The Message of the Stars: Nine Buddhas Step Forth from Nirvana

*Release of the Thoughtform of the Year:
The Bluebird of Happiness Bearing the Message of the Christ Incarnate*

Part 2

Your gratitude ought to be as boundless as cosmos itself, and your sense of co-measurement with Mother ought to be so very intimate.

The gratitude you ought to feel is that the messenger receives the impulses from Alpha as to what calls to make and does make those calls, and then for you to quickly realize, by your intimate co-measurement with Mother, that you yourself may receive from God daily the instruction to make specific calls in fulfillment of the promise, "Before they call, I have answered."¹

For you see, God requires the call, but he is the creator of the call and therefore his answer is prepared even before he sends the signal to the son of God to give the call. What a loving Father, who prepares for us the way, the truth, and the life!

Be a Part of Me, and Be at the Right Place in the Cosmic Cycles

I say to the sinister force: Henceforth and forevermore, you have no power! Your day is done by the sign of the cross of the Guru and her chelas, by the sign of Shamballa and the coming of Maitreya, by the sign of the heart of my chelas—hearts that contain the living Word of Sanat Kumara!

I say to the false hierarchy of this earth, this system of worlds and this galaxy: You are finished! Your day is done! Our legions are on the march merely for the cleanup!

I, Gautama Buddha, am the binding power of Alpha incarnate in the messenger. And by my right hand, I AM the perpetual presence for the locking of malintent—locking and binding, confining, and reducing every sinister moment upon the planet and in the hearts of the wicked.

Cosmic hosts, strip them by the right hand of the Lord of the World in this hour, now multiplied by the nine new Buddhas, now multiplied by the Electronic Presence, multiplied by the threefold flame and the call in the hearts of our chelas.

Henceforth, every devotee of Christ and Buddha, every prayer and mantra and chant will be multiplied by the power of my heart and the heart of the nine Buddhas. And therefore you will see that it is Cosmic Christ illumination from the lighthouse tower that is each one's own heart whereby these fallen ones shrink into the shadow and the blackness forever of their own human creation.

I say, my beloved, in all of your wisdom garnered by the experience of action in the Word, confirm my statement daily and know that you are the power of its fulfillment on earth as in heaven and I AM the fulfillment of that Word in you by the flame of Shamballa and my Electronic Presence.

Therefore, fulfill all things lovingly and with great cosmic attunement. Mind the hours, the signs of this world and the signs of the heavens. Mark well what is being projected on the screen of life by the fallen ones in the economies of the nations, the international gangsters that are everywhere about. They will reveal and stand self-revealed as to what they have determined to bring to pass on the planet. Take note of it, reverse it, bind it in my name, and accommodate your own position in Matter even as you would leap out of the way of an oncoming flood or an avalanche.

Step lightly and quickly, but be unmoved of heart. Be a part of me, and be at the right place in the cosmic cycles. The entire planetary body is yet subject to maya and to illusion. Thus, my beloved, until illusion and confusion are consumed by the sacred fire, it is important to not ignore or neglect the ramifications of the maya of war and the illusion of financial collapse. However unreal in all of its unreality, it can affect your life unless you are sealed in the cosmic blue egg of divine Reality.

Above All, Be Obedient to Your Christ Self and the Buddhas of the Flame

In all of your wisdom, then, do not be pessimistic and do not be overly optimistic concerning the physical octave, but be supremely realistic. This is why the Buddhas bring to you, through the chelas, knowledge of conditions that are yet affecting the course of events. Always balance this knowledge against the omnipotence of our Father, who can change anything at any time but will sometimes allow the courses of karma of the fallen ones that have been set in motion to play themselves out as a lesson of karmic law to all.

Since karma is not taught in the schoolbooks of the world, it must be taught by our Father before the very eyes of his children.

The wages of sin must be made plain, and karma as a living reality must be experienced.

Therefore, you see, God may change the course of the rivers of life. He may be able to, as he is able, but he may choose not to do so but rather to know that in the hearts of the faithful there is a faithful pulse and the word of conscience that will direct the souls of light out of harm's way.

Above all, be obedient to your Christ Self and the Buddhas of the flame. Be joyous and diligent and know that we will never predict negation or cataclysm. We will only counsel that the greatest preparedness is always the surest course for those who are the vanguard of light.

If all the world is in the astral sheath of hell and death itself, then follow the pathway of the deer and the fawn to higher ground and a rock that is secure. Simply put, in a world of maya there are better places than others, and we have reserved the best for our chelas.

The Buddhas in winter remind you of the white-fire snow that sharpens the mind and does something more—it crystallizes the etheric body within the physical. This is the single great salutary effect of the season of winter in the north country. As the snow precipitates out of the fire of higher octaves that is never seen, so the snow precipitates out of the etheric body. And the snowflake itself is a grid that bears fire and comes to rest in the mental, emotional, and physical bodies.

Thus, singing in the sun and the snow is a wonderful alchemy for the synthesis of the four lower bodies, and it makes for the ruggedness of individuality by which the worlds are conquered.

Let the True Message of This Nation Be Heard throughout This World

Our eye is on Washington, D.C., and the office of the president of the United States. Our eye is upon all those who surround that office and those who aspire to wear its mantle. Once again, we call upon the pillars of our chelas to continue with the taking up of the mantle of one of the offices in government and to keep the flame. For I tell you, beloved ones, not all are keepers of the flame who yet maintain the citadel of power in the throat chakra of the nation.*

Now I tell you that this particular assault upon this throat chakra of the messenger comes from the bearing of the karma and the extreme darkness of international espionage surrounding the federal government and infiltrating it in all branches. We consider infiltrators to be anyone that bears the philosophy of the party line of the fallen angels. They may consider themselves patriots and lovers of America, but if they are furthering the cause of world tyranny and the plans of the archdeceivers, then even the best among them are counted among the spoilers, the infiltrators, and the Watchers.

Let us keep the flame for the voice of America, the voice of the son of God, George Washington, the voice of the Woman and her seed. Let America's voice be strong in the world—America as the spirit of Uncle Sam in all of you. Let the true message of this nation, so loved and so endowed by Lord Confucius and Lord Lanto, be heard throughout this world by many avenues.

This is a fiat from my abode. I demand it of every part of the body of God, and I demand the voices of the night be silenced! I demand the espionage activities of the Soviet Union, Red China, and other enemy states in Washington be fully and finally disclosed in a national and international exposé that will force the custodians of liberty to act, to strip these fallen ones of their power, to strip their embassies of their electronic equipment and all of their manipulations through the media and their probings of almost every walk of life in this country.

These Marathons Will Mightily Assist Us in Binding the Oppressors

I AM Gautama Buddha, and I say to you in this first hour of the New Year that not in two thousand years until this very moment of 1983 have the ascended masters been so close physically to their own. Every word we speak, every fiat we make, and every dictation will therefore have a further concrete and physical effect, especially when it becomes the worded call of your own hearts.

I stress to you, then, that the agents of international communism, who have seated themselves with great pride and a certain absence of guardedness in the United Nations and other embassies of this country and the West, must also be exposed and bound physically by those who represent this government of this ascended master nation.

I say this as a mandate of the Lord of the World, which office I hold in the name of Sanat Kumara, and I say it as a dispensation from our Father, Alpha. Therefore in this vein it becomes a call that will be answered according to the desire of your hearts.

You were the ones who kept the flame of the vigil of the All-Seeing Eye of God, Cyclopea,² that resulted in the uncovering of the Watergate scandal and ultimately the resignation of Richard Nixon—something that has not occurred in the history of the United States with such intensity or deliberateness. By these marathons that you have given, many things have occurred on earth, some of which you know about, some of which you perhaps will not hear of until the turning of worlds. Conditions in China have been affected by the marathons you hold.

I hereby declare that any teaching center, study group, or circle of devotees anywhere may elect to hold a weekend marathon without prior notice or instruction from the messenger.

These marathons will mightily assist us in binding the oppressors, which is most important for the reinstituting of hope, of belief in Almighty God and his Laws in the very hearts of the people. It will assist mightily, as these exposés are made, these judgments are made, for the belief in the teachings of the messenger that are being published through our Heart magazine. Certain things that have taken place in the past several years, which you have also noted, have been open doors to a greater believability of karma, of the nature of extraterrestrials, of the fact of embodied fallen angels, of reincarnation, et cetera.

The Distasteful State of Consciousness Known as Unworthiness

Dearest ones of my heart, the gravest error any of you could make in the coming year is to lose your sense of self-importance—the importance of your God Presence incarnate through your heart and through your call and through your service.

Do not lose the perspective of yourself as a child of the cosmos, for whom that cosmos was created. Do not lose the perspective of the power of your heart call to my own or to beloved Alpha. Do not lose the perspective of the science of the spoken Word in an hour when it counts everything and all for the victory. Do not lose your sense of self-importance in the getting out of this magazine and all of our publications and the conclusion of our work among the nations.

For the moment you think that you do not count, that your call does not matter, and that you are of all people most insignificant, we will have lost a Buddha in Matter. We will have lost a Buddha in winter, in spring, in summer, and fall. We will have lost the open door to the octaves of earth. We will have lost our watch and a heart so precious.

On pain of actually entertaining a twinge of joyous self-esteem, I should rather you so indulge than to indulge in the endless and most distasteful state of consciousness known as unworthiness. It is as distasteful as the odors of the cities themselves to the angels who wing their way across the earth. For the stench of unworthiness filling the aura of a chela causes greater sorrow in the hearts of angels than any other state of consciousness.

I Weary Not to Say, “I Love You, I Love You, I Love You”

Thus, beloved ones, to tell you again and again—as many times as there are saints in heaven, sands on the seashore, and stars in the sky—that you are most beloved does not weary my soul. For I weary not to say, “I love you, I love you, I love you.”

The correction of the LORD is a reproof, like a sudden descent of miraculous flame that strips from you some little point that you thought was self-gain but was self-loss. Correction is over in a moment and frees you to be yourself and to rise to new self-esteem.

Trust us, then. Trust that we will do our part as you do your own, that we know what the morrow will bring. Therefore be almost carefree, and let your heart sing in the joy of knowing that God cares for you and will guide you and your families in the perfect way.

The Thoughtform for This Year

Now let us enjoy the stillness that yet surrounds the auras of the nine Buddhas from out of nirvana as we await the delivery of the thoughtform for this year.

A mighty angel of the LORD delivers to me a scroll. And upon it, performed in the magnificent artwork of a cosmic being and assisted by beloved Paul the Venetian, there is the image, as Above so below, of a bird of happiness, a bird of paradise that is intensely blue. The breast of the bird, much like the breast of a robin, is a ruby and rose, and beyond the breast translucent one sees the skillful designing of a threefold flame. It is like the bluebird of happiness. It is like the robin in spring that brings hope of a new season and new life, but it is an etheric bird that combines the qualities of both and more, for it sings the most beautiful song of heaven.

This thoughtform of the bird is a representation of Alpha himself, as Alpha would come closer to earth this year by releasing millions of these birds out of the etheric octave and into the physical.

The threefold flame of the heart is the sign that the bird bears the message of Christ incarnate to every child of God, and the threefold flame is the point of Alpha—Alpha's Spirit coming to the earth to comfort the people.

The bird is reminiscent of the dove that did not return after the Flood and of the rainbow of promise of a new day.³ The bird reminds one of the messengers of God from past ages and of all the archetypal virtues that the birds bring, such as the Eagle from Sirius.

Last but not least, this bird, with the image of the threefold flame behind the ruby breast, is a sign to elemental life that the hour is indeed coming when, because the sons of God all give devotion to that flame, the elementals may also gain a point of the Trinity and earn their immortality. The bird brings remembrance of blessed Jesus and the sign of his coming and of beloved Saint Francis and the cross that is formed in the air.⁴ The bird is a sign of hope that the souls of light may also fly and follow the currents to a place prepared.

This bluebird, with the rose and fiery ruby, has the yellow beak and little feet, completing a threefold flame. And the eyes that see so much is the eye of the watch bird watching you. The eyes, therefore, change as they respond to the auras of the people. And as one meditates upon these eyes, one also sees and remembers that the eye of the Virgin of Guadalupe contains all inside a message in itself and a confirmation of her appearance to Juan Diego.

Therefore, beloved, in the eye of the bird can be seen a mirror of nature, of heaven, of the soul, and even of the auras of the seed of the wicked. These birds throughout the world, who will speak to the souls of God's people, will warn, will comfort, will teach as a sign and a presence of their own Christ Self and the Buddhas.

It is Alpha's gift, and our Father does release now these birds from his heart. Millions fly through his cosmic heart and come, wise and almost as angels, thoughtforms of the mind of God. And what is so rare, beloved, is that Alpha in his own heart contains many millions of qualities. No two birds are alike. Millions of birds, each carrying a virtue—not as cut out of the same mold or cookie cutter, as you would say, of mechanization man, but each one is uniquely embracing a portion of Alpha's flame.

All Shall Return to the Mystical Body of the One

Thus, the thoughtform for the year 1983 is the single bird, as God is one, but in manifestation they are millions. Thus you may also understand, as the birds land on your shoulder, that you are also one, and worthy, and facets of the song of Alpha and Omega and the lullaby that the Cosmic Mother sings—one bird, and the many out of one, and the one out of many.

And when in the round of cycles these birds return to the heart of Alpha, they shall approach in a mighty V. But when they enter his heart, it shall be one bird entering the heart of Alpha. For all shall return to the mystical body of the One, the thoughtform itself. And it is true of elemental life, if you can understand the nature of the group soul.

So, my beloved, with great joy and with the Buddhas in our midst, we claim the earth free. We claim every nation, city, town, and home, every son of God free. It is a new birth of freedom, and it takes place as an extension of the five secret rays of all Buddhas and bodhisattvas, including yourselves serving earth's evolutions. Thus you will feel the freedom, the stripping of the fallen ones, the light of cosmos most intensely in the secret chamber of the heart and in the close fire-rings of the Central Sun, which are duplicated in the five secret rays around your heart.

Carefulness Is Gratefulness

Look, then, for the inner experience with the Great White Brotherhood in this year as you go within to come out again for the building of the Inner Retreat. To this cause I commend your utmost care, and I salute you this year as the careful ones. May you become so. May you be so known—careful ones—careful with my heart, careful with Mother's heart, careful with your own heart. For it is your life and the seat of your life in this octave.

I salute you as the careful ones, full of care for your Father and your Mother, full of care for Lanello and his work of the ages to lay the foundation of the teaching. I commend you as the careful ones who have the mastery of the Goddess of Liberty on the line of the [cosmic] clock that is seven, under the hierarchy of Leo.

Uncarefulness is ingratitude. Carefulness is gratefulness. Carefulness is appreciation for one another in the sense that one appreciates another's burden, another's sorrow, another's joy, another's pain, and cares enough to enter in and be one so that the soul be not alone that suffers, that the soul be not alone that rejoices—careful ones, caring for one another as you have never expressed your care before.

To the careful ones who fulfill all things according to the divine plan, I send love from Shamballa, from the Grand Teton,⁵ from the retreats of the Brotherhood, from everywhere upon earth where I have placed my Electronic Presence for the release of this message and other messages that are given at inner levels to the souls of the people.

I seal you in a garland of light and a lei of purity, and I bow before each one as the potential Buddha and the potential Mother. I contact infinity at the infinitesimal level of the matrix of your heart.

Behold, I see the Buddha before me. I see the Mother before me. I see you perfect. And I see you perfectly in the heart of Alpha. [16-second pause]

I AM Gautama, your love.

"The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom." This previously unpublished dictation by Gautama Buddha was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet early Sunday morning, January 1, 1983, during the New Year's conference, The Buddhas in Winter, held at Camelot, Los Angeles County, California. Part 1 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 21. Any books listed in the following endnotes are published by Summit University Press and are by Mark L. Prophet and/or Elizabeth Clare Prophet unless otherwise noted. Books, audio, and video products are available at Store.SummitLighthouse.org. The widest selection of audio files, including dictations, is available at AscendedMasterLibrary.org. [N.B. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] (1) Isa. 65:24. (2) The vigil of the All-Seeing Eye of God, Cyclopea. The vigil to Cyclopea, Elohim of the fifth ray, consists of giving decree 50.05, "Beloved Cyclopea, Beholder of Perfection," usually in multiples of 33 or 144, depending upon the desired length of the vigil. Cyclopea and Virginia have asked that their decree be given for the precipitation of divine vision and one's divine blueprint, for the healing of the nations, their economies, and their peoples, for the halting of the misuse of music, science, and technology, including genetic engineering and cloning, the counteracting of harmful viruses and microbes, the exposure of corruption and the agenda of the fallen ones. The messenger recommends that decrees to the violet flame be given as part of the vigil. On July 3, 1978, she explained, "There is an indispensable action of the violet flame that accompanies Cyclopea. So when you reach the intensity of the Cyclopea calls, then you push through with the intensity of the violet flame. So the violet-flame angels come along and they're sweeping away all the effluvia, and more and more is uncovered. And what do you uncover? You uncover jewels of light and you uncover tremendous levels of corruption and darkness. So light and darkness, the beings of the false hierarchy and the true sons and daughters of God, become more and more apparent. As they say, it becomes crystal clear, and the crystal ray is the feminine aspect of the All-Seeing Eye of God." The decree 50.05, "Beloved Cyclopea, Beholder of Perfection," is found in Prayers, Meditations and Dynamic Decrees for Personal and World Transformation, p. 376. (3) Gen. 8:6–12. (4) Saint Francis and the cross that is formed in the air. According to The Little Flowers of St. Francis of Assisi, a 14th century collection of stories, Saint Francis, while traveling, saw a vast flock of birds and preached to them, thanking God for their feathers, wings and freedom, after which he made the sign of the cross over them and gave them leave to depart. The birds then rose and separated into four companies—flying north, south, east, and west—forming a cross in the sky so that the preaching of the cross would be carried throughout the world. (5) The Grand Teton. This retreat, also known as the Royal Teton Retreat, is described in The Masters and Their Retreats, pp. 462–65.

Precious Gautama
To the Lord of the World
Who Wears the Mantle of Sanat Kumara

Precious Gautama
We welcome you as our new Lord
We want to serve you
So help us, Great Karmic Board.
Your gentle Presence
Now help us to manifest here
Help us outpicture our Father, so dear.

We are so grateful
That you have prepared to this time
Ready and willing
To free such a friend sublime!
To you we're grateful
For showing us God's Middle Way
Help us to live in its vict'ry each day.

Gracious Gautama
Our teacher and friend of the past
Flood men with wisdom
And set them all free at last!
Bless them with freedom
And hold them in Love's violet fire
Purify always their every desire.

Helios and Vesta
Reward this great Master of Peace
Flood all his being
With blessings that never cease!
Make our dear planet
The fullness of all she should be
Her evolutions forever all free.*
