiny. There are certain karmic conditions that have been held in abeyance since pre-Lemurian life, since the sinking of the continent of Lemuria, since Atlantis, and all that has taken place both on the surface and within the earth.

We who read and write understand clearly that there are cosmic cycles unerring when, if a planetary body is to accelerate for a golden age, these ancient coils of darkness must come to the fore either to be outplayed once more or to be consumed by the sacred fire invoked by initiates of the sacred fire. And I stress the word “initiates,” for there are conditions that require intense transmutation. We would not leave these in the hands of mere disciples, for these conditions are concentrated vortices of anti-God affecting the planet, the solar system, and beyond.

Therefore we have called Serapis Bey to prepare an extraordinary body of lightbearers—a company, a legion, yea, an army who would carry such sacred fire within the heart, who would be so unmoved by the extraordinary conditions surrounding the dealing with such vortices, such dragons, if you will, that these souls of light could then be those intense electrodes who by their very light and dedication should indeed hold the balance in transition.

Lanello’s Presence, His Call, and His Word
Have Reached Far and Wide in the Earth

For twenty-two years Lanello has stood the messenger in the earth and then in heaven, and so has come the Mother of the Flame. His presence, his call, and his word have reached far and wide in the earth. Many who could have responded have not, for they did not consider the urgency of the message or even perhaps the validity of the messenger. Thus there comes a moment when the Karmic Board must assess in the now the results of our effort through the messenger on the earth and accelerating in the seven-year cycle [since Lanello's ascension]. Therefore we look and we read what are the results of his dispensation.

We see, therefore, that any number of initiates do now stand in the earth. No small number of these can we count upon for the holding of the balance. As we weigh the light that these initiates contain and we weigh the balance of world karma in the Dark Cycle⁴—and we must subtract, then, those souls who have not hearkened to the Word but rather to other priorities—we must say that even from our level, with all of the information available to us, we cannot predict with certainty cataclysm, yes or no, its manifestation or its holding back. We show you, then, the almost uncontrollable nature of the rains that have rained upon this area, yet they were not uncontrolled but directed so carefully by elemental life and from the retreat of Cuzco.⁵

Thus, the conditions of karma and of the judgment that have produced even such minor cataclysm can be calculated by us. But then we must also contend with the manipulation of karma in the Dark Cycle through the entrenched practices of black magic and witchcraft, necromancy, and Satanism in satanic rite. These practices, beloved, are carried on knowingly and unknowingly. Those who carry them out unknowingly are subject to the stimuli of the media, of unseen forces with which you are all too familiar, with emotions that rise and fall as quickly as the tides of the storm. Thus there are many factors that come to bear upon minor and major cataclysm.

The Amalgamation of Islands of Darkness on the Eastern Seaboard

We, therefore, in our deliberations, consider it imperative that Keepers of the Flame accelerate Saint Germain's Mission Amethyst Jewel⁶ to the farthest reaches of this nation and abroad. We also consider that it is necessary for certain cells of light to consolidate and to reinforce one another, for we understand the law of the Central Sun Magnet.

Sometimes three or four small groups uniting into one central focus can mean more to the holding of the balance in the earth than those separate groups, even though they may be important in the short run to their respective communities. In the long run, when continents and nations are at stake, it is often advisable that the smaller islands of light amalgamate and form a greater island.

As we speak to you, we are concerned with the amalgamation of islands of darkness on the Eastern Seaboard. We have therefore advised our messenger (by way of a memorandum to the Darjeeling Council) that the focus of the New York Teaching Center* be moved to the city of Philadelphia, there to reinforce the flame of love and freedom nourished by Saint Germain and the early patriots of this nation.

The flame of liberty that burns on within that city must yet be fully liberated. It is the flame of my torch. It is the light of the Temple of the Sun. It is the thrust of the will for the signing of that Declaration of Independence that yet rings in the hearts of freedom lovers the world around, for it establishes the consciousness of freedom and the inalienable rights of the son under the Father, of man under God.

The self-evident truths of this liberty are not so much proven by empiricism as by the innate logic of the Word—the Word that is the Person of every son of God. Thus, we assign that outpost of light for a most important service, inner and outer, much as we have established on the West Coast key centers for the holding of the balance in this hour.

I would report to you, beloved ones, that our decision is in no way related to the psychic predictions of those psychics who seem to feel the necessity in every decade of pronouncing the destruction of cities and coastlines. How easily they commit their word, and how the panic flows. So often they do err. One would think that they would refrain from so committing themselves. We will not give psychic predictions, but we send forth the flame of prophecy.

Thus, the prophecy of light includes the consuming of darkness. And when individuals do not surrender their darkness gladly, lovingly, and freely, then, my beloved, elemental life go forth under the direction of the Lord of the World, of the Maha Chohan, who implement the edicts of the Karmic Board, and they have the assignment of seizing from individuals and communities that darkness that must go into the flame on schedule. And that which is not surrendered voluntarily must then be taken by the emissaries of God, who then have the good karma that should have accrued, by the logical exercise of free will, to those individuals who stood most to benefit by that joyous surrender. This is what you have seen take place.

Unfortunately, a number of souls made their transition through the conditions of the recent storm. Beloved ones, in each and every case they had in this embodiment the opportunity to study the teachings of the ascended masters, to take up the science of the spoken Word, to invoke the violet flame, and thereby to continue to live in this life. It is unfortunate that when the Law descends, it must descend.

There are individuals within these rooms who live today because they have responded to the Path and thereby averted the ultimate karma of transition. There are individuals here whose allotted span has been lengthened not once but twice because of service and because the LORD had need of them to maintain the flame in this earth.

Indeed, the Path is governed by man's exercise of free will, and so is the planet in time of planetary changes. The free will of lightbearers and those who are men and women of goodwill is far more predictable than the free will of those who are not aligned with their God Presence or illumined by the fire of love.

During her embodiment upon Atlantis, the Goddess of Liberty erected the Temple of the Sun where Manhattan Island now is, patterning it after the Solar Temple in the Great Central Sun. The central altar was dedicated to the threefold flame of the liberty of the Christ, which proceeds from the white-fire core of Being focused by beloved Alpha and Omega. This shrine was surrounded by twelve lesser shrines attended by representatives of the solar hierarchies who, together with the Goddess of Liberty, invoked on behalf of the evolutions of the earth the spiritual radiation of the Sun behind the sun. Just prior to the sinking of Atlantis, the Goddess of Liberty transported the liberty flame enshrined at the temple to a place of safety in another retreat of the Great White Brotherhood, the Château de Liberté in southern France. When Atlantis went down in cataclysm, the Temple of the Sun was withdrawn to the etheric octave, and the activities of the Brotherhood of Liberty continue at the etheric plane where the physical temple once stood. (See The Masters and Their Retreats, pp. 484–85.) (2) In President Sadat, in Prime Minister Begin. Anwar Sadat (1918–1981) was the third president of Egypt from October 15, 1970, until his assassination by the Egyptian Islamic Jihad on October 6, 1981. Menachem Begin (1913–1992) served as prime minister of Israel from 1977 to 1983. Sadat and Begin signed the Egypt-Israel Peace Treaty on March 26, 1979, in Washington, D.C., in the presence of President Jimmy Carter, formally ending decades of conflict and establishing diplomatic ties. Sadat and Begin were awarded the Nobel Peace Prize as a result of this landmark treaty. (3) Serapis Bey has come. See Pearl of Wisdom, this volume, no. 6. (4) The Dark Cycle began on April 23, 1969, and marked the beginning of the cycle of the intensification of the return of karma. In this period of transition from the Piscean to the Aquarian age, the Great Law requires that the evolutions of planet Earth deal directly with the momentums of personal and planetary karma set aside for centuries by the grace of God through his Sons incarnate (i.e., Jesus Christ and other avatars). In the face of the same propensity for darkness prevalent before the Flood, when “the wickedness of man was great in the earth” and “every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually,” (Gen. 6:5) the Lords of Karma decreed this action in order to deter an even greater abuse of life’s opportunity and to forestall that cataclysm, which may be the ultimate consequence of the rising tide of world sin. On August 20, 1969, the messengers explained that “the coming of the Dark Cycle simply means that the hand of mercy that for centuries has stood between mankind and their own dark deeds has been withdrawn. The law of God will bring swift and compelling judgment to those who have thought they could flaunt the Law.” “Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.” (Gal. 6:7) The Dark Cycle concluded on April 22, 2002. (5) From the retreat of Cuzco. The retreat of Surya and Cuzco is known as “The Sacred Retreat of the Blue Flame,” located near Suva, the capital of the Fiji chain in the South Pacific. This retreat is in an island northeast of Viti Levu (the largest of the Fiji Islands) and is both under the sea and within the mountains. This focus of the God Star, Sirius, on earth was founded by the cosmic being Surya, who was in charge of the retreat when the third and fourth root races came into embodiment on the continent of Mu in the location of the Fiji Islands, which were then among the highest mountain ranges of the entire continent of Lemuria. The flame focus is of the power of love, an intense blue lined with pink. It is the action of this flame that enables the ascended master Cuzco, the hierarch of the retreat, to hold the balance of the magnetic forcefield of the poles of the earth. The focus of this flame from Sirius, including the magnetic field of the God Star, enables the hierarch, with the assistance of scientific instruments and computers, to keep the planet Earth in its exact orbit around the sun. These precision instruments are sensitive to the slightest raising or lowering of the light patterns of the earth and make the necessary adjustments for atomic explosions or the weight of human effluvia that rises and falls, either of which might put the earth out of its orbit. Beloved Cuzco has legions of white-fire, pink-flame and blue-lightning angels in his command. They maintain an entire city in the island under the ocean. The entrance to the underground complex is through a building on the island’s surface, and there are branches of the retreat in several of the nearby islands. (See The Masters and Their Retreats, pp. 465–67.) (6) Saint Germain’s Mission Amethyst Jewel. In a dictation given on November 19, 1978, Saint Germain inaugurated Mission Amethyst Jewel when he called for centers to be established in Vancouver, British Columbia, and Mexico City as “that point of light for the bulwark of freedom” and for the “guarding of North America.” On April 14, 1979, the messenger explained Mission Amethyst Jewel as “Saint Germain’s commitment to send chelas to the nations of the earth, beginning with the most important cities. . . . Mission Amethyst Jewel is based upon the principle of the violet flame burning within the heart of the chela. The chela is the jewel, and as chelas place themselves together as atoms that become molecules that form outer centers, the Mission Amethyst Jewel becomes crystallized.”
