

Beloved Sanat Kumara

There Are Temples to Be Built Part 1

Most beloved ones of light, I bring the flame of the seven Holy Kumaras. I bring the light that emits from the mind of God. I come, as you have called me.

So I AM the Ancient of Days, and I come with the single purpose of reinforcing the presence of our seven planes of consciousness, our seven flames and modes of service within you, within the messenger, within every child of light in the earth. (Won't you be seated that we might accelerate this light in you.)

Our attention is focused, with the Karmic Board, on an overview of events of this century of service of the Great White Brotherhood and of course of the mission of our messengers and of your own dear lifestreams. Heaven is immensely satisfied with those whose own satisfaction of the requirements of the Law has given to us souls upon whom we can count to implement the divine plan.

There Are Temples to Be Built

Part 1

Most beloved ones of light, I bring the flame of the seven Holy Kumaras. I bring the light that emits from the mind of God. I come, as you have called me.

So I AM the Ancient of Days, and I come with the single purpose of reinforcing the presence of our seven planes of consciousness, our seven flames and modes of service within you, within the messenger, within every child of light in the earth. (Won't you be seated that we might accelerate this light in you.)

Our attention is focused, with the Karmic Board, on an overview of events of this century of service of the Great White Brotherhood and of course of the mission of our messengers and of your own dear lifestreams. Heaven is immensely satisfied with those whose own satisfaction of the requirements of the Law has given to us souls upon whom we can count to implement the divine plan.

Gautama Buddha reviews also the conditions within the ten-year cycle.¹ And so in the very midst of acceleration of light, there is also the flushing out of darkness, which must not be interpreted to be the sign of defeat but only of that which is being washed, and thoroughly washed, for a greater day that is oncoming.

We submit to every disciple of our flame the opening and the widening of cosmic opportunity, and so it is that this decade does bring the eighth-ray initiations, which you have scarcely begun to understand. An inner retreat of disciplined ones in the physical octave has long been on our agenda, for we cannot mix the inner and the outer—those who have come newly from the world who do not yet know whether or not they will take up the fullness of the responsibility that the Path presents, and those who, being a part of a cosmic stream not always even evident to themselves, rejoice in the sacred labor and keep their eye upon the Lamb.

I am calling to those who follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth,² for we will not send communiqués coaxing our lambkins into the fold. They must know the way to go, for they must have become the Way to qualify for the acceleration of that Way.

We Occupy Ourselves with the Building and with the Builders

Do not lose sight of the Guru, and the Guru will not lose sight of you. Eye to eye, let the glances shared be the confirmation that love is indeed the cord that binds across the octaves, interpenetrating the planes.

Love—love that meditates upon the beloved—is the only safety in all the universe. There is no danger to those who love, for they dwell in love forevermore. Having therefore stated the resolution of the contingencies here and there, we occupy ourselves with the building and with the builders.

There are temples to be built, temples made without hands.³ They come forth out of the meditation of the initiate. But there are also temples to be built with hands. Thousands of souls of light will come into this activity in this decade, and the necessary and secure places must be provided. Even now, as you can well understand, we are not satisfied with the facilities of this location, and we are also concerned regarding the great difficulty of overcoming the levels of opposition that have been aroused by those who do not mean well but truly mean to destroy the foundation of our light.⁴ But they cannot, and they only bring upon themselves the unfortunate destruction of those who imitate the path of Shiva.⁵

We, however, are also committed to consider the practicalities of life. We expect our representatives in the earth to also consider these and to make wise decisions, practical decisions, and to take into consideration the flow of events. God has purposed each one of you to a mighty purpose, and God is indeed in control of that purpose.

There are individuals and geographical locations that have been ordained, some for transition and some for a more permanent acquisition and activity of light. The long trek in the wilderness is the means whereby those who endure the testing may be the ones to inherit the Promised Land.

We then would see those who are prepared to teach the Word go forth and teach the Word—those whom we have ordained to preach to go forth and preach it. We would see those who are called to be publishers of the Word to come forth and join the publishing arm of our movement. And we would see those who are ordained to provide the forcefield of survival for the incoming race set themselves to that task, understanding that without them, all of the others who are extensions of our multifaceted activity have not the assurance of the continuing base—that home base that is the comfort of every servant of the light. Your home base is the God Star. Even in that is the comfort of your pilgrimage here.

Now then, as we align the arms of the cross within the world itself, we designate and we position the forcefields that are necessary for the inner and the outer service of our chelas that is necessary and that must be fulfilled for all that should come to pass ere the victory is won.

The Light Released by the Seven Holy Kumaras Becomes an Electrode to Increase Freedom

The rose of the Lady Venus, the golden pink rose, which she bears from the heart of Helios and Vesta, is the wisdom-love of your heart one with the heart of God. The Lady Venus, who tarries in the earth, has come to place that rose upon the altar of your heart, twin buds for twin flames and the blending of the gold and the pink in the secret love star. [28-second pause]

The seven Holy Kumaras have released their light and sealed it in an inner electrode neath the crown chakra of the children of the light who are a part of the evolutions of earth, from those on the physical plane through the highest levels of the etheric plane, unascended.

The light is sealed, encapsulated. It cannot be interfered with or misused by any consciousness that is beneath the vibration of the God consciousness. It becomes an electrode to increase freedom—freedom in the mind, independence in the mind.

There is a spiral emitting from this microscopic forcefield of light. It begins to turn, radiating and emanating—through the mental body and the very brain itself—an energy unique from the very nucleus of the I AM Presence. It is an energy and a dispensation that has not been given in this manner to the evolutions of earth. It is transmitted because of the ungodly mass manipulation of the minds and the brains of the people of earth.

The Enslavement of Humanity

This manipulation has caused the enslavement of humanity and the limitation of their expression as well as their interaction with the mind of God. It has been carried on scientifically and methodically by the fallen ones—those in embodiment, those on the astral plane, and those who have come periodically from other systems of worlds in their spaceships to take advantage of the lesser development of this particular lifewave.

This interference with the spiritual evolution of the livewaves of earth, from the extraterrestrial individuals as well as from the fallen ones, has been a principal reason that earth's evolutions have not responded or accelerated into their God-capacity.

Their manipulation has consisted of placing wedges within the very structure of the four lower bodies to block the flow from the heart to the head and from the head to the heart. This explains the nondevelopment of the heart chakra, the overdevelopment of the brain, and the consequent psychological problems, the distortions, and the imbalance in millions upon millions now inhabiting the earth.

Though we have been aware of this activity for aeons, it was the karma of earth's evolutions as well as the absence of sufficient numbers of lightbearers that made it difficult for the emissaries of the cosmic councils of ascended masters to intercede. It was also necessary that certain cycles of solar systems and galaxies and the cycles of the judgment of the fallen ones be fulfilled.

Our coming to this earth was an original mission to counteract this manipulation, which had brought the lifewave here to such a low manifestation. You who came with me volunteered to enter life in the dense bodies already interfered with by the fallen ones. Thus though you knew the darkness, you really did not know how dark was that darkness.

It is one thing to offer to evolve through primitive life. It is another to offer to incarnate knowing the impairment of the vehicles—the vehicles that could be offered through the procreative process of that lifewave. Thus, you have walked by faith for many lifetimes, for faith bypasses the necessity of full conscious awareness of the Presence of God and his laws.

Astral Conditions and Conditioning

With the removal of the teachings from the sacred scriptures and with this manipulation, you can see that the burning light of faith and your obedience to our representatives has brought you, beloved ones, to this moment where I could bring to you the awareness of this mass mechanization and shed more light as I lift the veil on just how extensive is that mechanization first revealed by the Great Divine Director.⁶

Some of you have been astonished to hear of the manipulation and mechanization now present in society and in education. You are among the comparatively few who are aware of the facts presented in our manifestos.⁷ You are among the few who have been able to face these facts fearlessly, because God dwells in you.

Yet these facts are material facts. I speak of astral conditions and conditioning. I speak of manipulations that go far beyond several hundred years of a conspiracy. I speak of manipulations that have manifested in the distant past, which already affect this lifewave. By these manipulations the lifewaves of earth have been reduced to their present state of imbalance.

Thus you also, functioning in the midst of this lifewave, have learned to accept the conditions in which you find yourselves. Not having an outer recollection of your former state of a vastly increased Christ consciousness anchored in the physical, you have not quite been aware in this life of the loss that you have suffered through the many embodiments.

Understand, then, that by your present awareness you perceive. And I am telling you that your present awareness is not what it should be or what it could be, due to this very fact of manipulation. There are few who can deal with manipulation on a national scale, and fewer on a planetary scale.

But now I come and I ask you to consider the manipulations of systems of worlds and of galaxies themselves. I ask you to see yourselves as my very own, who once knew of the Fallen One and of a conspiracy that was system wide.

I am asking you to consider that just beyond your present capacity to perceive—by your senses, by your chakras, and by your minds and hearts—you individually have a higher consciousness that is so vast that if it were possible to lower that consciousness through your present vehicles, you would see that the victory would be far more real, far more accessible, and you would trust it and you would pursue it. I ask you to understand that the God that you are interpenetrates even the physical being that you manifest, that under normal conditions of spiritual evolution you would even now be aware of a more vast consciousness.

"The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom." This previously unpublished dictation by Sanat Kumara was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Tuesday, February 26, 1980, during the "Education of the Heart" seminar held at Camelot, Los Angeles County, California. Part 2 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 10. Any books listed in the following endnotes are published by Summit University Press and are by Mark L. Prophet and/or Elizabeth Clare Prophet unless otherwise noted. Books, audio, and video products are available at Store.SummitLighthouse.org. The widest selection of audio files, including dictations, is available at AscendedMasterLibrary.org. (1) The ten-year cycle. See Pearl of Wisdom, this volume, no. 8, n. 9. (2) Rev. 14:4. (3) See Acts 7:48. (4) Those who truly mean to destroy the foundation of our light. On December 28, 1979, the messenger explained that since the organization arrived at Camelot on July 4, 1978, "we have found that a number of people covet this property, including the federal government of the United States, the state government of California, private citizens, and interest groups." The State of California intended to purchase the property to be used as a cemetery. The National Park Service wanted to use Camelot as a recreation area and its buildings for park headquarters. Further opposition came from Concerned Citizens for Property Rights and from Los Angeles County, who planned on developing new zoning ordinances dictating what portions of the property should be used for what purposes. The messenger said, "El Morya has told us that . . . we're not fighting for a patch of earth. We're fighting for freedom and the right to be free and the right to worship as we see fit." Although no new structures were built on the property, and despite the opposition, the organization stood its ground and the property of Camelot remained intact until it was sold in 1986. (5) Those who imitate the path of Shiva. Sanat Kumara is explaining that those who come as the destroyers of the light are imitating the path of Shiva, the Third Person of the Trinity, who is the dissolver or destroyer of all that is not of the light, whereas the imitators of Shiva seek to destroy the light itself and its foundation on earth. (6) That mechanization first revealed by the Great Divine Director is referring to a series of twenty-four Pearls of Wisdom dictated by the Great Divine Director to Mark L. Prophet in 1965 entitled "The Mechanization Concept: A Manifesto by the Great Divine Director," which were published in the 1965 Volume Eight bound volume of Pearls of Wisdom and republished in book form in 1980 under the title The Soulless One: Cloning a Counterfeit Creation. It was in these Pearls that the Great Divine Director first revealed that there are in embodiment on earth "strange creatures . . . seemingly intelligent beings not created by God, however, but by advanced scientists on other systems of worlds." The Great Divine Director has also referred to these beings as "simulated man" and "mechanization man." (7) Our manifestos refer to a series of exposé lectures delivered by Elizabeth Clare Prophet entitled Mother's Manifesto, including such lectures as "The Religious Philosophy of Karl Marx and the Economic Philosophy of Jesus Christ," and "Marijuana: The Death Drug." See Pearl of Wisdom, this volume, no. 6, n. 4, for a full list of the lectures.
