The Living Flame of Faith

Part 2

I advise you to enter into the state of preparedness and a certain amount of military drill so that you will understand how to move quickly in time of hurricane or fire or other disaster. Thus you will become an asset to the larger community in which you serve. And if there are several [communities], when you are from the outlying districts or there are teaching centers and groups, you can understand how together you form a unit of security and therefore you can help any number of people who are not prepared spiritually or psychologically for such challenges.

Thus an army of lightbearers, by the power of the diamond heart, the white fire/blue fire, these legions of light in heaven need counterparts on earth. And I tell you, the presence of preparedness is that very substance of faith that does transmute, ahead of time, fear and doubt and the questions, “What shall I do now? Where shall we go?” And people waste energy running here and running there trying to figure out, when it is too late to figure out, what are the courses of action that will be taken.

Now, the very fact that I say these things ought to be understood as the most normal, natural preparation of the forces of heaven, as well as the military forces of earth, as well as the citizens in embodiment. This is not to alert you to any oncoming danger or concerns of sudden planetary upheaval—not in the least! It is for the guardian action of your consciousness. It is for the awareness that the troops must be trained. And we live in that epoch when the marching of the armies of heaven, led by the Faithful and True,¹ must be matched by a disciplined and diligent heart-group of souls who maintain contact with the Holy Ghost and therefore can respond by that contact.

Therefore, my faith consists of a very concrete awareness of Almighty God. It is the absolute knowledge of the Law and the Lawgiver. I AM an archangel and I know my cosmic rights! And I bequeath to you an awareness of your cosmic rights, first and foremost, to be and to will and to think and to love and to create! These are rights to be exercised! You have a right to see! You have a right to know! And you have a right to understand!

The Blue Flame Is a Magnet That Forces All into Alignment

Thus beginning at the beginning, we the archangels bring you a course in the mastery of the seven rays. And the next lesson will not come until we agree, we seven, that there is an honest determination to bring that blue flame, which you invoke daily, into a practical, orderly, organization of your life and lifestream, and that you will understand that the power of Almighty God that you invoke is nothing to be tampered with and that when you invoke it, you must be stewards of God-harmony so that the faith itself may not be disturbed.

Blessed ones, if you know any lifestreams who have an acceleration of this flame of the blue ray, you will understand the presence of power and you will realize that that powerful presence not only has the power to align all who may be near, but it also has the power to irritate all energies that are disorganized, chaotic, and unaligned. For the blue flame is like a pillar of fire. It is a magnet that forces all into alignment, Alpha/Omega. So the people of earth align themselves, as they ought to, around the pole of energy, and therefore can become a chalice.

Now imagine, beloved hearts, when these ones are not in tune with either the polarity of Alpha or Omega. Thrust into the very center of them a powerful spiritual being, and they feel the pull to come into alignment. And yet there is a resistance, for they themselves have not developed within themselves the desire or the oneness with the magnet of the Central Sun. And therefore they feel this pull. It is resisted.

And thus you see why there are few true leaders in the world. It is because when the true sons of God come as leaders, there is the resistance of the fallen ones who point the finger, who malign them, who spread gossip and lies and disinformation. Nation by nation, the heroes are cut down. For the presence of the son of God who has espoused that will at inner levels becomes a thrust, a challenge, a sword that is held high and says, "I am the disciplined one. I am in the center of the will of God."

And thus those who have not made that inner surrender to the will of God, they are offended. They become upset. They cannot even tell you why they become upset. They simply are not happy in the presence of those who carry this light.

And therefore nation by nation you can see how the Soviets through the KGB have sought to eliminate anyone who has that alignment and that polarity. It is because there is not a project, an organization, a bill in Congress, a committee, an effort, there is not a Boy Scout troop, a Brownie troop, or any unit of action that can function without the individual at the center who has the key alignment with the will of God and may contact, by the fire of faith, what is the pattern and the Christ plan for that endeavor.

Thus those who rise to the head and become leaders in the military forces are expected to have that alignment, at least with what they have been taught and the orders and disciplines given—which disciplines are calculated as a matrix in military fashion to give the individual who has heart the ability to contact Serapis and Morya and to understand attunement with the will of God.

Unlocking the Initiation of Each of the Seven Rays Comes by Faith

Thus this training is a very important training. And when the patterns are set in little children of the disciplined use of energy and the chakras and the light and the love for marching itself, you will see that there is a matrix that also lends itself to be the magnet of the will of God. The child, the adult, those of every age then learn to magnetize the will of God. And as the will comes to them through exercises in the physical octave, they contain more of the will, more of the faith, more of the substance of things that are to come.

Thus they contain a magnet. Thus that portion of the Godhead is given to them. And thus love begets love. Faith begets more faith. Hope begets hope. And you begin to see the spiral turning and a fire being fanned and a flame bursting forth. And by and by, through the individual's own attraction of the virtues of the Godhead, you see that the Holy Spirit does descend over this spiral rising, over the offering of the heart and the love of the individual pursuing the plane of perfection through the seven rays.

Unlocking the initiation of each of the seven rays comes by faith. And thus, beloved ones, if you have faith, let that faith be pure and let it be fastened to the right star.

Pure Desire for God and His Will Begets Pure Faith

Many have faith—ultimate, fanatical faith—which is an impure faith in false leaders, false teachers, false ideologies and systems. Therefore, many have fastened their energy to one who is leading them lower and lower in vibration into the pit and pitfalls of hell itself.

Understand that it is the pure desire for God and his will that begets pure faith. When you have pure faith and have surrendered all else, then you do magnetize the light, the light does descend, you are quickened, and you will see! You will see the New Day and the dawning of your own personal Christhood and you will come to be that individual that you know already that you are!

Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God! I attempt therefore to give you a message of deliverance so that you might visualize faith as an arc of blue electricity leaping and sparkling and making the transition from death unto life. If flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, then by faith walk in the light of your own eternal Self and become that Self!

Be confident, as I was long, long ago, before I became an archangel. Be confident that you can make the transition from a way of life subject to the law of mortality (as the evolutions of this earth are) to a way of life subject to the law of the Infinite One.

Many who have leaned upon the arm of mortal law are still possessed of fear, which that law begets—fear to let go of the security of holding on. There comes a time when you may not hold on to anyone, when you must walk by your own locomotion, your own balance, your own ability. No one is there to hold your hand when you make your first speech. You may not cling to the podium. No one is there when you must walk forth and do your duty and fulfill your assignment as you have been taught. The day of the solo comes in every profession, every field of endeavor, and every discipline.

The Day-by-Day Staying Power of Your Service

You are the disciplined ones, and you are being trained to become ascended masters of the Great White Brotherhood! And in order to get there, you will stand one day and determine, “This is the hour of my ascension! I will ascend!” And you will do it alone—God in you, and you in God. He will not take you against your will. And your will in that hour will be the will of millions of affirmations of will in action—right action, right decision, split-second timing, being there to catch the child before the child does fall. It takes only attunement.

This is a lesson that you recently observed when you saw a film concerning a pilot who, as it was written and so the story went, was able to steal a plane from the Soviet Union.² And the decision and the will was fired by faith and purpose and determination, and ultimately by the absolute reliance on inner guidance when no other—no other was available or would do.

Some of you have thought that if your ascension and your chelaship would depend on such a feat that perhaps you would never arrive. Well, beloved ones, believe it or not, the day-by-day staying power of your service and your response to us—as we implore you to give the call for this and that by bringing it before your very eyes and attention—this service is just as difficult, just as precision,* just as demanding.

Therefore, you in fact are developing that ability and that Christ consciousness to pass through into the very bowels of hell itself, as it were, in order to pluck out one lost soul in whose heart there beats a threefold flame and to rescue that soul of light from all of the clutches of many layers, as though there were almost catacombs of layers of demons and discarnates who would attempt to prevent your passage to rescue that one soul of light.

*precision: adj.: adapted for extremely accurate measurement or operation (Merriam-Webster.com/dictionary)

You are developing this capability! And some of you would fare quite well in this hour in the very tests that I give to my angels who would move up the ranks of our bands. These tests are rigorous and demanding, and my angels may prepare for a long, long time before they take these tests. But I tell you, some of you are undergoing circumstances just as trying in this hour and have greater abilities than you realize, and, alas, sometimes greater than you do exercise.

It is the exercise that sharpens the tool and allows you to know what you can do, what you cannot do, what you can expect in your own performance and in another. Thus the tests of circumstances and situations in your home countries will show you, therefore, where you must go back and exercise and develop the balanced threefold flame.

Become Experts on the Machinations and the Modus Operandi of the Fallen Ones

I AM Archangel Michael, and I AM a teacher of millions. And I train the self-disciplined ones in a vast understanding of cosmic mastery. And I say “vast” because the subject is vast!

We therefore declare this day as that day number one, when there shall go forth from Keepers of the Flame, from this altar and from hearts of light worldwide, the rolling back by every ray of the seven of the entire world movement of Communism, of the Nephilim gods, and of all who supply them with their technology, their grain, their money, and their support and sympathy.

Beloved hearts, you who have been laboring long in defense of world freedom, you who have given your services, we come. We respond to the flame of freedom that burns on Saturday night³ and we say: The dispensations from the Godhead, in the absolute determination to overthrow the hierarchies of the ancient ones, the false hierarchies, is in this hour multiplied and does come forth from Alpha and Omega.

It is an unflinching faith and a God-determination that allows this fire to burn in this heart where I stand and to be absolutely convinced—without a doubt, without a fear, without a single human question—as to how or where or when it shall be done that the entire momentum of the Soviet Union of this earth and the seizing of landed areas thereof will be put back, will be turned, will be upset! And the day of liberation will come to those oppressed peoples, who are oppressed by the fallen ones and the devils incarnate.

I, Archangel Michael, have spoken it from the very fount of my own heart of faith, from the very Presence of Alpha and Omega, and from the Great Central Sun. Therefore give us the tools! Give us the information! Give us the dynamic decrees! And become experts, as you have never been experts before with all of your previous knowledge, on the machinations and the modus operandi of the subversion of the earth by the fallen ones.

Let it come to pass, therefore, that the sword that is raised by the messenger does become the sword of the World Mother in the hand of every Keeper of the Flame worldwide. And know therefore that this thrust comes from the Godhead and it is announced by us from that Source. And because it comes from Almighty God, we know that it shall not fail! It will not fail because God has decreed it! This answer is sufficient for us! It is our faith!

Keep On Keeping On!

This faith, then, is the nucleus of the very divine plan that takes in the complement of the whole of the seven rays. And we know, having received that nucleus as a diamond in our hearts, that all we need do is put ourselves on the line of action and the very matrix of the Christ. The formula of the Word and the formula of the incoming golden age will outpicture through our willing, loving, hoping hearts, our daring, honorable hearts. And one with our chelas worldwide, we will release the light, and we will do it in Saint Germain's name!

And we know that the ongoing march of freedom will come to pass. And those who make themselves instruments of this victory will see the victory pass through them and go before them so that in their very marching they will have to catch up with the very light that has acted through them in order to keep tempo with that light itself!

Do you understand, beloved hearts? ["Yes!"] It is the movement of the LORD's hosts in action in heaven and in earth, all meditating on the mind of God and increasing the vision and the probe and the direction of the dynamic decree.

I say to you and you and you, keep on keeping on! For these vigils are designed for the sharpening of your understanding. And when you have finished them, you will come to the place where, beloved hearts, worldwide you will see a correlation. You will come to understand the pattern of the entire situation. You will note the repetitions. You will recognize, before they even speak, who are the snakes and the cowards with which you will wrestle deftly by the sword of blue flame.

I AM Archangel Michael! I speak to you in a new garment and a new light. Therefore, I say, follow me if you can! I can only wait so long, and then I must march!

"The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom." This previously unpublished dictation by Archangel Michael was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Sunday, November 27, 1983, during the seminar, "A Prayer Vigil for the Nations." Part 1 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 33. [N.B. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] (1) Rev. 19:11–16. (2) A pilot who was able to steal a plane from the Soviet Union. Archangel Michael is likely referring to Viktor Belenko (1947–2023), who was a Russian-born pilot serving with the Soviet Air Defense Forces. On September 6, 1976, he defected to the West by flying his MiG-25 jet interceptor fighter to Hokkaido, Japan. The Japanese government allowed the United States to examine the plane, and military intelligence scrutinized the aircraft and its specifications. The aircraft was then dismantled and shipped back in crates to the Soviet Union by the Japanese. Belenko began a new life in the United States and was granted asylum by President Gerald Ford and given U.S. citizenship, with a trust fund set up for him. He later became a U.S. aerospace engineer, and in 1980, Belenko co-wrote an autobiography with author and journalist John Barron entitled MiG Pilot: The Final Escape of Lieutenant Belenko. (3) The flame of freedom that burns on Saturday night. Archangel Michael is speaking of the three-hour Saint Germain service given by Keepers of the Flame worldwide on Saturday evening. The service is dedicated to Saint Germain, to the freedom flame, and to the preservation of freedom in America and in all nations.
